When You Think of COATS Think of Forman's! What an impressive lot the new Forman coats are! Hamistakably new in several ways, they're conspicuously 1832 from collars to hems. "Heavy at the tops, and slim at the hips," is the new rule. Capes, tippets, fur placed high on sleeves, removable scarfs to broaden shoulders and heighten smartness. Below the waist-lines they eliminate flares and follow a straight and narrow path to the hems. Most styles button into place, and belts have been abandoned by the majority.

Trust Forman's to have them all, including the one best for you... and trust it to be trust-worthy in quality. Here's a Misses' coat of black Duvelga, with a flaring ruff collar and wide double-sleeve bands of flattering blue
