has served as Assistant Pastor of the Sacred Sacrament Church, of Immaculate Conception Church in Danville, and of the Immaculate Conception Church in Rochester. Bishop O'Hern held this week to the 25th anniversary of Father Smith in all the parishes in which he has served, and remarked especially on the great love of the people of the Immaculate Conception for his wondrous qualities and his priestly manner. He was forth to his new work with the gratitude of those among whom he has labored so long and so faithfully, and with the promise of fruitful years of service to the flock of which he now assumes charge.

Assistants Named

The Rev. Martin Fenoy, who is transferred from his position as Assistant Pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church to the post of Assistant Pastor of St. Michael's Church of Danville, entered on his new work Monday. The Rev. Dominic Grasso becomes Assistant Pastor at St. Francis Xavier, St. Mary's Church in Auburn receives a new Assistant Pastor in the Rev. Arnold Heron, and St. Alphonsus Church in Auburn receives a new Assistant in the Rev. John Moore. The Rev. John Ryan goes to Sacred Heart Church as Assistant, the Rev. Thomas Curley to St. Mary's, the Rev. James Curley to Holy Rosary. All these appointments were effective September 16. With some further assignments to be made within the month, Bishop O'Hern expects to have his parishes well equipped to carry on their work.

Forty Years a Priest

His Eminence Patrick Cardinal Hayes, Archbishop of New York, has just observed the fortieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. This is one of the most important milestones of his life.

Fr. Smith Received At New Pastorate

Dansville—Travellers and collectors of St. Patrick's Church here, on Monday evening, received the new pastor, the Rev. Leo V. Smith, at the parish house at 8 o'clock. A reception by the congregation will be tendered to Fr. Smith some time next week.

Following the reception tonight, the Rev. Benedict Ehmman returned to his duties as a member of the faculty at St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester. Father Ehmman had been here a few weeks during the illness of the Rev. John E. Massett.

VICTOR TISCHER—HARTMANN

The marriage of Miss Helen Anna Hartmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hartmann of Victor, to Floyd Tischler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Tischler of that village, took place at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning, September 1, at St. Patrick's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Hartmann, brother of the bride, and the Nuptial Mass was celebrated by the Rev. James Tischler, pastor of St. Thomas Church, Leicester, brother of the groom, assisted by the following priests: The Rev. Emmett Dougherty of Victor, The Rev. John D. Wheeler, S.J., treasurer of Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., and Rev. William J. Ayres of Blessed Sacrament Church, Rochester. The altar was decorated with cut flowers and baskets of roses were arranged around the Sanctuary. Miss Mary Ryan was the organist.

Mrs. Victor Tischler of Fairport was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Victor Tischler of Fairport and the ushers were J. Francis Hartmann of Worcester, Mass., brother of the bride, and Leo Guinan, cousin of the groom. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Green Lantern Inn, Fairport. Upon their return from a motor trip to the Thousand Islands and Shrine of St. Anne de Beauce, Mr. and Mrs. Tischler will reside in Victor.

FAIRPORT CONNOLLY—ZIMMER

Fairport—Miss Ruth M. Zimmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Zimmer, and John R. Connolly, both of Fairport, were united in marriage Monday, Sept. 5, at 9 a. m. at the Church of the Assumption, the Rev. James T. Wood officiating at the Nuptial High Mass. The altar was decorated with cut flowers and palms. Miss Madeline McMahon of Fairport was maid of honor. Miss Helen Morse and Miss Serena Huling, both of Rochester, acted as bridesmaids. The best man was Robert W. Watt of Buffalo. The ushers were William Zimmer, brother of the bride, and Leo Crandall of East Rochester. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Green Lantern Inn at Fairport. Upon their return from a motor trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Connolly will reside at 509 W. Hickory Street, East Rochester. You may have very little of this world's goods—you may possess only a mite still, if you share it with God you are more thoughtful and you are doing more than the person who gives out of his abundance.

Oldest-Corning Citizen Dies At Age of 103

Edward Rogers, Aged Parishioner of St. Patrick's, Corning, Active in Parish Affairs To Last

Corning—A life time that extended over a period of 103 years was terminated Monday last week in the death of Edward Rogers, oldest resident of this section, and his funeral services were conducted Thursday of last week at his home, 152 East First Street and from St. Patrick's Church.

Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Edmund A. Hartmann, pastor of St. Patrick's, assisted by deacon the Very Rev. Walter Leo, V. P. Geneva; subdeacon, the Rev. William Hayes; master of ceremonies, the Rev. Mr. William Sutherland of St. Patrick's parish who is finishing his course for the priesthood at Niagara University.

Present in the sanctuary were: the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Griffin, V. F., chairman of the clergy; the Rev. John Smith, Livonia; and the Rev. Arthur Smith, Elmira, among those at the funeral was his brother, Sylvester Rogers, of Wellsville, Pa., who is 96 years of age.

Mr. Rogers was one of the oldest members of the parish and a faithful member of the church and its activities, notwithstanding his great age. He will be missed by the many friends he made in the generations that came after his own.

He was born in Louisa, Ireland, March 9, 1829. When about 17 years of age he came to this country to seek fortune and at that time settled in New York City. From there he went to Monticello, Sullivan County, where he engaged in the lumber business.

Married in 1856. According to tradition in the north of the country he went to California, where he located for a time in San Diego. He also lived in other places in that state. Returning east a few years later he went to Tioga, Pa., Stateville, Pa., and later Elmira. In the latter place he was married in 1856 to Miss Margaret Cullinan. The ceremony was performed by the late Msgr. J. J. Bloomer, pastor of St. Patrick's Church of that city.

Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, two of whom are dead. In 1867 or 1868 Mr. and Mrs. Rogers moved to Corning, where Mr. Rogers was appointed special police officer at the New York Central Railroad shops in this city and later filled a like position at the Corning Glass Works. Mr. Rogers died July 2, 1932. They had been married 66 years.

Mr. Rogers was a member of a family of five boys, only one of whom now survives, Sylvester Rogers, of Wellsville, Pa., the youngest of the family. All the deceased brothers were nearly 100 before they died.

Keen Individual Mr. Rogers had a ready Irish wit, a friendly personality, much native shrewdness and ingenuity and a tremendous interest in affairs about him. These combined to make him an interesting conversationalist and his many fine characteristics made him highly regarded and much esteemed by all who knew him.

Surviving are the following children, Daniel C., 161 Chemung Street, Edward R., Corning, New York City, Mrs. Thomas J. Curtis, Buffalo, Mrs. Rose M. Roman, Mrs. Emma McCull and John J. Rogers, of 152 East First Street, and Attorney Thomas F. Rogers, 184 East First Street. The children who died were James, who died in 1896 and Mrs. Mary McManus, who died in 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Peter grand children also survive. They are Miss Helen Rogers, teacher in the Buffalo Public School system, Charles E. McManus, deputy attorney general in Albany, Rogers Curtis, attorney and land and tax agent for the Erie Railroad, Leo Rogers, hotel manager of New York City. He is also survived by the brother mentioned above, Sylvester Rogers, of Wellsville, Pa.

of power in the chapel. The Bishop and party were escorted to the chapel by the following Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus in full regalia: G. Vincent Wagner, John P. Keating, Edward Jones, John M. Tracey, Louis G. Hook, and William Nolan. Doctors of the altar occupied a special place in the chapel. At the close of the Mass, Bishop O'Hern delivered the talk which appeared in the Sept. 9 issue of the Catholic Courier and Journal.

A dinner at the University club featured "Doctor's Day" in the celebration of which the Rev. James A. Reeves, Ph.D., president of Seton Hill College, was the speaker. He said in his talk that the hospital has become more than ever a social institution.

Friday's program was given over to the women's societies which have assisted in the work of the hospital. Solemn high Mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John P. Doppelt, assisted by deacon, the Rev. William A. Doherty, subdeacon, the Rev. Hubert Black and master of ceremonies, the Rev. Gerald C. Lambert. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Cyril P. Meyer, C.M., Ph.D., a Vincentian Father.

At the reception held at St. Mary's Farm in the afternoon the following societies were represented: Perpetual Help Society, the Sisters of the Flower League, the Volunteer Aid, the Ladies Auxiliary of Doctors Wives and the Blessed Clot Unk. "Nurses' Day" was opened with Solemn High Mass celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John P. Doppelt, assisted by deacon, the Rev. Hubert Black and master of ceremonies, the Rev. Edward T. Meagher, who preached the sermon.

Early Graduates Reunion In the afternoon the nurses and sisters of the hospital gathered at St. Mary's Farm in Fisher's Road, Chili, for an informal program. Several hundred attended the outing including many visiting Sisters of Charity and nurses who have since graduating entered the Order of the Sisters of Charity. Among the graduates present was Mrs. A. DeLano of Batavia, of the first class of 1897; Mrs. Frank Hanna of the class of 1897; Miss Mildred Towels of the class of 1899, who is now a supervisor at Father Baker's Hospital in Buffalo. A reception for graduates was held at the Nurses' Home Saturday night.

Miss Helen Ward was chairman of the committee arranging for yesterday's program. Assisting her were Miss Barbara Waters, Miss Mauda Trent, Miss Anne McKeever, Miss Francis McCullough, Miss Mary O'Keefe, Miss Nellie Mesinger, Mrs. Katharine Hyland, president of the Nurses' Alumnae Association.

Good Shepherd Nuns to Enter Cluster Soon

Follow Rule of Augustine The Good Shepherd Sisters follow the rule of Augustine. The constitutions are borrowed in great part from those given by St. Francis de Sales to the Visitation Sisters, but are modified to suit the nature of the work. The Sisters take the three ordinary vows of poverty, chastity and obedience and also a fourth vow, namely to work for the conversion and instruction of "socially handicapped" children. The order was of the most beautiful order of Christian charity. The vows are renewed every year for five years, before becoming perpetual.

The order is composed of choir sisters and lay or "converse" sisters. The choir sisters wear a white habit with a white veil, while the lay sisters wear a white habit with a white veil. The habit is white, with white veils, reminding them of the innocence of the life they lead. The choir Sisters wear a black veil, the "converse" sisters a white veil. Around their necks they wear a little cross, and on their left hand is engraved an image of "The Good Shepherd" and on the other, the Blessed Virgin, holding the Christ Infant between a branch of wheat and a branch of olive, and represents that of the Mother, who is the source of life and the source of grace. The habit is black and they take only the three ordinary vows.

Founded by Bernardine The Institute of the Good Shepherd is a branch of "Our Lady of Charity of Nazareth" founded by Bernardine of Chalon, France, in 1611, and approved by Alexander VII, January 5, 1666. In 1840 the Institute was approved by Pius IX in 1847. In helping to maintain their Institution, the Sisters conduct a modern laundry and do many sewing, embroidery and needle work. The bulk of their daily lives will be spent in the most delicate and delicate days prior to entering the cloister.

Catholic Courier and Journal Official Newspaper of the Rochester Diocese Rochester, N. Y. June 21, 1932 237 Andrews Street

To Our Readers: May I urge upon you the importance of patronizing the advertisers in the Catholic Courier and Journal? These business men, who have faith in the active good will of our subscribers, make possible the publication of our Official Diocesan Newspaper. The money they spend with us enables us to develop and improve this publication, making it a genuine asset to the Catholic life of the Rochester Diocese. On the basis of reciprocity, we should do everything possible to aid those who have so consistently aided us. In making any purchase, whether for a large or small item, whether for the home or for business, I would ask you to first look in the columns of the Catholic Courier and Journal and give consideration to the merchants represented there. Very truly yours, Leo C. Mooney, Reverend Leo C. Mooney, Managing Editor, CATHOLIC COURIER and JOURNAL
