A triple tie for first place in the Catholic Indoor Baseball League is the result of last Sunday's games.

Charley Gehrlinger, Detroit second baseman, socked Lefty's first pitch for a two bagger.

Had Werber kept his mouth closed, things might have been different. The information he relayed to Gomez—the same information Dickey and Gehrig had striven to keep from him—so unnerved Lefty that he momentarily lost his stuff.

Pitcher Louis Poll, of the Milwaukee team of the A. A., recently threw out eleven batters in nine innings of baseball.

It's awfully early in the season to do any prognosticating, but to our mind the three stand-out teams will be Holy Rosary, St. Andrew's, and O. L. of Sorrows.

Manager Max Carey, of Brooklyn, seems to have outsmarted the smart Branch Rickey, of the Cards, when he traded Dazzy Vance to St. Louis for Owenie Carroll, old Holy Cross College star.

You cannot put an old head on young shoulders. If you could, Lefty Gomez, of the Yankees, would have had a no run, no hit game recently.

Al Simmons—George Haas and Jimmy Dykes are not the fastest men in the world but they're sure filling the White Sox grandstands.

Well, a one hit game is pretty good, though, Bill.

The couple left on a motor trip to points in Northern Canada and the Murray Bay country.

Holy Rosary's Team Starts Season With Win Over St. Monica

Holy Rosary, last season's champions, won their initial game in the current Catholic Indoor Baseball League last Sunday when they defeated St. Monica's by the decisive margin of 16 to 8.

Holy Apostles proved no match for Tony Ferrari and the St. Andrew's nine. Tony, like Agness, and also Masuzza, of O. L. of S., permitted but three hits, while his pals combed McConnell hard in the closing innings.

Hard hitting by Clay Gallagher and Dick Palmer proved the undoing of St. Augustine's as St. Boniface romped in with a 11 to 3 margin.

St. Andrew's 010003008—12200 Holy Apostles 010000000—132 Ferrari and Tischer; McConnell and Reed.

St. Monica's 002200301—837 Holy Rosary 16051103x—1014 De prez and Cahill; Agness and Bloler.

Parochial Baseball League

Sacred Heart boys toyed with their rivals from Holy Rosary until the last inning, then they shoved four runs across the plate to win by a score of 4-3.

Perpetual Help took St. George's scalp last week with an ease which surprised. Don't forget that banquet last year, boys! (Scandal! has it that after winning four games last year, the parish gave the team a banquet. Therefore, the boys promptly lost four games!)

We wish to deny the current rumor that the boys of the Immaculate team are married or are in College. Father Wise says that they are only eating the proper vitamins! Boy! They must be eating nothing else but!

The new comers, St. Thomas, according to all rumors have a fast and smooth team. The credit goes to the two who have sponsored the team—Mr. Robinson and Mr. Wegman. Good luck to them!

Nearly all of the men's lay societies of the diocese have become members of the Diocesan Council. All have been invited to join the work of this great congress of lay societies, which is maintaining and supporting the Catholic Radio Hour, maintaining a National Catholic Information Bureau at Washington, and answering thousands of questions each month to inquiring non-Catholics who are anxious to learn something about the doctrines and dogmas of the Church.

The officers of the various deanery councils are as follows: Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Frederick J. Moxley, Charles A. Tucker, William J. Hauser, all of Rochester, N. Y.

Daniel W. Lynch, Geneva, N. Y.; Peter P. Turner, Canandaigua, N. Y.; T. F. Gilligan, Shortsville, N. Y.; Patrick O'Malley, Geneva, N. Y.; Joseph Pfeiffer, Corning, N. Y.; Eugene J. Clancy, Hornell, N. Y.; Frank Watson, Bath, N. Y.; E. A. LaVigne, Geneva, N. Y.
