THE CATHOLIC WORLD OVER

Spanish Priests Fined

Madrid.—(NCWC) — On charges that they criticized the Government in sermons two parish priests have been fined 500 pesetas each. The Rev. Samuel Miranda, a canon of the Basilica of Cavadonga, was accused of making an attack on the Government's policies and a similar charge was brought against the parish priest of Muro de Alcaniz.

Rescued 1,500 Slaves

Montessa, East Africa.—(NCWC) — Bishop Mathurin Guilleme of the White Fathers, Vicar Apostolic of Nyasa, who has the interesting record of having rescued 1,500 slaves, will celebrate September 25, the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination and the golden jubilee of missionary life.

Ask to Be Safeguarded

Calcutta.—(NCWC) — Safeguards of Catholic rights in the exercise of their religion, in the owning of Church property, in Catholic marriage and in Catholic education have been demanded by the All-India Catholic League in a letter to the Secretary of the Joint Parliamentary Select Committee on the Indian Constitution, at London.

Mass on Mt. Blanc

Paris.—(NCWC) — For the first time Mass has been celebrated on the summit of Mt. Blanc. It was celebrated by the chaplain of the Boy Scouts at the celebrated School of the Oratorians of Julliy. He was accompanied on the three-day trip by six of the older scouts and a guide and two porters from Chamoinx.

Culture Center Dedicated

Buenos Aires.—(NCWC) — "Berubum," a center of Catholic culture, has been dedicated at La Plata. The building will become an important center especially for the youth movement sponsored by the Catholic Action Groups.

Will Play at Fair

Omaha, Neb.—(NCWC) — The St. Wenceslaus Parish Band of this city, a musical organization of Bohemian-Americans, will give a series of concerts at the Chicago World's Fair as a contribution from Nebraska.

Study Schools for Governor

Montreal.—(NCWC) — The Most Rev. Francis C. Kelley, Bishop of Oklahoma City, who also is one of 17 prominent Oklahomans appointed by the Governor of the State to give on a special Education Board for higher education, was in Montreal Friday in the course of a study of universities and colleges in Ontario and Quebec. Bishop Kelley is making the study, it is understood, at the request of Governor Murray, in connection with the Governor's project of a cooperative plan for Oklahoma universities and colleges.

Prayers Asked for Bishop

Syracuse.—(NCWC) — The Most Rev. John A. Duffy, Bishop of Syracuse, pontificated at a Mass in the Cathedral here, Saturday, celebrated to commemorate the first anniversary of the death of the late Bishop Daniel J. Curley, his predecessor. Bishop Duffy, in paying tribute to Bishop Curley, asked the people of the diocese to pray for the repose of Bishop Curley's soul.

Suspend Anti-Catholic Paper

Berlin.—(NCWC) — One of the most vicious anti-Catholic publications of Germany, the Volkswarte, edited by General Erich Ludendorff, has been suppressed for a period of three months by the State Police here. The paper was waging a war of calumny and vituperation "against Jesuits, Jews and Freemasons," but Catholics were the favorite object of the General's hate and prejudice. Catholics in Germany are gratified that the Government has taken effective steps to prevent this malicious propaganda.

Mother of Two Nuns Herself Is Professed

(N. C. W. C. News Service)
Garrison, N. Y. — Sister Mary Monica, who entered the convent of the Sisters of the Atonement at Graymoor, on May 4, 1925, was solemnly professed Saturday. She is the mother of Sister Mary Lucia of the Sisters of the Poor, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Cincinnati, and Sister Lucy, a Dominican Sister, of Union City, N. J.
Sister Mary Monica also has two sons who are members of St. Andrew of Aveline parish, Piquette, L. I.

Forty-two Dioceses Represented at Students Mission Crusade Sessions

Prelates, Educators, Missioners Address Eighth National Convention—Holy Father Sends Message of Greeting

Cincinnati.—Prelates, priests, educators and students representing 42 dioceses, as well as missionaries from far-off lands, attended the eighth national convention of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, which closed here Friday.
The Holy Father sent a message, imparting the Apostolic Benediction, which was read to the assembly at the formal opening of the convention on Tuesday night by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frank A. Thill, chairman of the meeting. The Pontiff's message, conveyed to the convention by His Eminence Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, Papal Secretary of State, was as follows:
"The Holy Father gladly imparts his Apostolic Benediction to the Bishops, priests, religious, students and all participating in the Convention of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade at Cincinnati on August 8 to 11.
"His Holiness trusts that the students becoming more fully informed of the work of the missions may labor more zealously on their behalf under the direction of their respective Ordinaries."
Many Visiting Prelates
Visiting prelates at the convention included: Archbishop Edward A. Mooney, Apostolic Delegate to Japan, and Francis Joseph Beckman, of Dubuque; and Bishops Joseph Schrembs of Cleveland; Francis W. Howard, of Covington; Edmund Hoelan, of Sioux City; Emmet M. Walsh, of Charleston; James Anthony Walsh, Titular Bishop of Sene and Superior General of the Maryknoll Fathers; James A. McFadden, Auxiliary Bishop of Cleveland; Joseph Byrne, C.S.Sp.

The keynote of the convention was sounded by Bishop Schrembs who chose as his subject a slogan of the Crusade: "Forward with Courage and Faith."
"Profound conviction must be yours that your duty as a Christian can never be fulfilled if the salvation of the world leaves you cold and indifferent," Bishop Schrembs said, pointing out why the Catholic youth of America should become Crusaders and Apostles and telling how they could best carry out the principles of the organization.
A Communion Mass was celebrated each morning at an altar erected in

SECULAR PAPER ARTICLE LAUDS PARISH SCHOOL

Professor Sees Dire Results Should Parochial Institutions Close

(N. C. W. C. News Service)
Brooklyn.—Those who send their children to public schools hardly realize how much the financial load to the public is eased by virtue of the existence of parochial schools. Dr. Garry C. Myers of Western Reserve University of Ohio declares in an article appearing in the Brooklyn Times Union.
The two largest groups of parochial schools in the United States, Dr. Myers says, are the Catholic and Lutheran. In most of the Lutheran schools, he adds, a nominal fee is expected of the parents of the children who attend, though in practice there rarely is paid any fee. The Catholic parochial school, he states, is free to the children who attend it. "In a sense, it is a public school," he says. "Some one, of course, must bear

C. D. A. Invited to Form Junior Circles in Canada

(N. C. W. C. News Service)
Seattle.—A cordial invitation from prominent Catholic women leaders of British Columbia and Alberta provinces, to extend the circles and activities of the Juniors' department of the Catholic Daughters of America, to principal cities of western Canada, was received here by Miss Maxie V. Scanlon of Atlantic City, during her visit with local senior courts and Juniors' circles of the organizations.
"Although the Catholic Daughters' senior courts are established in many Canadian cities, there are Juniors' circles for young Catholics girls only in the city of Montreal.

Practice in North of Ireland Refusing To Employ Catholics Seen Spreading

(Dublin Correspondent, N. C. W. C. NEWS SERVICE)
Dublin.—The intention in Northern Ireland to keep, as far as possible all employment for Protestants, is developing into a policy. Recently the Northern Minister for Labor declared with pride to the Orangemen that 30 men employed as porters at the Parliament House in Belfast, only one was a Catholic, "and he is only temporary."
The Orange speeches, on July 12, have provoked from Orangemen living in the Free State protests and warnings that the line taken ignores the danger of retaliations against Protestants working for Catholic employers in the Free State. The

CENTRAL VEREIN TO BE INVITED HERE IN 1934

Delegates to the National Convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America to be held at Pittsburgh, August 18-23, and to the State Convention of the New York State Branch of the Central Verein to be held at Brooklyn, N. Y., September 2-4, met last Friday evening in St. Joseph's Hall and completed their plans for both of these conventions.

There was read a letter from President Eibner of the Catholic Central Verein of America stating that Rochester, N. Y., has been suggested as ideal in every respect as a convention city for the 1934 Convention of the National Organization. The letter spoke highly of the convention of the State Branch held at Rochester last year and concluded with the following statement:
"Considering the aforementioned facts and incidents, I would be tremendously pleased to hear of Rochester's willingness and that they

Circulation of London Catholic Weekly Now In Excess of 100,000

(N. C. W. C. News Service)
London.—The current issue of The Universe announces that Catholic weekly circulation has reached a total of 101,770, an advance of 568 copies over the figure for the previous six months.
Ten years ago the circulation of The Universe was 37,000 weekly. Then the customary issue contained 16 pages. Today the paper never has less than 24 pages and usually it has 28.

Father Coughlin Tells Of Reading Encyclical To President Roosevelt

(N. C. W. C. News Service)
Cleveland.—That President Roosevelt is conversant with the Encyclical Quadragesimo Anno of His Holiness Pope Pius XI was stated by the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, pastor of the Shrine of the Little Flower at Royal Oak and widely known radio speaker, who said he himself had read the Encyclical to the President.
In an interview published in The Catholic Universe Bulletin, Father Coughlin said:
"I have sat down with Mr. Roosevelt and read the Encyclical over to him page by page."

FR. COUGHLIN BACK ON AIR NEXT OCTOBER

Detroit.—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin will broadcast over two national radio chains beginning in October, it is announced in The Michigan Catholic.
Twenty-seven stations have been signed up for the regular broadcast at 4 o'clock and five more probably will be added. Other stations have offered their facilities, but Father Coughlin is including in his chain only those for whose services he is able to pay. He insists on this policy to assure his independence, it is stated.
Father Coughlin will discuss current national and international questions, in the light of the Encyclical of Pope Leo XIII on "The Condition of Labor" and that of Pius XI on "Reconstructing the Social Order." He will speak on 27 Sundays.
"Children's Hour Extended"
The "Children's Hour," which Father Coughlin has been conducting for several years, will be broadcast at 2 p. m. from seven stations. Formerly its broadcasting was confined to WJR in Detroit.
Though not broadcasting at present, the radio priest receives approximately 50,000 letters a week, it is stated. During his broadcasting season the number usually reaches 100,000 weekly.

Pilgrims Climb To Mountain's Top To Honor Erin's Saint

(Dublin Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service)
Dublin.—This year's pilgrimage to Croaghpatrick, the mountain of the Saint, was favored by unusually favorable weather. The pilgrims numbered at least 35,000. There were ten special trains from many parts of Ireland, and many buses in which the people proceeded to the mountain's base, whence they climbed during the night—many of them barefooted—to the summit which rises to 1,150 feet.
In the oratory at the top Masses were said continuously from 6 a. m. and about 30 Masses altogether were celebrated. More than 5,000 received Holy Communion.
The Rev. Dr. Gibbons of St. Jarlath's College, Tuam, preached a sermon in the Irish language, and a sermon in English was preached by Father Paschal, O.M.Cap., of Cork. The Most Rev. Thomas B. Gilmarin, Archbishop of Tuam, presiding in the neighboring town of Westport, welcomed the pilgrims.

Fate of Two Priests, Six Nuns In Chinese War Zone in Doubt

(By N. C. W. C. NEWS SERVICE)
Washington, Aug. 17.—The Rt. Rev. Cuthbert O'Gara, C. P., Prefect Apostolic of Shenchow, Hunan Province, China, has sent a message stating that he has been unable to receive any direct word from missionaries resident in Yuanchow, which city has been besieged since June 27 by Hunan Government troops. It is being defended by a rebel.
The message was relayed to the Department of State in a telegram received through the American Legation at Peiping. The American Consul General at Hankow reported that Father O'Gara's message was dated August 4. The message said there are two American priests and six nuns, five of whom are Americans, in the besieged city. General Li Paochen, leader of the attacking forces, has been requested to use every effort to safeguard their lives.
Union City, N. J., Aug. 17.—Those at St. Michael's Passionist Monastery here who are familiar with affected areas in the Province of Hunan, China, are of the opinion that the seizure of the town of Yuanchow, where the American Catholic missionaries are stationed, is not an act inimical to the missionaries, nor the act of Reds.
The Rev. Edward McCarthy, C. P., and the Rev. Francis Flaherty, C. P., have been at that station for five years. It was said at the monastery.
Reports from China state that no word has been heard from Fathers McCarthy and Flaherty and six Catholic missionary Sisters at Yuanchow since the siege of that city by the Hunan Government troops began on June 27. American representatives at Hankow are reported to have called upon the Hunan Government authorities to exert every effort to save the Americans' lives. The city is said to be defended by rebels.
Father McCarthy is from Dorches-

Opens Lepet Asylum

Rev. Joseph Sweeney, M. M., of New Haven, Conn., former procurator of Maryknoll in San Francisco, who is on his way to South China where he will open a leper asylum in the Kongmoon district. Fr. Sweeney will be aided in the undertaking by the direction of Dr. Harry Fisher of Brooklyn, N. Y., the first American Catholic physician to work with Maryknoll missionaries in the Orient.

Carrier Boys in Five Parishes Rewarded for Getting New Subscribers

With parishioners responding wholeheartedly, St. John the Evangelist parish of which the Rev. John H. Sullivan is pastor, went into the lead in the CATHOLIC COURIER circulation campaign being conducted with the encouragement and support of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Harl, Vicar Capitular of the diocese.
Latest reports from Charles A. Tucker, circulation manager, are that St. John the Evangelist parish is leading all other parishes by more than 100 subscribers. In addition to those received from the boys, blue cards certifying subscribers to be delivered by the boys in St. John's parish are being passed on to the other parishes. The following are the Columbus Circle Centers, in order of their standing: St. John's, 35; St. Anthony's, 30; St. Mary's, 25; St. Peter's, 20; St. James', 15; St. Joseph's, 10; St. Michael's, 5.
New carrier boys appointed in their respective parishes, announced this week were: Jack England, St. Margaret's; John Magee and Thomas McDonald, Holy Rosary; Lawrence Klueber and George Fisher, Holy Family; Edward Miller and Anthony Cagnazzo, St. John the Evangelist. These boys have already entered enthusiastically into the work of getting new readers for the diocesan paper.
Another series of introductions of parishioners to copies of the CATHOLIC COURIER took place last Sunday when the following parishes were visited and copies distributed: Our Lady of Sorrows, the Rev. Patrick A. Moffatt, pastor; Holy Cross, the Rev. Alexander M. McCabe, pastor; Our Lady of Good Counsel, the Rev. Edward T. Meagher, pastor; St. Ann's Church, the Rev. George Schmitt, pastor.
Auburn Parish Orders
Parishes outside the scope of the circulation campaign continue their good work of selling the CATHOLIC COURIER at the church doors. A recent increase order was received from the Rev. Dr. William E. Cowan, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Auburn. Never in the history of the diocese has such an effort been made to bring to the attention of Catholic Italy the importance of a diocesan newspaper. The response has been most gratifying to those in charge of the paper. The good work must go on until the CATHOLIC COURIER is in a position to exert the influence that is commensurate with the size of Rochester diocese.

ROCHESTER DIOCESE GROUP RETURNS HOME FROM TRIP TO EUROPE FOR HOLY YEAR

Received in Audience by Holy Father; Visit to Rome and Shrine at Lourdes; Impressed with Manifestations of Faith

Faith is strengthened to a degree inadequately expressed by a Holy Year pilgrimage to Rome, the Rev. Louis J. O'Connell, diocesan director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and managing editor, CATHOLIC COURIER, said Wednesday on his arrival home from a visit to Vatican City and other points of interest in Europe with the Rochester Holy Year Pilgrimage.
To a news conference at the Lourdes shrine, the Rev. O'Connell said that the pilgrimage was a most successful one. He said that the Holy Father had received the pilgrims in audience and that they had been most impressed with the manifestations of faith in Rome and Lourdes.

Puerto Rico Governor Gore Advises Humanitarian Measures In Message

(Puerto Rico Correspondent, N. C. W. C. NEWS SERVICE)
San Juan.—Humanitarian measures such as the need for education of deaf and dumb children and the preservation of the homes of delinquent tax payers were contained in the recommendations submitted to the special session of the Legislature by Robert Hayes Gore, Catholic Governor of Puerto Rico.
Referring to the need for schools for the deaf and dumb children, the Governor said: "This need has been overlooked by the withdrawal of an appropriation of $4,000 which heretofore had been allowed. The schools of the island are not qualified to teach the deaf and dumb children and the obligation to teach these children lies as heavily upon the Government as does the obligation to teach the blind children."
With regard to relief for delinquent tax payers, he said: "Whenever and whenever the taxpayer brings the payment of current taxes up to date and keeps it so, delinquencies of back taxes should be permitted."
