Belgium Congo Fruitful Place For the Church

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, Mar. 18.—Catholics numbering 816,377 with 603,968 catechumens are the imposing figures representing the Church's status in the Belgian Congo. The foreign missionary personnel counts 671 priests, 687 Sisters and 341 Brothers. Besides these there are 26 native priests, 44 native Sisters and 14 native Brothers. There are also 14,429 catechists and 4,729 native teachers.

Hebrew Paper Praises Church For Its Sanity

Cincinnati, O., Mar. 18.—The Catholic Church is "the strongest single force in maddened Europe for sanity and racial tolerance," a recent editorial in The American Israelite, published here, declares.

"Upon these grounds it sternly opposes the embittered nationalism of present-day Europe. The exaggerated emphasis of racial differences, are unjustified boasts of racial superiority, the intensified nationalistic particularism which is imperiling the safety of modern civilization finds in the Church Catholic a resolute adversary."

HOW and WHAT to SERVE

Years ago a Lenten-dinner was real inconvenience as there was little to take the place of meat-dishes. Nowadays it is not hard to observe Lent strictly. Canned fish, cheese, vegetables and fruits, the great variety of cereals, and the wide choice of fresh fruits, have made a big difference.

Regardless of where you live you can secure a fine quality of fish. Add gradually 1 cup of milk and section in little bits. This fish is just as rich in food as the fish that is fresh from the water.

Marshmallow Cream
Another real good substitute is to take 7 or 8 fresh marshmallows and cut them in shreds with a pair of scissors. Then place them in a bowl with two cups of water and a few drops of vanilla. Beat vigorously until stiff. This is delicious on fresh angel food or devil's food cake, or apple pies.

DO YOU KNOW THAT
For a limited time only Molly Gavin is offering a special combination including her own cookbook, two pamphlets—"Fish Days and Fast Days" and "Choice Puddings" and three circulars—"Salads" "Delicious Potato Recipes" and "Lenten Menus for Eleven Days"—all the above will be sent postpaid for $1.00.

Mexicans Wear Vestments That Had Been Stolen

Mexico City, Mar. 18.—Catholics of Mexico have suffered another indignity in Jalapa, capital of the State of Vera Cruz. Some policemen and civil employees dressed themselves in vestments stolen from churches and altars.

Jose M. Flores, chief of the Federal Treasury Office, attempted to recover the vestments, pointing out that they belong to the nation. The intendants, however, found refuge in the General Police Office and the Chief of Police refused to issue an official demand for the vestments.

Dublin, Mar. 18.—Fire destroyed the Central Catholic Library of this city last week, and more than 18,000 choice books were consumed in the flames. The library had one of the finest collections of Catholic books in the world, and its destruction is regretted throughout all Ireland.
