Penn Yan Church Plans Bazaar And Roast Beef Suppers Oct. 5th And 6th in New St. Michael's Hall

Rev. John G. Killeen, Pastor, Invites Friends and Present Former Parishioners to Event—First Bazaar in Several Years.

Penn Yan, Sept. 28.—Plans are practically completed for holding a bazaar, and roast beef suppers, on the evenings of October 5th and 6th, in the newly completed St. Michael's Hall in the basement of the church, which was recently remodeled and decorated at a cost of several thousands of dollars. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the church, and to all present and former parishioners to be present on these evenings, which will mark, in a social way, the celebration of the completion of the extensive improvements made to the church property here.

The new hall which will accommodate 1,000 people in last week's completion and the final finishing touches will be put on before the evening designated as the dates for the roast beef suppers and bazaar.

The Rev. John G. Killeen, pastor of the parish, is supervising all arrangements and is assisted by a corps of workers who have been grouped as follows:

Tables, Mrs. Nora Durkin; service, Mrs. Claude Sherman; candy booth, Mrs. Arthur Clark; tickets, Miss Ann Hoban; Mrs. Dennis Lyons; children's booth, Miss Mary V. Reilly; fancywork booth, Mrs. William B. Manly.

It is several years since a church bazaar has been held by St. Michael's parish and big crowds are expected for both evenings. Plans call for a 100 per cent working body of the parish, and each member will be called upon either to be an active worker or to assist in some way, whether to purchase tickets for the suppers or other activities. An executive committee consisting of several members of the parish has been appointed to check on the general details.

Priests United After 50 Years Of Separation

Monsignor Bloomer of Elmira and Rev. William Quinlan of Georgia Were Friends in College.

Elmira, Sept. 25.—After a separation of more than 50 years, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Bloomer, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, and the Rev. William Quinlan of Atlanta, Ga., friends in St. Bonaventure's Seminary 65 years ago are reunited again.

Father Quinlan came to Elmira the other day to visit his college chum and is a guest at Msgr. Bloomer's parochial residence on Park Place. The reunion has brought together two men who have the unusual record of having served more than 60 years each in the priesthood.

Msgr. Bloomer and Father Quinlan were classmates at St. Bonaventure's Seminary and were graduated in 1867. The latter priest was ordained Dec. 18, 1868, in Buffalo, and this year will celebrate the 63rd anniversary of his ordination. Father Quinlan was ordained in January, 1871, in Augusta, Ga., and about the time of the local pastor's departure in the Papal household with rank of monsignor last Jan. 11, his early classmate was celebrating the 60th anniversary of his ordination.

It was through an account of this event appearing in an Atlanta paper that Msgr. Bloomer got in communication with Father Quinlan. He wrote to the latter, congratulating and inviting him to Elmira for a visit.

The children of St. Mary's school were present in a body at this service, and the church was well filled with friends.

Bishop O'Hern spoke happily in appreciation of the occasion, and extended his warmest congratulations to Dean McGrath, together with his well-wishes for future anniversaries. The Bishop was a guest of Dean McGrath at a dinner at 1 o'clock, and a number of priests rounded out a happy group of friends, gathered to extend their good wishes to the well-beloved Dean.
