Colonial Obligations in Light Of Rerum Novarum Are Set Forth

By REV. ALBERT MUNTSCH, S.J. The world-wide significance of lived by the chase and the gathering of the world's population, must change their mode of life. How accustomed to labor? Generally the native industry is the incapable of realizing the advantages of the civilized world.

It is in the solution of these questions that Leo's wise counsel will be of value. For the principles of the Encyclical on the dignity of labor, the worth of the human personality and the supreme value of spiritual things are always true. The Encyclical is not only intended to safeguard the dignity of the workers. It recalls that there is a natural hierarchy in human activities which should be respected by employers and by those who organize labor.

PUERTO RICO Again a hurricane has devastated our Island! Just as we were about to enjoy the first harvest of the crops planted to replace those destroyed by the terrific cyclone of 1928, the raging fury of the recent storm once more has laid low our agricultural regions, causing great loss of life and uncounted material damage. Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XI, blesses all who aid this undertaking.
