Catholic League Starts Second Half of Season

The second half of the Catholic Indoor League season was started Sunday morning with the Holy Rosary, St. Augustine's and Holy Family teams being on the long end of the scores in the opening games. St. Andrew's, first half winners, dropped a 5-to-7 decision to Holy Rosary at No. 7 School Playground. After piling up a 4-to-0 lead, St. Andrew's lost on Holy Rosary's four-run rally in the eighth. Mesinger led the attack for the winners with three doubles.

Father Vogt Is New Chaplain At Boys' Camp

The second encampment at Stella Maris will open on Sunday afternoon, July 17, with some sixty boys ready for two weeks of happy camp life. During the past week the camp was occupied by a group of older boys, most of whom are members of the Aljo Club of Holy Redeemer Parish. Rev. George Vogt, newly appointed chaplain and activities director at Camp, has announced details of the program for a week from Sunday. While visitors are welcome at Camp at all times, Sunday, July 24, will be the official visiting day for encampment "B". A special program of events will be arranged for the entertainment of the parents and friends of the campers. Father Vogt has arranged for a concert to be given by the Blessed Sacrament Boys' Band under the direction of Frank Matville. In conjunction with the concert the campers will have group singing, short skits, stunts, and swimming exhibitions.

St. Andrew's Annual Lawn Festival Will Be Conducted Four Nights

The 18th annual Midsummer Lawn Festival of St. Andrew's Church will be held on the church grounds, Portland Avenue, this year on four nights, Friday and Saturday, July 22 and 23, and Friday and Saturday, July 29 and 30. It was announced this week by the Rev. George W. Eckl, pastor of St. Andrew's Church who is directing the preparations for the festival. Adopting as their slogan: "No Depression at the Festival," those in charge are working to make this the big event of the season for Rochester. Various booths with attractive merchandise will be erected. These include booths for groceries, hams, blankets, candy, etc. Refreshments will be served. The "famous hot" will be dispensed, and also home-made pies. Games will be available for play. Music will be furnished by the St. Andrew's Boys Band. Special prizes will be awarded including the prizes for the oldest and youngest present, the latest newlyweds, the largest family, the heaviest weight, man and woman and other events. These are some of the attractions being planned for the enjoyment of all who attend the festival. Children's Day, featuring a doll contest for the girls with prizes for the 15 best dolls; and a tug of war for the boys will be held, Saturday afternoon, July 23, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Under Father Eckl's direction a large committee headed by Henry M. Schlueter as general chairman is working to provide entertainment for all. This committee urges everyone to come to the festival and forget cares. The festival will be held rain or shine (in the church hall in case of rain.)

People In The News

William B. Moynihan, veteran of the Rochester Postoffice has retired after 45 years of service. In his long career, Mr. Moynihan has been a carrier, field inspector and special assistant clerk. He helped organize the Letter Carriers' Association and several times acted as delegate to national conventions of that organization. He also was a member of the national executive board. Miss Hilda Manley of South Good Man St. has been a guest at Cascade Inn, Owego Lake. Mr. and Mrs. George T. Sullivan and family of Homer Street are spending two weeks with Miss May Comerford who is occupying a cottage on Canandaigua Lake. Miss Marie Staub of Genesee Park Boulevard has returned from Toledo and Detroit where she spent two weeks. Wisdom does not lie in not talking, but in speaking only when necessary and to the purpose; and again, in holding one's tongue at the proper time and place.
