Michael Dorsey, Life Resident, Dies in Auburn

Brother-in-law of Father O'Rourke of Mt. Read Stricken With Heart Attack In Front of School

Auburn—While sitting in his car in front of Holy Family school here, waiting for his little daughter, Margaret, to come from a rehearsal for a play, in which she was to have a part, Michael P. Dorsey, life-long resident of Auburn, and well-known as a tobacco salesman, was seized with an attack of heart trouble, Wednesday evening, Nov. 23.

Mr. Dorsey is survived by his widow, Nontie O'Rourke Dorsey and two daughters, Margaret Victorine and Daniel H. O'Rourke, pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, Mount Read Boulevard, and two sisters-in-law, Miss Alice O'Rourke of Rochester, and Sister Mary Victorine of Blessed Sacrament Convent, Rochester.

Home Is Sanctuary for Immortal Souls Says Priest in Marriage Sermon During Mission

Elmira—Espousers of the sacrament of matrimony, to which popular causes, prophets whose voices at times are solitary once crying in a wilderness of deceit and superficial philosophies, Missionary and other sincere religious leaders have many an unwelcome task in the cause they know to be true and just.

Such a role was that of the Rev. George Walker, O. S. A., preacher of the Wednesday night's sermon on the subject of Marriage during the Mission services for women in St. Patrick's Church, last week.

"Unless the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it," said this as he said, he reaffirmed the consistent stand of the Catholic Church throughout centuries against what that same institution has called the evils of divorce, birth control and every other demoralizing force that would destroy the religious concept that every home is a sanctuary wherein should be begotten and nurtured immortal souls designed for eternal abiding in a better home in heaven.

Catholic Writers To Be Encouraged By Two Guilds

editorials, poems, plays, or good publicity articles both by papers which pay for manuscript and those which do not. In the latter case the conditions are stricter.
