Lecture Recalls To Local Man Serving Famed Bishop's Mass

At the conclusion of B. E. Shlesinger's lecture on Bishop von Kettler in the Catholic Men's Federation series given before an audience in St. Joseph's Hall, last Friday evening, a grayhaired man stepped to the platform and told the speaker that many years ago the elderly man as a boy had served Mass for Bishop von Kettler.

The man was George Hofmaster of 18 Bristol Street who came to Rochester in 1872. He said that it was in the town of Donderthent in Germany that he had for eight years served on the altar during the time of Blahop von Kettler.
