Veteran Saw Lee Surrender To Gen'l Grant

Resident of Spencerport, Frederick Bach, Dies in His Ninetieth Year-Is Buried Monday.

Spencerport, ct. 3 Frederick Bach, aged 90 years, a veteran of the Civil War, and one of the few who saw General Lee surrender to General Grant at Appomatox, died at his home pear this village last Friday and was buried on Monday morning from St. John's Church here. He was present at the famous sur render that brought the Civil War to an end, and all these years he had treasured the recollection of this his toric event.

Mr. Bach was born in Saxony Germany, January 24, 1841, and came to America with his parents when 12 years old. He enlisted in the Civil War, was made corporal to 1862, and degrees to 1862. in 1863, and sergeant in 1865. He participated in the battles of An lietam, Harper's Ferry, Culpepper, Second Bull Run, Winchester, Fisher's Hill, the Wilderness, Five Forks and Gettysburg. He also took part in Wilson's raid. He was a member of Commandery 43, Knights of St. George, and Pels-ner Post, G. A. R., of Rochester. He is survived by two sons, Edward J. ind John M. of Rochester; a daughter; Mrs. Andrew Conrad of Spencer port, and nine grandchildren.
