

By FREDERICK J. MIX

President, Rochester Diocesan Council, N. C. C. W. N. C. W. C. News Despatch carries; tion of Father Mullin now leaves the account of an event of consider. Troop, 207 with five ordained priests, able interest in Catholic Boy Scout who were former scouts, and twelve Circles. Rev. Mark J. Mullin, C. M., who are studying for the priesthood a former Boy Scout, sung his first at various seminarles.

channels.

solemn High Mass at St. Vincent's Seminary Chapel, Georgetown, Pa., a week ago last Sunday. There were Germantows. While the history of present the scouts from his own for- this troop was not given in the press mer troop and several others from the Germantown district.

Father Mullin left the troop in 1920 to enter St. Joseph's College of that the other members of the troop, Princeton, N. J., where he pursued a course of study for eight years, including finishing at St. Vincent's Seminary, Germantown. The ordina-

Are You Attending the

L. C. B. A. CONVENTION IN ROCHESTER?

The Seneca, Rochester's leading Hotel, cordially invites you to nake this great hotel your home while in town.

550 delightful rooms. Moder-ate rates. Visit the new Coffee Room, the Fountain Room and the Main Dining Room. The reasonably priced Table

D'Hote and a la Carte prices will appeal to you. Conveniently located in the cen-ter of everything and close to the K. of C, Auditorium. Several years ago they established courses in Boy Life training at Notre Dame University.

Hotel Seneca A United Hotel ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Physical Director, Wilbur E. Quinn. Six life guards all former members of Junior and Senior Life Sav. ing Classes at the Center are assisting Physical Director Quinn. All are experienced with the work of teaching and guarding the pool. The Life Juards are: Captain James Ehmann, Raymond Simnions, Robert O'Beirne, Bernard Houlihan and Hugh McDon-

There is probably no troop in the ald. country that can rival Troop 207 of The patronage of the pool has greatly increased during the warm days and the guest privilege for nondespatch, it is a certain fact that members has helped the attendance. these boys have had magnificent lead-Mr. Quinn in outlining the proership. It is hardly necessary to add gram, designed he says to increase the number of proficient swimmers in while not blessed with religious vothe Club, states that as soon as chilcations, are better Catholics and betdren are large enough to stand up ter citizens because of their associain the shallow end of the pool, which tion with them. There is seldom a is 3 feet deep, they are eligible for lack of boys to organize a boy scout swimming instruction. When they troop. The problem is finding adults learn simple strokes and become a with the right temperament, enlittle older, they are placed in the thusiasm and understanding of boy problems to undertake the leadership advanced swimmers' classes where their strokes are perfected. of boy groups. The boy scout code When they have learned to swim. of honor is one that is particularly well they become members of the div-calculated to instill patriotism and ing classes where fancy diving is self reliance in the boys and there taught. Life-saving work is taught can be no doubt that their attitude in other classes For those who did not learn to toward life and toward their country is greatly influenced by their boy swim in early life, there are mothers' classes, husiness girls' classes, busiscout training. ness and club men's classes in addi-In Catholic scout troops, religion should play a part, not so much by tion to special group instruction. Individuals also receive instruction at precept, as by example upon the part of the leader and those interested. any time.

In commenting upon safety meas-In the right kind of a leader, they ures at the pool. Mr. Quinn states see the practical application of the that the rule requiring all swimmers principles that they have learned in to take showers before entering the parochial school. Thousands of boys water is a safeguard against heart whose misdirected energy lead them first into juvenile delinquency, would failure. There never has been any become good citizens if their energies accident of this kind in the history of the Columbus Civic Center pool. could be directed along proper Cleanliness results from the disinecting of the dressing rooms, twice The Supreme Council of the daily; from changing the water in Knights of Columbus, and its suborthe pool every 24 hours, and from dinate Councils, have recognized that constant purification at the rate of the recreational care of boys is a 15.000 gallons an hour. work which should enlist the financial Weekly samples are taken of the ald and activity of the members pool water by city health officers. Tests of these samples show the water to be more scientifically free from germs than tap water in private Since that time many young men homes. Reports from Health Office have graduated, who are now in the for the past year show a zero count field in active charge of Boy work. and 100 per cent. sanitation. Mr. In Rochester Diocese several scout Quinn states that none are allowed troops are supported and sponsored in the pool who have sores of by the K. of C. More would be or- wounds of any kind.

Honor Memory of Bishop O'Hern at Laymen's Retreat

Another successful week-end rereat for laymen was conducted Friay to Monday, June 23 to 26, at St faithfully.

Bernard's Seminary and was attended

A departure in the schedule was the recitation of the Rosary by the Chapel, Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, for the repose of the soul of Bishop

The outdoor Stations of the cross

Officers of the Laymon's Retreat

J. Rickard; Second Vice-President, Au.

burn deanery, J. J. Driscoll, Auburn;

Third Vice-President, Elmira Deanery, T. J. McInerney, Ithaca; Fourth

Vice-President, Corning Deanery,

John Mellinger, Hornell; Fifth Vice-

President, Geneva Deanery, Frank J.

Gonboy: Secretary-Treasurer, William

T. Nolan; and Financial Secretary of

ARE YOU LISTENIN'?

Life of late seems filled with fears,

Where is the hope and the joy of is anything left worth the taking or

I'm lovin' you-are you listenin'? -ETHEL G. CHATFIELD.

Advertisers are serving you week

their efforts by telling them you are

But for some trouble or sorrows

re should never know half the good

Nothing left but a vale of tears,

When your mind's made up that

You're going to be blue,

look in my eyes

living?

giving?

friend,

to end,

Drise.

subscriber.

there is about us.

the Building Fund, Fred B. Taylor.

CATHOLIC COURIER, THURSDAY, JULY & 1988

Scoutmaster Schaefer Honored by St. Boniface was presented with a set of binocu-and outing of the committee and stories of his scouling experies ning, June 28.

other guests were the Rev. Gerald Lambert, Director of Columbus Civic Centre and the Rev. George Vort, Director of Camp Stalla Maris, three A defendant's iden of a grand ju assistant scoutmanters, Joseph Hall, is the one that mays "not guilty." Norman Meleyer, Williard Pribus and Chicago Times.

THE

Schnacky, angle Gaalas. Troop No. 2. The Rev. Joseph Volt assistant pastor of St. Bonifee Troop at Annual Outing Church, emphasized the value of scouting in the life of boys of today.

Milton V. Schaefer, Scoutmaster of Scoutmaster Scheefer responded Troop 200 of St. Boniface Church, with words of appreciation of the support of the troop committee and outlars in appreciation of his work for lined plans for the further progress Calabrese, George Carrell, Jack the boys of the troop, by the troop and development of his troop. He Cleary. committee at the annual staak roast also untertained the group with sarly guests, held at William L. Hall's cot- which extends over a period of 20 tage at Consaus Lake, Monday ever years and traced the development John Doud, Benealter Durty, Dounie In addition to the scoutmanter, highly efficient organization which the Boy Scouls of America are today. Halblelb.

A defendant's idea of a grand jury

NULLURA A FIRE Rell of Hot

Francia Beaty, Charles Bostwick Frank Brautigans, Billy Bubel, Jone Brine, Andrew Calabres, George Joseph Conway, Vincent Contell

David Curtin, Augelies D'Alfense, Brownlow Deavits, William Dieter, seph Fritsch, George Querinet, Ward | Guncheon, Joseph Guinetta, William

Edward Hallick, Robert Harmon Jack Medges, John M. Moneig. Richard Mutekinson,

+ IN

GL. FIRST NATIONAL BANK & arust Co. of ROCHESTER-45 Clade Of

NATIONAL BANK

Momber Foderal Reserve System

AT THE CLOSE OF Surines, June 30, 1883

As Shown by its Books

ONLY

OFFICERS MEYER JACOBSTEIN, Preident THOMAS R. DWYER, Executive Viet Free,

GEORGE C. LENNOX, Vice-Pres. HENRY H. STEBBINS JR., Vice-Pre OGDEN BUTLER, Calhier CHESTER B. ACHILLES, And, Callin FRANK C. LEAPER, And. Califor

ROBERT E. TOWEY, Trust Officer

h Nori Telet, Max

Loans and Discounts Overdralta U. S. Government Bends and Certif

RECOURCE

-Other Bonds and So -----Furniture, Fixtures BOARD of DIRECTORS ELC. Other Real Betate ... WILLIAM 5. ADDISON Provident, Addison Lithegraphing Co. Cash and Due Ire THOMAS R. DWYER lean and Be Equility Vice-President LOUIS 5. FOULKES Other Assets Pres. and Treas. Indian Splint Co. ALFONSO GIOTA TOTAL President, A. Clina & Bre. LYELL T. HALLETT Con. Mgr. Rochalar Brankh, Beachart Packing Co ALFRED HART President, Hart Food Stores, Int. LIABILITIES 5. RAE HICKOK President, Hichok Monufacturing Co. Capital a $1,000,000,0 W. J. HUMPHREY Pres. Wyoming Co. National Bank 1,000,000,00 MEYER JACOBSTEIN President Undivided Profits I. HOWARD KIDD England Moter Lits his Co. Reserve for Interest WH. E. MALONEY 21,191,44 Diariel Manager, Crimnell Co., Inc. A. H. NEISNER Reserve for Depresin President, Nature Braza Inc. tion and Contin FRED J. ODENBACH Freident, Odenbuch Co. OTTO R. ROHR 2005764 President, Stecher Traing Lithograph Corp. HENRY H. STEBBINS, JR. Circulation 560.000.0 Vice Problem IRVING W. STEELE Other Lieblittles I. W. Stelle & Co. HENRY M. STERN nhala, Sim & Ca HARRY C. STEVENSON Yes, Recharder Felding Bes Co THOMAS M. STEWART