EAST BLOOMFIELD
EDMUND CLEARY
East Bloomfield, Sept. 18—Edmund Cleary, aged 75, a lifelong resident of East Bloomfield, died Thursday last week in Memorial Hospital, Canandaigua. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. P. H. Gleason of Lima. His funeral was held from Mrs. Gleason's home Monday morning at 8 o'clock and in St. Bridget's Church, East Bloomfield, at 9. Burial was made in this village. Many friends were present at the funeral service.

Not only in solitude, but even in the company of others we can preserve solitude of heart and familiarly converse with God.

BLESSED SACRAMENT
Mrs. William F. Love, of Westminister Road, served as chairman of hostesses for a large luncheon that was held Monday in the Blessed Sacrament School. This was the first of a series of Fall and Winter luncheons, and it was a great success. The attendance was excellent, and the event was most enjoyable. Mrs. Louis A. Whalen is general chairman of these luncheons, and the indications are that all of them will be well patronized.

Miss Agnes R. Duffy of this city and Melvin J. Heenan of Lockport were united in marriage at the Blessed Sacrament Church on Tuesday last week, the Rev. Thomas F. Connors, rector of the church, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. McElroy were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Heenan will be at home after October 1 at 154 Church Street, Lockport. They have many friends who will unite in wishing them a happy married life.

ELMIRA

K. C. Officers Are Installed

Elmira, Sept. 18.—The recently elected officers of Elmira Council, K. of C., were installed at a regular meeting of the Council on Tuesday evening this week. There was a large attendance of members, and the meeting was a very inspiring one. Cornelius J. Milliken, District Deputy, and also Grand Knight of the Council, was in charge of the ceremonies. The other officers are as follows:

Daniel J. Birmingham, Jr., deputy grand knight; Dr. Louis C. Ludico, chancellor; John J. Saunders, warden; Howard A. Hubert, financial secretary; Thomas J. McArthur, recording secretary; Edward H. Kramer, treasurer; Charles W. Melville, lecturer; Robert J. Maloney, trustee for three years; Cornelius O'Dea, advocate; Stephen J. Brennan, inside guard; and Nicholas J. Gimaldi, Jr., outside guard.

Announcement was made that the first degree of the Order will be conferred upon a class of candidates on the evening of next week, and that all past Grand Knights of the Council will be honored on that occasion.

MORAVIA

CHURCH FOOD SALE
Moravia, Sept. 18.—Twenty dollars was cleared from the food sale conducted last Saturday at the store of P. J. Murray by women of St. Patrick's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nolan of 527 1/2 Lyell Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kraft of 331 Genesee Park boulevard, were among those entertained Sunday at a dinner given by Miss Ella Nolan of Central Street, Moravia.

CHURCHVILLE

KEENAN—HALLADAY
Churchville, Sept. 18.—Francis Keenan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keenan of this village, was united in marriage in St. Peter and Paul's Church in Rochester on Sept. 8th to Miss Ruth Halladay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. Halladay of Arnett Boulevard in that city. The Rev. Robert J. A. Fox performed the ceremony. The bride wore a white satin Princess Eugenie gown and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms, lilies and sprigged slips. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Mildred Tobias, matron of honor, wore pink crepe trimmed with blue, a half-bride hat of pink with blue trimming and lace muffs. She carried pink roses and larkspur. Clement Budney was the best man and Ralph Owen and George Tobias were the ushers.

The Golden Anniversary Of the American Red Cross Celebration

Forty hours' devotion will be held in St. Mary's Church Sept. 26-27.

The Rev. Leo G. Hofschneider was in Rochester Tuesday of this week, Sept. 15, to attend the family dinner in observance of the eighty-third anniversary birthday of his venerable mother, Mrs. Mary Hofschneider.

During his visit to Danville for the Red Cross Golden Anniversary Celebration, Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Horn was guest of the Rev. Leo G. Hofschneider at St. Mary's rectory.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zuzanski, sons Junior, Leon and Paul, and Mrs. Frank Schucker of Rochester have been visiting at the Joseph Meyers home, Park Avenue.

Miss Alma Albert of Danville and Miss Betty Scaglia of Rochester are enjoying a motor trip through the south, but will return in time for entrance to the Albany State College, Sept. 23.

Father Hofschneider
The Rev. Leo G. Hofschneider, pastor of St. Mary's Church, gave benediction at the Clara Barton Memorial Celebration, Stony Brook State Park, Danville, Wednesday, Sept. 9. His effective prayer was as follows:

O God, all provident and merciful Father of mankind, we beg Thy blessing upon our efforts of this day. We have borrowed Thy precious time to pay honorable tribute to Clara Barton, one of Thy noble servants.

Christ, Thy Son, hath said: "I have compassion upon the multitude," and again: "Love thy neighbor as thyself." The Red Cross Society gives practical expression to this compassion and love of neighbor.

O God, may Thy celebration remind us to Thy greater honor and glory. May it immortalize the memory of Thy servant Clara, its founder. May it instill into the hearts of every American citizen the true spirit of the American Red Cross Society, and contribute to its unequalled success.

O God, America a Thine Own Country, it stands unique among the Nations of the world. It is singularly unselfish and compassionate.

That it may ever remain so, we ask Thy special blessing upon OUR COUNTRY and its PRESIDENT, upon OUR STATE and its GOVERNOR, and upon OUR Community at large.

We ask Thee to bless every member of the Red Cross Society and every one who may in any way lend grace to this occasion.

If, perchance, in Thy wisdom Thou permit a heavy visitation to test our fidelity, may the Red Cross Society appear as an Angel of Mercy and Compassion.

These benedictions we ask in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

SHORTSVILLE

Sister of Priest Buried on Friday

Shortsville, Sept. 18.—The funeral of Mrs. Ann L. Gilligan, wife of T. Frank Gilligan, was held in St. Dominic's Church here, last Friday morning. Many friends attended the services, including a number of priests, and there were numerous floral tributes.

Mrs. Gilligan died on Wednesday at Clifton Springs, beloved by a great many friends. She is survived by her husband; two sons, Francis and William; and a daughter, Helen of Shortsville; a brother, the Rev. William Byrne of Ithaca; and two sisters, Mary T. Byrne of Ithaca and Margaret R. Byrne of Rochester.

K. of C. Bowling Leagues

The opening of the official K. of C. American and National Bowling Leagues will take place at the Columbus Civic Center on Monday evening, Sept. 21st, at 7 o'clock. Members of the K. of C. wishing to bowl are requested to call A. J. Doud, Monroe 7379. A busy and satisfactory season is looked forward to by the bowlers in these well-established leagues.

Though we frequently receive the Sacraments and even have the honor of covering with the angels, we must nevertheless be on our guard, and distrust ourselves, for the devil who never sleeps makes every effort to divert us from the service of God.

For Autumn Wear

Elaborate materials will be noted when the first sign of spring brings out the latest products of costume designers. In the picture beige lame is used as a background for the beautiful sable fur. A brown hat and beige shoes are worn.

White Raincoats Catch Fancy of Fashionable

White raincoats have captured the fancy of the fashionable. Coats and capes of various materials in snowy white are effective in the rain, from both a practical and a fashionable point of view. White canvas and white waterproofed silk, shiny white rubber materials are considered smart.

Long white capes of military favor, some with plings and buttons of black, are a desirable feature. It is necessary for the woman who does her shopping by motor, as it is easy to slip in and out of the short time from the car to the door of the market.

Parish News

ST. AUGUSTINE'S
On Tuesday morning a well-beloved parishioner of St. Augustine's Church, Mrs. Katherine Gruener, was buried from the church. Many friends were present at the funeral, and there were many Mass cards and floral tributes.

Mrs. Gruener lived to the age of 80 years. She died last Friday at her home, 60 Briggs Street, and her funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Pommerening, 24 Wilbur Street. Besides Mrs. Pommerening, she is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. George Duell of Buffalo and Mrs. Mary Loewenbruck of this city, and by 11 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

FLASHES FROM PARIS

According to the recent Paris openings, the remarkable change in millinery which has to do with romantic little hats worn tilted over one eye and which declare a revival of picturesque plumage, is not having so great an influence on the rest of the costume as to make it impractical for women who live in this busy day and age. At least, so far as informal daytime and sports fashions are concerned, designers have maintained a reasonable style balance, since most of the collections favor discreet and wearable types.

As to the new evening types they definitely reflect period influence, in so far that many silhouettes suggest a return to bustle effects, together with trimmings of quaint little puffs and ruffles and all sorts of feminine frills and flourishes, such as had to do with fashions which flourished from the 1890s to the 1920s.

Flower Chin Straps New Idea for Tilted Hats

Flower chin straps are a new idea for holding extremely tilted hats in place. To the flat pancake hats worn over the right ear, several models have added chin straps of roses or gardenias to anchor the shapely at the correct angle on the forehead.

The departure adds to the air of last century charm. Brooding, sea-hats which follow the reigning Princess mode.
