his mission and was allowed to go. His fateful words of parting were: 'I shall not return.'

"Back in the New World he devoted his efforts to effecting peace between the Hurons and the Iroquois and in May 1648, he returned to the very village of his capture as a peace envoy.

"Then began a series of blood attacks by the Iroquois on their Huron neighbors. Embittered by the rapidity of conversions among the Hurons they staged recurrent attacks upon their villages to the north.

"The blood of Martyrs is the seed of Christians. That seed has flourished for 300 years and come to flower in the myriad spires of chapel and cathedral that dot our land from Mexico's sunny Gulf to the ice-locked borders of Baffin Bay.

chapel and cathedral that dot our land from Mexico's sunny Gulf to the ice-locked borders of Baffin Bay. Millions of Catholics today kneel before Christ, the King of Martyrs, millions bear the story of Calvary's Hill millions move their hands in the Sign of the Cross, the seal of the Christian, for which these Martyrs died.
