St. Andrews New Organ Blessed By Msgr. Hart

With unusual and beautiful ceremony, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, Vicar General of the diocese, on Sunday evening, solemnly blessed the new church organ in St. Andrews' Church, Portland avenue, of which the Rev. George W. Eckl is pastor.

Parochial Baseball League

There are now eighteen teams in the League, and it looks as though two or three others are coming in. All are welcome; the more the merrier.

Word comes from Summerville that St. Thomas' boys are practicing regularly and expect to make a good showing. Welcome to the League, boys, and we hope you go far.

St. Michael's and St. Francis boys have also entered the lists. They were in the League two years ago. St. Michael's bears watching, boys, because they had the champion baseball team this year and are some athletes!

Word has arrived that St. Boniface has three coaches working upon their hopefuls. The team is in mid-season form.

The teams who have entered the League thus far are: Perpetual Help, St. Stanislaus, St. Charles, St. Andrew's, St. Ambrose, St. Monica, St. Boniface, Sacred Heart, Holy Apostles, St. Peter and Paul, St. Augustine, Cathedral Holy Rosary, Immaculate Conception, St. Michael's, St. Francis, St. Thomas, and St. George. A goodly number!

There is a possibility of three divisions this year to make it easier to get in your quota of games. This also gives two championship games at the end of the schedule.

To correct a mistake the meeting of club reporters and to give instructions in how to keep score will take place at the Columbus Civic Center on Saturday morning, April 22, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Only two or three weeks in which to practise! (If you wish to send in any news to this column, address your envelope to this newspaper, Columbus Civic Center, in care of Father Vogt.)

KNIGHTS LEAGUE YEAR IS SUCCESS

Children of the parish, carrying symbols representing the 22 stops of the new organ led the procession through the aisles of the church. A halt in the procession allowed Monsignor Hart to impart the blessing to the new organ, after which the clergy were escorted to the sanctuary.

A sermon by the Rev. George W. Predmore of Spencerport on the use of the organ in the Catholic Church was delivered. During the sermon, Professor Philip Kreckel, organist at St. Boniface Church, illustrated the different stops of the organ.

Following the sermon, Professor Kreckel gave a recital which not only exemplified to the Catholic laity but brought out the richness and delicacy of one of the new organ.

Several vocal selections were sung by the church choir and the children's choir. The latter sang the hymns for the Solemn Benediction which closed the services and was given by the Rev. Alexander McCabe, assisted by the Rev. Robert Fox and the Rev. Joseph Vogt.

Knights of St. John To Hold Inspection and Military Ball May 1

The annual inspection and ball of St. Maurice's, St. Eustace and St. Boniface Commanderies to be held on Monday evening, May 1, at St. Boniface Hall, Whalla Street, is expected to draw a record attendance.

The inspection will be in the form of a battalion inspection with full regimental regalia. The mass formation and parade will be under the command of Major Fred J. Wegman with Colonel Frank H. Biel, K.H.S., and his staff as reviewing officers. The inspection will take place promptly at 8 o'clock by Inspector Edmund Braun and Assistant Inspector Edward Bach.

Exhibition drills will be given by St. Boniface Commandery and Ladies Auxiliary Drill Corps under command of Captain Wendel Maeder. The military ball will follow immediately after the exhibition.

Historical Sketch of the 1st N. Y. Regiment of the Knights of St. John Commanderies and Auxiliaries 1933 EDITION Compiled by Lt. Chas. H. Mura

For some time the Knights of St. John in Rochester had expressed a desire to see the Ladies Auxiliary affiliated with their commanderies. The Sir Knights made great exertions to bring about this longfelt want of their Order, when finally in the year of 1898 to their great astonishment no less than six auxiliaries had been organized with a total membership of about 400.

All Catholic Teams Bowling Tournament Ready for Opening

Close to 100 Catholic bowling teams are expected to participate in the tournament sponsored by the Holy Name Society which opens Monday evening in Buonomo Hall, Secretary Harold T. Johnson stated on Wednesday. Extension of time for final entries till today would not permit a complete line-up of teams, entered, the secretary said.

Bowlers from Danville, Soney, Owego, Fairport, Macedon, and other towns in the diocese will come for the tournament. St. Michael's parish is reserving a big section of the hall on Wednesday of next week and will go to the hall with a brass band.

Those in charge of the tournament, anticipate some excellent pick-picking during the rolling for some of Rochester's best bowlers are entered and those from out of town will probably give the Rochester pinners something to worry about. The schedule for the tournament will be completed Saturday.
