Peter Dwyer, former Notre Dame quarterback, has produced with a bang at Clarkson College. His team held Syracuse to a 13 to 7 score and then decisively whipped Hamilton College and R. P. I. Time was when Clarkson was a door mat for opponents but since Peto who once put Ningara into big time, assumed the coaching duties at Clarkson, the Engineers have become one of the most feared minor colleges in the East. In our opinion Dwyer is the best small

> Complete details pertinent to be launching of the Catholic Basketball League are expected to be announced within a few days. At that time the personnel of the teams and players will be given dropped.

One point has been determined, however. The C. Y. M. A. Ramblers, winners of the Civic Center tourney last Spring, will not defend their championship. Because, they contend, they were not favored with a special invitation to attend the initial meeting of the Catholic League, the Ramblers have pulled stakes and amliated the Rochester District League.

League moguls contend that the invitation to join was a general one. They're not a whit disturbed that the Ramblers are out of the fold.

Rev. John Randall has entered his Cathedral team and the Frank Sireet boys are certain to be eith-er 1-2 when the season is over. Father Randall is withholding the names of his athletes, but it is no secret that Joe Kennedy, Leo Sullivan, Tommy "Red" Mason, Leo Brons and John Eli Mulvihili will wear Cathedral colors. That combination can give a merry forty minutes to any outfit.
