Somerville Gets Important Post In Washington

Congratulations were extended by his numerous friends in Rochester to Harry P. Somerville, recently resigned manager of the Hotel Sagamore, on his appointment as manager of the famous New Willard Hotel in Washington, D.C. Many dinners were given in his and Mrs. Somerville's honor during the week The announcement of Mr Somerville's appointment came as a dis here. During his administration of the affairs of the Sagamore, Mr. Some erville has been active in civic and fraternal circles—In every Catholic organization in which he bolds mem-bership he has shown exemplary paricipation in the activities of that organization Accepting no office, he has, however, served faithfully and efficiently on committees and his leaving Rochester will be a loss to the many circles in which he moved. The same is true of his wife, who just recently conducted a successful card party for three Vincentian mission aties who are going to China. Their daughter is a student at Mercyhurst ollege, Erie, Pa Although all of their friends are happy over the important post accorded Mr. Somerville, all have ex pressed regret over the Somerville family's leaving Rochester.
