

CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL

Volume IV.

Five Cents per Copy

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK, JUNE 10, 1932.

Subscription Terms
$2.50 per Year in Advance

Number 11

The Catholic World Over

Father Paul Chish, an Anamese priest of the Vicariate of Hue, Indochina, celebrated the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, recently. His uncle, also a priest, was put to death in 1883 during the anti-Christian persecutions of Annam. He has two brothers priests and a nephew in the Major Seminary of Hue (Fides).

The Rev. Kasimierz Sauerko, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Chicago, has received the officer's cross of Polonia Restituta from the president of Poland in recognition of his welfare work.

500 women converts received the Sacrament of Confirmation at the hands of His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell in an impressive ceremony recently in the Cathedral in Boston.

An intensive campaign to enroll members in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith will be conducted during June by the Rev. Fr. C. Klumke, diocesan director, at the instance and with the personal support of the Most Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, Bishop of Pittsburgh.

Taken ill while attempting to address his congregation in St. Charles Church, Gosforth, near Newcastle, London, the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Reilly, was taken ill and was anointed in the presence of members of the congregation.

Two more courses to be given in the St. Louis University Summer School in St. Louis, Mo. recently announced, are a course dealing with the subjective factors of delinquent conduct to be given by the Rev. Ralph A. Gallagher, S.J., and one offering a psychology laboratory course by the Rev. C. L. Boyle, S.J.

Among the nine priests ordained for the Passionist Order on Trinity Sunday, the Rev. Germain Heilmann and the Rev. Joachim Becke have been designated for missionary work in China. They will labor in the Passionist Prefecture of Shenshow, Hunan Province.

A two-weeks vacation tour to Alaska will be sponsored by Golden Gate Council, Knights of Columbus, this summer, according to plans announced by Dr. J. Joseph Hayes, grand knight of the council. The party leaves San Francisco on July 2.

A small institution of charity opened this past summer at a town in Egypt has turned out a mighty factor in breaking down Mussulman prejudice. Provision for the institution was made in the will of Nour Naoufal, a former Catholic native of the place.

The Reverend Edward F. McMahon, who was ordained to the priesthood recently by Bishop Griffin of Springfield, at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral, Springfield, Illinois, celebrated his first solemn Mass recently at St. Luke's Church, Richmond Heights. Before beginning his theological studies at Kenrick Seminary, Father McMahon served many years as a Christian Brother in that order he was known as Brother Lawrence.

The Rev. Louis A. Fey, C.M., recently ordained in Philadelphia, said his first Mass at St. Joseph's Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md., at which attended five nuns, all daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who are his sisters, and his brother, a Jesuit who is completing his studies at Woodstock College, Md. Father Fey sank his first solemn high Mass in St. John's Church, Utica.

The Rev. Thomas J. Glynn, pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Leechburg, near Pittsburgh, priest, expounder and inventor, has devised a new process for making seamless tube which he says may revolutionize the industry.

The remodeled Cathedral of St. Hedwig, in Berlin was recently reopened for service and the main altar blessed by the Most Rev. Christian Schreiber, Bishop of Berlin. Bishop Schreiber visited Rochester a few years ago where he has several friends among the clergy.

PROFITABLE READING

Thousands of our readers know that the Catholic Courier and Journal is filled with timely news, articles of vital importance, and trenchant editorial comment.

Yet, many may not fully realize that these items are but part of the "profitable reading" to be found in these pages. Consider the advertisements! They are signposts on the road to service, guides to money-saving values.

To see for yourself, turn (for instance) to page seven and peruse the advertisement of the Rochester Raiment Co. Just an example of the values that are offered by advertisers in the CATHOLIC COURIER and Journal.

Official Newspaper of the Rochester Diocese

Newly Ordained Priests Will Celebrate First Solemn Masses

Ceremonies Will Take Place in Parish Churches, Sunday, June 12, 19 and 26, in Various Points in Diocese; Preachers Are Announced

Their first solemn high Masses in their respective parish churches will be sung by the newly ordained priests of the Rochester diocese on Sunday, June 12, and Sunday, June 19, when they will be assisted by priests of the diocese in the other offices of the Mass. The nine young men will receive Holy Orders at the hands of Most Rev. Bishop O'Hern Saturday morning of this week in St. Patrick's Cathedral. They are all graduates of St. Bernard's Seminary, this diocese. The Rev. Edward Philip O'Hern, Jr., C.S.P., a nephew of Bishop O'Hern, will also be ordained Saturday with the class and will sing his solemn high Mass, Sunday, June 12, in St. Patrick's Cathedral at 10:30 A. M.

The Rev. Daniel A. McCarthy, son of Mrs. Jeremiah McCarthy of 225 Front Avenue, will sing his first solemn high Mass in the Immaculate Conception Church, Plymouth Avenue, Sunday, June 12, beginning at 11 o'clock. He will be assisted by Archpriest, Rev. Roy F. Hascoti; Deacon, Rev. Hubert Bisky; Subdeacon, Rev. Joseph Meloney. The sermon will be preached by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph S. Cameron. A reception will be held at the family home, 225 Front Avenue, from 3 to 6 P. M. in the afternoon.

The Rev. Francis A. Marks, son of Mrs. Anna Murphy Marks, 107 Pacific Place, this city, will celebrate his solemn high Mass in Holy Apostles Church, Lyell Avenue, Sunday, June 12, beginning at 11 o'clock. The

(Continued on Page Five)

Bishop O'Hern Lays Corner Church Stone

Corning—A large crowd gathered at the site of the new St. Patrick's Church, Sunday afternoon, May 29, to witness the laying of the cornerstone by the Most Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese of Rochester. The new building, when completed, will cost under $40,000 and will be one of the finest church edifices in the diocese. Bishop O'Hern in commenting upon the new church building stated that three years ago the cost of the building would have been about twice the present cost and that the congregation had acted wisely in waiting and gathering more funds for the work before it was begun. In the ceremonies of the laying of the cornerstone, Bishop O'Hern was assisted by the former pastor and founder of the parish, Rev. Walter J. Lee, M.R.V.P. of Geneva; the pastor, Rev. E. A. Rathbun; Rev. Cornelius Sitke of Ravenna; Rev. Augustine Temmerman of St. Vincent's, Corning; Rev. William E. Hayes, St. Patrick's; Rev. Lawrence Gannon, St. Mary's; and Rev. J. O'Connell of Des Moines. Rev. Charles Reynolds of Rochester was master of ceremonies.

(Continued on Page Five)

Catholic Univ. Graduates Form An Organization

At a meeting held at the Columbus Civic Centre on Monday, June 6th, the graduates of the Catholic University of America, residing in Rochester and vicinity formed a branch of the Alumni Association to be known as the Rochester, New York Chapter of the Catholic University of America Alumni Association.

The following officers were elected: Honorary President, Most Rev. John Francis O'Hern, D.D.; President, John A. Temmerman; Vice-President, Gerald Ryan; Secretary and Treasurer, J. Raymond Tobin; Chaplain, Rev. Gerald C. Lamber. After the election of officers for the newly formed branch of the Catholic University Alumni Association, a charter was drawn and received the approval of the members. Tuesday, June 14th, was chosen as the day for the next meeting to be held at the Columbus Civic Centre.

"I am willing to trust the people," thundered the candidate.

"I wish you'd open a grocery," said the little man in the audience.

Hibernians Announce Annual Field Day and State Convention Plans

Two important events for which the Monroe County Ancient Order of Hibernians are planning, are the Annual Field Day to be held, Saturday afternoon, July 23, at Schutzen Park, Clinton Avenue North and Ridge Road, and the New York State Convention to be held in Rochester in 1933.

Members of the A. O. H. and Ladies' Auxiliary of Monroe County are planning to have the annual outing an outstanding success. A varied program of sports is in preparation and an excellent orchestra will supply music for old and modern dances. Delegations of Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Lockport Hibernians are expected to come for the field day.

Announcement regarding the New York State Convention was made this week by State Treasurer, Martin X. Fenelon of 19 Sidney Street, Rochester. The convention headquarters will be at the Hotel Seneca, selected as convention headquarters. The three units of Hibernians in Rochester have organized for the entertainment of the visiting Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliaries.

Besides Treasurer Fenelon, state officers are: State Chaplain, Most Rev. William Turner, D.D., Buffalo; State President, William J. Ryan, Lockport; State Vice-President, John McAdam, New York; State Secretary, Michael J. Hanley, Woodstock; and State Chairman of Irish History, John J. Skelly, Albany.

(Continued on Page Five)

Cardinal Hayes Honored by Issue Of Special Stamps

Brussels, June 10—The Belgian government will soon issue nine special stamps of varying cost in memory of the late Cardinal Desire Mercier. An extra charge will be made for these stamps, the money to be used to erect a monument to the Cardinal at Brain-1 Allend, where he was born. It is planned to erect a slightly monument in the future in honor of the Cardinal.

(Continued on Page Five)

First Carmelite Receives Habit In South Africa

Johannesburg—An impressive ceremony, the first of its kind in South Africa, took place recently at the Carmelite convent in Johannesburg. The occasion was the clothing of the Carmelite religious habit and the beginning of the novitiate of Miss Hilary Rowland. It is significant that only some six months have passed since the establishment of this Carmel in South Africa by pioneer nuns from Darlington, England. Already more than a dozen applications have been received from young ladies who are anxious to consecrate their lives to God as Carmelite nuns. The first novice has chosen St. Teresa (the Little Flower) as her name in religion.

(Continued on Page Five)

Cardinal Hayes Appeals to Men Of Holy Name

New York—Cardinal Hayes has issued a letter to the pastors of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York requesting them to appeal to the men of their parishes to march in the Holy Name parade in New York City on Sunday, June 12, ending with a great rally on "the green" in Central Park at which he himself will be the main speaker. It will be in celebration of the golden jubilee of the New York branch of the National Holy Name Society.

"The men of New York who fifty years ago banded five parishes together under the banner of the Holy Name of Jesus planned exceedingly well," the Cardinal wrote. "They knew that through union, with the parish as a basis, the work of the society would be more effective, the spiritual advantages extended and the men brought into closer brotherhood. With the blessing of God and the untiring energy of priests and laity the society has met with marked success. As an indication of this we find in our archdiocese alone 361 branches of the Holy Name Society."

The parade will begin at Thirty-fourth Street. Cardinal Hayes will review it from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral, going later to a stand in "the green" to address the men.

(Continued on Page Five)

A New Feature

The attention of readers of The CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL is called to the change made this week in our editorial page. Page Six, with this week's issue, we are introducing a new feature, "Dramatic Moments in Catholic Life and History," by Cletus J. Kouba, which we believe will be of interest to young and old.

Editorials, expressing views of the day; current comment, giving other editors' opinions; "Wayside Wheat," a column feature; and "Back Through the Years," reviewing Catholic happenings as recorded in the files of The CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL; appear now in a new dress. We invite the expressions of our readers upon these changes and shall be glad to accept any constructive ideas to make The CATHOLIC COURIER AND JOURNAL the Catholic newspaper our readers want to receive each week.

Noted Scholar 50 Years In Priesthood

Doctor Hyvernat, Catholic University Professor, Only Living Survivor of Original Faculty

Washington—The Very Rev. Dr. Henry Hyvernat of The Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., quietly observed the Golden Anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood and the celebration of his first Mass on June 12, 4th at his home, 2405 14th Street, N. E., Washington, D. C. When calling the anniversary to the attention of his friends, the jubilarian modestly stated on a card accompanying the announcement: "Please do not take the trouble to acknowledge receipt of the enclosed jubilee souvenir, otherwise than by praying for me and giving thanks to God." Dr. Hyvernat, who was born in Lyons, France, in 1855, at the invitation of Bishop Keane, the first Rector of the Catholic University, was the first professor appointed to the staff of the new university, which opened its doors to students on November 14, 1863, and is now the only survivor of the original faculty. Eugene Xavier Louis Henry Hyvernat was born in St. Julien-en-Jarez, Loire, France, on June 30, 1855. He attended the Petit Seminaire de St. Jean at Lyons, France.

(Continued on Page Five)

Cardinal Hayes Appeals to Men Of Holy Name

New York—Cardinal Hayes has issued a letter to the pastors of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of New York requesting them to appeal to the men of their parishes to march in the Holy Name parade in New York City on Sunday, June 12, ending with a great rally on "the green" in Central Park at which he himself will be the main speaker. It will be in celebration of the golden jubilee of the New York branch of the National Holy Name Society.

"The men of New York who fifty years ago banded five parishes together under the banner of the Holy Name of Jesus planned exceedingly well," the Cardinal wrote. "They knew that through union, with the parish as a basis, the work of the society would be more effective, the spiritual advantages extended and the men brought into closer brotherhood. With the blessing of God and the untiring energy of priests and laity the society has met with marked success. As an indication of this we find in our archdiocese alone 361 branches of the Holy Name Society."

The parade will begin at Thirty-fourth Street. Cardinal Hayes will review it from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral, going later to a stand in "the green" to address the men.

(Continued on Page Five)

Rally Speaker

Rev. Leo M. Shea, O.P.

Educators To Convene In Cincinnati, O.

Representatives of Catholic Educational System from Various Parts of Country Gather for Conferences

Washington—The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the National Catholic Education Association will be held at Cincinnati, June 27 to 30, at the invitation of the Most Rev. John T. McMichael, O.P., Archbishop of Cincinnati and Episcopal Chairman of the Department of Education, N. C. W. C. The first annual meeting of the Catholic Library Association will be held simultaneously at Cincinnati, according to an announcement by the Rev. William M. Slonch, S.J., Librarian of Boston College, and president of the Association. Representatives of the Catholic educational system from all parts of the United States will attend the Cincinnati meeting. Among those from Rochester who will attend are the Rev. Joseph E. Brady, President of Aquinas Institute and a member of the general executive board of the association. The railroad, in view of the widespread interest, is offering a special rate on the "Catholic" plan from all points in the country during the convention period.

(Continued on Page Five)

Committees Are Preparing K. C. Supreme Meeting

Washington—P. Michael Cook, prominent young Washington attorney, has been selected by State Deputy J. R. Rice, Governor of Columbia, as chairman of the general committee in charge of preparations for the Golden Anniversary Convention to be held next August. The Convention, the first to be held in Washington by the Knights, will be featured by the unveiling of the memorial to the late James Cardinal Gibbons.

Local Knights of Columbus expected at least 50,000 visitors for the Convention and travelling ceremonies, and this number may be greatly increased. Mr. Cook has already started naming sub-committees to have charge of various features of the convention.

(Continued on Page Three)

Order of Martha Conducting Annual Exhibit of Vestments for Missions

Completing twenty-one years' service in the cause of Catholic Missions, Household No. 118, Order of Martha, is conducting an exhibition of the handwork of its active members on Thursday, and Friday, afternoon and evening, this week, on Sunday afternoon, June 12, at 2:30 P. M. in St. Francis Xavier Hall, Bay Street. At this exhibition, some fifty sets of priests' vestments, altar linens, and clothing for children in Porto Rico and the far East, made by the women members of the household are being shown. This is a record of real Catholic Action, the Rev. Francis X. Kuna, spiritual director and founder of the Household said this week. "These good women gather once a week, and by their own skill and labor make these vestments, and other sacred requirements of the priests for the good missionaries in the South and West. Nothing is sold, everything is given away and the work is done with no publicity, no member of the Household receiving credit for individual work done."

Arrangements Are Completed For Big Holy Name Rally Over 10,000 Men to Attend

Archbishop Hickey Will Officiate at Benediction; Bishop O'Hern Will Give Address of Welcome; Masses, Amplifiers, and Seating Being Arranged

The stage is all set for the diocesan Holy Name Rally at Baseball Park next Sunday, June 12th.

The Red Wings left Wednesday night on a road trip and early Thursday morning workmen began the erection of a platform on which is to be mounted the altar for the benediction service. This platform, which will also serve as a speaker's platform, is located in left center field. It is eight feet high, and has a base for the altar which will be visible from any part of the field. Thus an overflow crowd can be readily taken care of on the diamond and everyone will still be able to see.

Special loud-speakers, which have been installed in every part of the stadium, will amplify the voices of the speakers and the announcements every part of the week.

An overflow audience of 10,000 men is expected to attend the rally, which will be held at Baseball Park next Sunday, June 12, from 2:30 P. M. to 5:30 P. M. The rally will be presided over by Archbishop Hickey, who will officiate at the benediction service. Bishop O'Hern will give the address of welcome. Masses, amplifiers, and seating are being arranged.

(Continued on Page Five)

Priests' Annual Retreats Are Set By Bishop O'Hern

The annual retreats for priests of the Diocese of Rochester at St. Bernard's Seminary have just been announced by Bishop O'Hern. The retreats for Pastors, Administrators, Chaplains and heads of the various organizations will be held from Monday, June 13, to Friday, June 17. The retreats for Professors, Teachers, Assistants and for those who for some good reason cannot make the first retreat will be from Monday, August 22, to Friday, August 26.

Joseph Anderson, in charge of the annual retreats, said that the retreats will be held at St. Bernard's Seminary, and that the priests will be accompanied by their families.

At the annual meeting of the Knights of Columbus, which will be held at the Hotel Seneca, the Rev. John B. Sullivan, pastor of the Evangelical Church, and newly appointed faithful friar of the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, will be the featured speakers.

Father Sullivan said that the old saying, "out of sight, out of mind," was a very large extent true, particularly as applied to the dead. One of the bitterest thoughts of a dying person, he said, was that he would be forgotten.

The erection of the monument was an indication, he said, that the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, were not forgetting the services rendered by Monsignor Hughes. The late Monsignor Hughes had presided over the annual meeting of the Knights of Columbus.

(Continued on Page Three)

Monument Is Dedicated To Msgr. Hughes

Bishop John Francis O'Hern, of Rochester, presided at the dedication of a monument to Monsignor Hughes, which was held at the Hotel Seneca, Sunday, June 12. The monument was erected by the Assembly of the Knights of Columbus, Fourth Degree, and was dedicated to the memory of Monsignor Hughes, who died in 1928.

The Rev. John B. Sullivan, pastor of the Evangelical Church, and newly appointed faithful friar of the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, will be the featured speakers. Father Sullivan said that the old saying, "out of sight, out of mind," was a very large extent true, particularly as applied to the dead. One of the bitterest thoughts of a dying person, he said, was that he would be forgotten.

(Continued on Page Three)

Catholic Daughters Go to Eucharistic Congress in Dublin

New York—Every state in the Union and every province of Canada will be represented in the pilgrimage of the Catholic Daughters of America, to the 1932 International Eucharistic Congress in Dublin, Ireland, June 22 to 27. It was announced at the national headquarters of the order here. The party will be headed by Supreme Regent Miss Mary of Duty of New York, N.Y., and the foremost Catholic women leaders of America; and will sail from New York June 14 on the French Line steamship "De Grasse". The great liner's entire cabin passenger accommodations have been reserved for the Catholic Daughters' pilgrimage, and the party under the auspices of the New York Archdiocese.

(Continued on Page Three)

Order of Martha Conducting Annual Exhibit of Vestments for Missions

Completing twenty-one years' service in the cause of Catholic Missions, Household No. 118, Order of Martha, is conducting an exhibition of the handwork of its active members on Thursday, and Friday, afternoon and evening, this week, on Sunday afternoon, June 12, at 2:30 P. M. in St. Francis Xavier Hall, Bay Street. At this exhibition, some fifty sets of priests' vestments, altar linens, and clothing for children in Porto Rico and the far East, made by the women members of the household are being shown. This is a record of real Catholic Action, the Rev. Francis X. Kuna, spiritual director and founder of the Household said this week. "These good women gather once a week, and by their own skill and labor make these vestments, and other sacred requirements of the priests for the good missionaries in the South and West. Nothing is sold, everything is given away and the work is done with no publicity, no member of the Household receiving credit for individual work done."

This newspaper is published by The Catholic Courier and Journal Company, 111 Broadway, New York City. It is owned and published by The Catholic Courier and Journal Company, 111 Broadway, New York City. It is owned and published by The Catholic Courier and Journal Company, 111 Broadway, New York City.