Public Novena In Honor of Our Lady Of Perpetual Help

A public novena in preparation for the Feast of Our Lady of Perpetual Help will begin, Friday, June 10, and end on the Feast Day, Sunday, June 19, in St. Joseph's Church, Franklin St. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Alphonsus Schumacher, C.S.S.L., a Redemptorist Missionary attached to the Philadelphia House of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer. There will be two services daily, one beginning at 3 P. M. and the other at 7:45 P. M. The Redemptorist Fathers here invite all those who have been attending the Wednesday devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help, in St. Joseph's Church, as well as those who desire to obtain the aid of this powerful Advocate. Be on your guard never to let your heart be attached to anyone but Jesus crucified.

Cathedral Men Will Receive Communion And Have Breakfast

Men of St. Patrick's Cathedral parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock Mass Sunday and will go directly to Cathedral Hall for a Holy Name Society Communion Breakfast. Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kammer of 5 Broadway Street Monday celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding, which took place June 6, 1882 at St. Joseph Church. Many persons in the South Avenue and South Water Street section will recall Mr. Kammer as the mailman who carried that route for most of the 43 years that he was a mail carrier until he retired from the postal service on Sept. 19, 1925 at the age of 67 years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kammer were born in Rochester. Mr. Kammer on Sept. 19, 1853, and Mrs. Kammer on April 15, 1852. Five children on Monday wished them many happy returns. They are Arthur Kammer, Mrs. Clinton Campbell, George Kammer, Mrs. Norman Luckhurst and Mrs. Andrew Johnston. There also are 11 grandchildren.

Bandits Pillage Africa Missions

Loanda, (Angola, Portuguese Congo) - Rendeder desperate by the universal want occasioned by inability to sell their home products or to find work of any sort, many blacks of Angola, Portuguese Congo, Africa, have banded together and are robbing the country and pillaging what they can. Several mission posts have suffered from their depredations. The Holy Ghost Fathers are working in this part of Africa.

Orphans of City Look Forward to Their Day June 29

Hundreds of little children at Rochester orphanages drew large red circles about the numeral "29" on June's calendar before crawling into bed one night last week, there to dream of hollyhops, hot cream, Jack rabbit rides and other outing pleasures. That day will see the youngsters at Sea Breeze Park for their 27th annual outing. It was decided at a meeting of the executive committee of the Automobile Club of Rochester, who again are sponsoring the picnic.

Weekend Party Is Had by Columbus Center Girl Scouts

The members of Girl Scout Troop No. 33 of the Columbus Civic Center had a most enjoyable weekend at Camp Cocusus Lake, over the past weekend. They were the guests of Miss Margaret Meagher, a member of the troop. Most of the time was spent in swimming, boating, hiking and games. On Saturday night a beach supper, followed by a camp fire, occupied the greater part of the evening's program. Fireside stories were narrated by a number of the girls, while all joined heartily in the singing of old and modern songs. On Sunday morning the girls attended Mass at St. Margaret's Chapel, MacPherson's Point. Scout Captain, Dorothy Basini was in charge of the houseparty.

Mission Day Is Held at Aquinas

Mission Day was held at Aquinas Institute on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. John O'Donnell, director of the Mission Unit at Aquinas directed activities. After the presentation of a one-act play in the auditorium and live music by an orchestra of the students, the boys went out on the school grounds and held a ball game between the faculty and the students. Stands for the sale of "hots" and cold drinks did a lively business. Proceeds are turned over to the missions at home and in foreign lands.
