Friends Mourn Sudden Death of Chas. H. Crowley

Charles H. Crowley, widely known and respected by all who knew him, died suddenly at his home on Thursday morning last week, and was buried on Saturday morning in the Blessed Sacrament Church. A large number of friends attended the funeral, and there were many flowers and Mass cards, expressive of the esteem in which he was held by his friends.

Though death came suddenly, Mr. Crowley was fortified by the Sacraments of his Church and the prayers of those near and dear to him. He was at one time associated with D. M. Garon, and with Allen Strauss & Co., clothiers. He was one of the organizers of the C. M. B. A. in Rochester, and of the old Western Loan & Savings Association. At the time of his death he was connected with his son, Harry B. Crowley, in the insurance business. He was for many years a member of the Corpus Christi parish, and a trustee of that church.

News Jaunts Around the World

Boston, June 12.—Reforming the world is a sad business. Wycliffe Watson, 19-year-old son of the Rev. Dr. Robert Watson, Presbyterian clergyman and executive secretary of the Lord's Day League of New England, was held in 500 bail in Dorchester Court Monday on charges of drunkenness. His automobile, filled with Prohibition pamphlets, made him dry, perhaps—caused in the rear of a motorcycle while riding. Both, injured, were taken to a hospital. A third cop—Wickey's name—arrested the minister's son and locked him up. There is a rumor, unsubstantiated, that all Boston cops left their best "kick" around the clerical automobile filled with Prohibition pamphlets.
