Discuss Public Employment by Center Office

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Men's Federation last Sunday afternoon was given over to a second discussion of the Public Employment Center of Rochester, to discussing and taking action on federal attempt to enact birth control legislation, as shown in the Hancock bill recalled, and to hearing reports and making further plans for the coming convention of the New York State Branch of Catholic Central Verein of America, to be held in this city September 3-5.

St. George Team Takes Lead In Catholic League

Holy Family's two-year hold on the top rung of the Catholic Indoor League, ended Sunday morning with a one-run defeat by St. George's. The 4-3 loss was the first sustained by the league champions since the summer of 1930 when St. Augustine's turned the trick. The Dutchtown outfit had an undefeated season last year, winning 12 straight games.
