

CORNING
Former Resident
Wed in Rochester

Corning, Sept. 25.—The Rev. A. F. Temmerman, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church in Corning, went to Rochester on Wednesday last week and officiated in the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes at the marriage of Miss Helena Marie Collins, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Collins of that city, to Thomas William McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGrath of Niagara Falls.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Thomas E. Collins. She wore a gown of white satin and lace. Her veil of tulle was fastened with orange blossoms to a cap of real lace worn by her grandmother, and she carried a bouquet of orchids and white flowers.

The Misses Gladys and Helen Schroeder of Corning, the bridesmaids, wore ivory tulle gowns, with American Beauty trimmings and carried American beauty roses. Miss Margaret Queen, daughter of Niagara Falls, was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue and pink. Peggy Collins, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink chiffon, carrying an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses and white flowers. Thomas Collins of Niagara Falls was best man.

Nuptial High Mass was celebrated by Rev. James J. Salway, of Niagara University, assisted by Rev. A. F. Temmerman, and the Rev. Frank J. Mason. The church was beautifully decorated with fall flowers. The ceremony followed by a wedding breakfast served to about 100 guests on the roof of the Sagamore.

Mr. McGrath was graduated from St. Vincent de Paul's School, Corning Sacred Heart Seminary, Stella Niagara, and attended St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind. She was a member of the Glee club of the school in this city. The groom attended Niagara University and is associated with his father in business at Niagara Falls, where they will remain after a month of travel in the North.

After from Corning at the wedding, the bride and groom, including Mr. and Mrs. George Hogue, Norman Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Roche and Miss Ruth Moore.

WEEDSPORT
MRS. O'HARA
Weedsport, Sept. 25.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. John's Church here on Sept. 12th, when Miss Marie Kathleen O'Hara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Buren O'Hara of Port Byron and Charles Alan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Catherine O'Hara of Weedsport, were married by the Rev. Father Walker. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of blue, trimmed with pink, lace mitts, a pink velvet hat and pumps and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Marie O'Hara was maid of honor, wore a gown of blue and white, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a boutonniere of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the bride's home, where breakfast was served to 40 guests. There were guests present from Union, Rochester, Syracuse and other places. After an extended trip through New England and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. O'Hara will be at home after Oct. 1 at 85 Park Avenue. They will have the best wishes of their numerous friends for a happy married life.

This and spiritual love causes all the same to walk in one and the same way, as St. Monica's love obtained from God that St. Augustine should go with her to heaven by the one path, and in the one path.

Auburn, Sept. 25.—St. Hyacinth's Church has been authorized by Supreme Court Justice Kenyon to sell the property it owns at 227 State Street, Auburn, to Anna Skorska for $3,700. The application for the order states that the market value of the remaining real estate of St. Hyacinth's Church is at least $150,000; the cash value of personal assets is at least $10,000 and debts and liabilities are not over $25,000.

ONTARIO CENTER
MRS. JULIA FURESH

Ontario Center, Sept. 25.—Mrs. Julia Furesh, aged 77, died Sunday. She leaves three sons, three daughters and 18 grandchildren. The funeral of Mrs. Furesh was held on Wednesday morning in St. Mary's of the Lake Church, and it was attended by many relatives and friends. She was a beloved woman, and was held in good regard by all who knew her.

GENEVA
BAUER-DALY

Sept. 25.—Miss Cecelia Daly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Daly of Geneva, and Joseph H. Bauer of Rochester were married on Aug. 24, in St. Stephen's Church. The Rev. William H. McPadden performed the ceremony. Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Ward of Odessa were the attendants. A breakfast was served to members of the immediate families at Lafayette in following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Bauer left on a wedding trip to Ottawa and Montreal and are at home now at 221 Alexander Street, Rochester. All of their numerous friends will unite in wishing them a happy married life.

CLYDE
MRS. JAMES H. MACK

Clyde, Sept. 25.—Mrs. James H. Mack died at her home in Locke Street, Clyde, last Friday evening after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Weedsport but came to Clyde with her parents when she was two years of age and has since resided there. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Richard Miller of Rochester, Mrs. David Camp of Newark, N. Y., and Mrs. Irving Rhodes of Albany; one son, James R. Mack of Blightman; a brother, Timothy Sullivan of Clyde, and a sister, Mrs. Anna O'Hara of Buffalo.

The funeral of Mrs. Mack was held in St. John's Church here on Monday morning, and there were many friends in attendance. Mrs. Mack was well beloved by all who knew her, and her death has brought sorrow to many people.

SENECA FALLS
FLANAGAN-DURKIN

Seneca Falls, Sept. 25.—A pretty wedding took place Monday morning in St. Patrick's Church, when Miss Mary C. Durkin, daughter of Mrs. Mary Durkin of 18 Ridge Street, and John L. Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan of Center Street, Waterloo, were married by the Rev. B. L. Quirk, pastor, who celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Flanagan of Buffalo, sister of the groom. Harry Crosby of Seneca Falls was the best man. A wedding breakfast was served to 34 at the home of the bride's mother following the ceremony.

The couple left on a western motor trip, and upon their return will live in Batavia. Mr. Flanagan is employed as a guard at the Attica State Prison. He and his bride will have the best wishes of many friends for a happy married life.

The attendants were Miss Eleanor Entress, sister of the groom, and John Erne, brother of the bride.

Virtuous men are sometimes more disturbed and their spiritual progress more retarded by straw and trifles than others are harmed by things of great importance.

President

JAMES M. MANGAN
Albany, Sept. 25.—The future road building program of the State will be one of the most important subjects under discussion at the Annual Convention of the New York State Automobile Association, to be held at Jamestown, September 30th and October 1st and 2nd. James M. Mangan of Rochester, President of the State Association, will preside at this convention. He will be assisted by Owen B. Angerhofer, Erie, Vice-President and Chairman of the Legislative Committee.

Football Flashes

This week the football dust will fly in earnest. Some of the best eleven in the country open their season Saturday. Among these are: New York Univ. vs. Hobart, at the Polo Grounds; Fordham vs. Thiel at Fordham Field; N. Y. City College vs. Seton Hall, at Lewiston Stadium; Cornell vs. Clarkson, at Ithaca; Colgate vs. Niagara, at Hamilton; Boston College vs. Catholic Univ., at Boston; Holy Cross vs. St. Bonaventura, at Worcester; Wesleyan vs. Rochester U. at Middletown; Georgetown vs. Lebanon Valley, at Washington; Alfred vs. Hamilton, at Alfred; Buffalo vs. Carnegie Tech., at Buffalo; Syracuse vs. St. Lawrence, at Syracuse; Villanova vs. Loyola, at Philadelphia. And a lot of others.

The meat will be on the ice Sunday afternoon, when the Russar Market football team will tackle the Hertzler ice team at the Edgerton Park paddock. "Heinie" Swarthout, Dartmouth grid star, is coaching the Russers this year, while "Honks" Weaver has the Hertzler outfit. Both teams are strong, and the Russers have both eyes on the city championship.

In true peace the soul is so united to the will of God that there is no division between God and the soul. Philadelphia. And a lot of others.

Lawn Festival
For St. Philip Neri's Church

The first annual lawn festival for the benefit of St. Philip Neri's Church will be held on the church grounds, Clifford Avenue, near Goodman Street, on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 23 and 24. On Friday night clam chowder will be a specialty, while on Saturday night a delicious ham barbecue will be served to all patrons. The festival is under the general chairmanship of Benedict Saunders. Assisting him are many zealous workers. The various booths will be as follows:

Clam chowder, coffee and cake, refreshments, sausage, ice cream, candy, blankets, groceries, amusements, dollar booth, ham and bacon, variety booth, fish pond, ticket booth, etc. Reception and publicity committees will help make it a great success.

ELMIRA
BENEFIT CARD PARTY
Monday evening a benefit card party was held in St. Peter and Paul's School hall, under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Bridge, 500 and euchre were played. Miss Frances Lacey was chairman of the party, the proceeds of which will be used for charity. The attendance was excellent, and everybody had a good time.

A very good remedy for erasing the attachment to earthly things which you remark in yourself is not to think of them, but, on the contrary, to raise your mind to God.
