Notable Convention of Men Is Notable in Many Ways

 Just as an individual is guilty of a crime, so is a nation. The greatest crime of any nation, and the greatest crime of all the nations of the earth today, is the crime of apostasy from God and His Christ. What hope can there be for a country that does not consider God and His law as of primal importance, the very foundation upon which culture and civil and religious order must rest? The eternal and immutable law of

Brighton Dairy Selected Milk Means The Best

Most people understand that there are various grades of milk, just as there are various grades of any other product. The following information from the Brighton Place Dairy Company sheds some light on this subject, usually puzzling to the average layman:
 "Every dairy experiences daily the receiving of a quantity of milk from certain farms where the standard of richness and flavor marks the product as being of super quality. An extra premium is paid to the farmer for this milk and in almost every city in the state this milk is marketed apart from the rest of the supply and is designated as 'Grade A'."
 "The Rochester statutes do not provide for a 'Grade A' so we are not offering this milk under that name. We have adopted the name 'Selected' which is truthfully descriptive of the product in every sense of the word—the best milk on the market.

Sanitation is stressed. One does not have to be an expert in health inspection to grasp the magnitude of the plant efforts made by any modern dairy to keep milk and associated products at the highest point of purity, especially during warm summer periods. But the many details upon which rest the successful distribution of sweet milk over a vast area are most vividly impressed upon the casual visitor who might happen to drop in at the plant of the Brighton Place Dairy Company in Fulton Avenue. And, if time permitted, this visit would be further impressive upon a careful check-up of the many cases which must be borne by this great organization.
 Milk is milk in one sense of the word, but Brighton Place Pasturized Guernsey, as well as the many other distinct milk specialties handled by them, comes under a special classification of superior quality. This classification

God must guide every nation that is not to revert to barbarism, or that is not doomed to destruction. As apostasy from God is the greatest crime of the nations, so the greatest problem of the world today is how to bring the nations back to God, how to make them once more a living force in their national thought and their national lives, how to make God's claim considered before all others.

Duty to Country

Our duty is especially to our own beloved country. What can we do to make the law of God recognized as the supreme law of our land? What can be done to bring home to the citizen that the authority he exercises has its source in God? What can be done to make every citizen realize that the authority of the State, unless supported by God, must give way? In the United States, no law that is contrary to the Constitution has any force. To determine the constitutionality of our laws, the Fathers of our country established a Supreme Court. But we must recognize that there is something still higher than the Constitution, something without which the Constitution itself has no force—and that something is the law of God. Without Divine sanction no human enactments can promote the common welfare, nor can they endure.

Loving America as we love our very lives, we cannot think of her as apostatizing from God and His Christ. There are, however, ominous signs of such an apostasy. We are not an irreligious people and yet it cannot be denied that we are rapidly drifting into naturalism, that we are showing indifference to God, that material considerations are absorbing the attention of too many who have been most richly endowed with intellectual powers.

Crime Terrifying

If God be not supreme, if His law be not binding, if there be no eternal destiny for man, and if all human affairs are not to have the approving or disapproving judgment of God, what is there to restrain man, except physical force? An explanation of the terrifying increase of crime in our country during the past few years is to be found in the general rejection of the law of God, as the Supreme Judge, awaiting man at the end of his journey. The nation that does not consider God, that does not fear Him as the Judge to whom an accounting must be made, has no restraining power except physical force.

Blurred Vision And Eye Strain And Their Cause

Far-sightedness is a condition which affects about 80 per cent of all people in some degree. It is a condition in which the light is focused by the eye behind the retina (recording plate) and unless the eye can compensate for this condition blurred vision is the result.
 In the cases of low degree there often is no noticeable loss of vision as the eye by straining will compensate for the error, but often as a result of this straining one or more of the following symptoms may appear—headaches, nervousness, sore lids, tired feeling after reading or other close work, eyes may water. These conditions are very liable to cause the person affected to believe it is not his eyes because his vision remains clear.
 In the errors of higher degree there is often a definite loss of vision accompanied by similar symptoms as in the lower degree except the symptoms are often not so severe because the error is so great that it cannot be overcome and consequently the eye does not strain as much.
 Anyone who is troubled by any one of the above conditions should consult an optometrist who without the aid of drugs or medicine, but through the skillful use of scientific instruments, measures the human eye and prescribes glasses for its needs. For an appointment call Genesee 5713.

Priests, Sisters, Helping Chinese In Flood Regions

St. Columban, Neb., Oct. 16.—A cabled dispatch to The Far East. Organ of the Chinese Mission Society, here, reports that 50,000 refugees from flooded areas are now in Yang. Headquarters of the missionaries of St. Columban in Hupoh, China.
 Priests and Sisters are busy night and day on relief work. The Sisters of Loreto from Kentucky and the Missionary Sisters of St. Columban are established in Hanyuan.
 The dispatch says that hundreds are dying and that many are asking for baptism in their last hours.

The Secular Press

The secular press, in too many instances, is not realizing that it is working against God. The press claims to be free, and we want it free. But as freedom of the individual does not mean that he is at liberty to pursue a course of action that must lead to his own degradation and that of others, so freedom of the press does not mean that it can therefore open its columns to those who by seditious arguments would undermine belief in God and destroy the whole code of Christian morality. The press is abusing its freedom when it allows individuals or groups to assail the supernatural and when it gives space to writers who hold up in ridicule sacred things of religion to ridicule. It is true that the secular press has a most difficult and delicate task in dealing with the question of religion, considering the hundreds of forms of superstition and when it is faced with common sense should make the most judicious use of its freedom, and by excluding from its columns all indirect attacks on God and all articles in which sex aberrations are treated as though they had no moral aspect.

The Moving Pictures

The moving pictures and the stage-factors in our life which should be of great educational value—are in too many instances destructive of all sense of morality, especially in those of immature years. They, too, are mighty forces working against God. (continued on Page Three)
