Invitation

Come away with me from burning city streets,
Away from angry thoughts, and love with use grown stale,
And we will range the hills and watch the fleets
Of olden days go by with gleaming sail.

Come away with me to where the white waves break
Against the silent rock-walls of the sea;
We'll climb unto the heights for Fancy's sake—
Come sing a bit and dream a bit with me.

—E. R. C.

Parish News CORPUS CHRISTI

BAKER—NEARY
Miss Mary Ellen Neary, daughter of Lawrence Neary of Ackerman Street, was married on October 19th to Francis Baker, son of Mr. Alva Baker, in Corpus Christi Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Neary, cousin of the bride, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Magr. William M. Hart. The church was decorated with autumn flowers and palms. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and lace. Her veil of tulle was trimmed with lace and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Neary, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore peach taffeta with hat and pumps of a deeper shade and carried pink roses. Miss Clara Dorchied and Mrs. Daisy Lindey, bridesmaids, wore green taffeta gowns with hats and pumps of a deeper shade. They carried tallman roses. James Clary was best man and the ushers were Walter Bliss and Ralph Baker. A wedding breakfast for the immediate families followed at the Hotel Sagamore, where a reception was held at the home of the bride's father. Upon their return from a trip through the South Mr. and Mrs. Baker will be at home at 322 Lake Avenue.

BATH

Rev. E. M. Lynch Is Honored at Ithaca Meeting
Bath, Oct. 16.—The Rev. Edward M. Lynch, pastor of St. Mary's Church in this community, was highly honored at the annual conference of the Association of Child Welfare Boards of New York State at Ithaca last week. He was made chairman of a committee to undertake changes in the Child Welfare Law of New York State. Father Lynch's associates on the committee are Miss Pearl Hanson of Albany, state superintendent of Child Welfare Work; John T. Esplan, executive secretary of the New York City Board of Child Welfare; E. E. Cullen of the Onondaga County Child Welfare Board; Miss Vera Haplin, secretary of the Monroe County Board of Child Welfare. This committee received changes as proposed in the present Child Welfare Law, which will be submitted to more than 50 child welfare boards in this state for consideration after which they will be returned to the committee which will formulate suggested changes in the law to be presented to the next New York State Legislature. Father Lynch is greatly interested in Child Welfare work and has been active in matters of this kind.

NEWARK

Don C. Manning Gave Fine Talk To Boy Scouts
Newark, Oct. 27.—Don C. Manning, parole officer of the State School for Boys at industry, was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Wayne County Boy Scout organization Tuesday evening in the Newark Orange Hall. Mr. Manning gave a splendid talk to the Scouts. He told them how boys can co-operate with their elders, and how they can best build their characters and live in channels of good citizens and good Christians. His talk was heard with appreciation, and it was a fine factor on a pleasant program.

AUBURN

CONDON—FITZ
Auburn, Oct. 23—Monday morning, in Holy Family Church with the Rev. John A. Conaway officiating, Miss Dorothy M. Titus of 27 Park Avenue, and James H. Condon of Morantown, Pa., formerly of Auburn, were united in marriage. The ceremony was one of the prettiest of the Fall weddings. The bride was attired in a gown of rose beige lace over satin, brown shoes and brown hat. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Lillian J. Donahue was bridesmaid. She wore Havana brown linen lace over satin, with brown hat and shoes. Her bouquet was of Tallman roses. Harold W. Carmody was the best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to 36 guests at Lakeside Inn, following which Mr. and Mrs. Condon left on a wedding tour to New York, Atlantic City and Scranton. The bride has been separated for several years in the Auburn City Jail. Her husband will have the best wishes of many friends for a happy married life.

Geneva Sister, Long a Teacher, Dies in Elmira

Geneva, Oct. 23.—Sister M. Adeline for 13 years head of the commercial department of DeSales Institute, died last Friday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira. Sister M. Adeline had been ill for several months. She continued her work at DeSales Institute until graduation last June, when she was obliged to relinquish her duties. During her years here she won the confidence and respect of the business men of Geneva, and her pupils were well received after graduation, because they were well trained and dependable. Previous to entering the convent, Sister Adeline was Miss Jane Holman of Syracuse. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Rector, Miss Beale-Holman and Miss Catherine Holman, all of Syracuse. Her life was full in good works, and she accomplished a great deal of good for hundreds of boys and girls whom she taught during her long years of service here. Her memory will be treasured, and many prayers will be said for her by her associates and former students.

Batavia Priest Finds Burglar Hiding in Attic

Batavia, Oct. 23.—The Rev. Bernard Kelly, pastor of St. Joseph's Church here, has been surprised many times by what he found in his collection box. But never did he get as big a surprise as on Sunday, when he found a burglar in the attic of his home. The intruder says the name Joseph Facelli, age 24 years, and residence as Lynn, Mass. Facelli was locked in the city jail for further questioning and a charge of burglary has been placed against him. Police said the prisoner broke in to St. Joseph's St. Anthony's and the Baptist churches in this city and obtained about $119 before he entered Father Kelly's rectory.
