Little Boy Pens Pleasing Letter To Bishop O'Hern

Among the many letters received by His Excellency, Bishop O'Hern, during his convalescence from recent illness, the following one from a little lad gave him particular pleasure. The youngster wrote: "Dear Bishop: Thank you for the stocking. It was great. I am glad that you are getting better because I wish you would come over to my house soon. All my kids missed you a lot at Christmas time but remembered you in our prayers and at Holy Communion. Tell Eileen to make you better quick or I'll tell Harold. When I get my dog I'll bring him over to see you. I passed all my exams last week and am now on the home stretch. Your old pal Tommy."
