This boy, Tony Ferrari, who gunned a one hit game against Holy Redeemer in a Catholic League In-lor... contest Sunday to give St. Andrews an easy win, stood out like the proverbial sore thumb in the third week's play of that organization.

but Walter Maravillo goes on for over. "How long more are you good up there?" I asked that question of Walter Maravillo some three or four years ago.

Decisive Wins Mark Play In Catholic Loop

By INSIDER Holy Rosary and St. Andrew's tr-door baseball clubs are atop the heap of nine in the Catholic League as the result of last Sunday's games St. Boniface finally fifted before the Holy Family team and its clean slate spoiled.

Elmira Sodality Study Group Will Study World Ills

Elmira--The first meeting of one of the study clubs recently organized as a part of the activities of the Sodality of Our Lady of St. Patrick's Church, the Queen of Peace Guild, was held in the Assembly Room of St. Patrick's school after the May Devotions Wednesday night of last week.

STELLA MARIS, CATHOLIC BOYS' CAMP TO HAVE THREE ENCAMPMENT PERIODS

Encampment periods at Stella Maris, Catholic Boys' Camp of the Diocese of Rochester, on the east shore of Conesus Lake were announced this week by the Rev. Gerald C. Lambert, director. The camp will again be conducted as last year with Father Lambert as director and the Rev. George Vogt as chaplain.

When the news was given out last week that young Al Wright, second-baseman for the Boston Braves, had been sent back to the Mission team, of the Pacific Coast League, it was just a small item to the average fan, but to Rochester admirers of Walter "Rabbit" Maravillo, it meant that despite his 41 years the Rabbit was good for one more year in the minors.

In case you don't know it: There are baseball managers who really enjoy seeing a fight. Managers Earl McNewley, of Sacramento, and Ray Heubaker, of Oakland, staged a sweet two-hitter argument during a game last week.

Ferrari and Barney Agness should give much high class entertainment when they finally lock horns on June 25 at Edgerton Playground. That's one game we'll see. Scores: Holy Redeemer 10 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 5

Preparations are being made for the celebration of the Silver Jubilee of the Ordination of the Rev. F. William Stauder of Holy Redeemer Church and for the tenth anniversary of his appointment to this parish.

Parochial Baseball League

Two stellar performances on the mound this week. Bob Wegman of St. Thomas forcing the powerful St. Michael's team to extra innings to win, and Curtis St. Augustine's, who obtained sixteen strike outs in winning over St. Peter and Paul.
