Patriotism Prostituted, Says Rev. Dr. Fulton Sheen, In Attacks Made on Church

The Charges Made To-Day Are Exactly the Same As Those Directed Against Christ Before Pontius Pilate.

Washington, March 4.—Declaring that patriotism is made a cloak for the charges brought against the Church today, which are the same as those leveled against our Blessed Lord before Pilate's judgment seat, the Rev. Dr. Fulton Sheen of the Catholic University of America, speaking Sunday over a national broadcast in the Catholic Hour sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Men, stated that "There is nothing so sublime that cannot be prostituted, and even the noble virtue of patriotism may have its prostitutions."

Catholic Club's Many Activities For This Month

The poets, Emily Dickinson and Edna St. Vincent Millay, have been chosen for discussion at the March meeting of the Poetry Group of the Catholic Women's Club to be held Sunday, March 6th, at 3:30 p. m., at the Club House, Miss Blanche J. Thompson, the leader, assures all who are interested to attend that the monthly programs will be informal, and will within the range of appreciation of the amateur purpose being friendly discussion and enjoyment rather than study.

Robbing Poor Box

Dorval, Que., March 4.—Joseph LeBlanc, 32, Jackson Village, Me., was arrested in the vestibule of the local Roman Catholic Church Friday night and charged with robbing charity boxes. The arrest was made by Chief of Police Boyer, who had concealed himself behind the main altar of the church and watched LeBlanc at his work. The alms boxes of this church were ransacked about a week ago.

New Bishop

MOST REVEREND STANISLAUS HONA, the Diocese of Grand Island is presided over now by the Most Rev. Stanislaus Hona, who was consecrated in Chicago a few days ago. He will be formally installed on March 8 and will begin his new duties under most favorable auspices.

It is in the face of death that we see clearly how great after all our weakness is how frail and unstable is our human nature here.
