Their Activities

OUR CATHOLIC WOMEN

Incerests

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Devotions

MARY, OUR MOTHER "SON, BEHOLD THY MOTHER"

Have you ever thought of what a wonderful, grand thing it was for God to have a Mother—a real Mother—a Mother that are about 600 lepers at Cebu and the pressed Him to Her Bosom—and sang Him to sleep with soft, baby lullabys; kissed Him, hugged Him, loved Him! And have you ever missionary achievement in the Philiptried to think of what a glorious Creature that Mother of God must be? Such a thought must leave us breathless. It would mightly to alleviate the misery of be like an ecstasy—a vision of Heavenly Beauty—of Immaculate purity—and almost Divine loveliness. The most wonderful thought of all is that that exalted Creature—that peerless Mother of God is our own Mother, too.

summer-or the gold and scarlet is blighted with ain can benefit by souls as to die for them would have another gift of God - the breath of you.""

THE SEASON of entertaining is just around the corner. Make your

Chili Avenue (Opposite

the hot summer months, add a little Glen. 1325W.

DON'T EVER be without candy in the house par-ticularly if guests are expected. Odenbach's Week-End Box is a great favor-with Suzanne. It is

BE YOUR OWN inalabaster lamps featured by Howe & Rogers Co., 89 Clin-decorator I

lines about the same as last season,

—just below the calf. Skirts are straight with little or no flare.

Shoulders accentuated. Leading ma-

Gibb Street were serving that famous New England clam chowder on the 6th day of the week. It's good! help you. If you wish her advice on matters of eliquette, address your inquiries to her in care of this column.

cial. Two for the price of one is the part in my bridal procession—for insides. To have two single cotton stance, the ushers and bridesmalds?

from knives that have been used in narily, when the entree is served. It cutting onions rub them off with a last this point that warm plates are damp cloth, then rub thoroughly with placed before each guest for the meat sait and wash well with warm water.

a lot by

now Crissy's Ten Room, 232

---for---y

reservations

Rugby--Ave.)

bridge luncheons. No charge for cards, tables and score cards. Luncheon can be had for as low as 35c per person. They also feature a Sunday dinner from 1 to 7 baking soda to the water to remedy only 49c and contains an assortment of delicious homemade assortment of deficious nomemate candies, made in Odenbach's own candy kitchen. It makes a big hit with everyone. Odenbach's Coffee Shoppe, 19 Clinton Ave. South.

ton Ave. S. The lamps are an urn shape and come complete with a 15-inch hand-tailored shade for $11. "Striking" is the word that describes their effect. Also to be had in porce-lain, lennox china and wood.

terials are, velvet and satins, with wools playing a close third and black

ARE YOU MAKING any money? Whether or no, you can't afford to miss Tatlock's Laundry blanket spe-blankets washed with a guarantee costs you only 30c, two doubles will be 60c. For 75c two double woolen blankets can be washed, for 50c two single woolen. Call Main 3291.

TO REMOVE the odor of onions

THE DOG DAYS are over, and has my appetite re-turned! But Fridays were still a problem until the other day I discovered that the Nook Restaurant, 14 is the present outstanding color.

prickly heat.

p. m. of steak or chicken for 60c.

We know that God loves us, my outstretched upon the Cross and friends, and if ever a doubt about it said: "Son, Behold Thy Mother." could creep into our minds we He gave us the sweetest, lovilest; would only have to consider the purest Creature that ever lived to be bers of a Family God is the Father things He has done for us Shall I our Mother. He gave us the most -- Christ is our Brother and Mary is call your attention to the beauties procious thing He possessed. On our toving Mother. It would have of this Paradise in which we live? the night before He died He gave been a terrible oversight on the part The new-born leveliness of Spring us Himself but that is only for the of Christ if He had neglected to give time the full-blown beauties of pure and clean of heart. No one that us a Mother. He who so loyed our glory of the autumn-those are the it. But did He not die for all-for died in vain for some souls if He finger-works of God's love -- His gifts the sinners as well as for the saint? had forgotten to say "Son, Behold to us. Do not blame God if you are Yes, and He provided for all. Be- thy Mother. blind to them Look down deep in- fore He died He said, "I will not Motherhood is the most necessary to your souls there you will find leave your orphans, I will come to thing in life Without it, there life-you will find your heart puls- fer to Christ Our Lord Himself, but me. A Mother is God's helpmateing in the Hand of God. But I am I am convinced that they meant a necessary instrument in the hands not going to enumerate all the gifts more than what they seemed to of God. He has a beautiful Parathat God has given to us, for great mean. It seems to me that behind dise where unfading beauties grow - as they are in themselves, they those words was a promise that He a paradise of Eternal Bliss, and He will meet at the club house. merely lead up to His greatest gift would give us someone to Mother opened up that Heaven to share it Himself as the Food of our souls, us, someone to care for us as only a with us. But the threshold of its All these gifts of God are simply Mother can; someone to keep our pearly gates would be uncrossed. If proofs of His love for us, but there straying feet on the way to Heaven, Mothers were remiss in their Godis one especially that I like to think He heralded each of the gifts with about—and you do too, because it a promise, and if we overlook these shows us the human side of God words we shall look in vain for the Mothers ever forgot the glorious more than any other of His gifts. promise of a Mother.

When Christ-hung with His Arms. So, my friends, we are not or-

WOMAN

ANOTHER

No Suzanni

NOW THAT your

"THIS IS my own, my native land." The man son). They have all the smart styles in both brims and close fitting hats. A wide selection in black, brown or eel grey available at $1.85. Open evenings.

THE ARBITER

Is it necessary to send invitations to the men and women who will take actly necessary, it is more courteous to send them.

Do service plates remain through out the dinner, or are they removed after the first course is served! Service plates are removed, ordi-

As ONE

Belgian Nuns To Assist American Jesuit Leprosy Work In the Philippines

New York-The good news has just received by His Excellency Bishop Hayes, S. J., of the Philippines, that the Belgian Canonesses of St. Augustine have sent four Sis- afternoon, September 10, when the ters to assist at the Cebu Leper

This Leprosarium is under the who was formerly Novice-Master at the Jesuit Novitiate of Saint Andrewon-Hudson, Poughkeepsie. There advent of these Belgian Sisters, whose pines is already considerable, will help the poor unfortunate outcasts.

In the other Leprosarium cared for by the American Jesuits in the Philipines, that of Culion, where Father Hugh McNulty, S. J., of New York, is Chaplain, phans in this world. We are mem

Those words of course, re- would be no Heaven for you or for given duties. The manatons of Heaven would be untenanted. If privileges of their calling. If your Mother forgot, if my mother had forgotten neither you nor I would be here with our eyes set on Heav. on, and the hope of eternity in our hearts. It's a Mothers' privilege to people the kingdom where Jesus Christ is King and the Mother of fair love is Queen. But a Mother's duty imposes greater obligations than merely that. Her love must not cool with the dawn of that new born life begins there, and reaches down the long and devious avenues of her child's life, even to its end. The leve of a mother is the guardian spirit that follows the child of her meom through life - moulding its infants lips to the accents of prayer; training its youthful mind to aspire NOW THAT your to the nobility of goodness, and to white washable cover, sentials an entry and the sent to the nobility of goodness, and to white washable cover, sentials an entry and canning. It will be sent to any address that noble Mother that gath with the sea of depression these last and gaid. "O my own dear children, four years it is to washable cover, sentials and said and goodness, and to white washable cover, sentials an entry and canning. It will be sent to any address the Rochester. Parish foodslifty or $1.00 postpaid.

The "Preserving and Canning" the "Round Robin." time to get out would be if I could only hope that cipes. It is yours for your binoculars even one of you might be numbered (handling charges). and give your among God's holy saints. One of your living room is in a sad state, so call H. J. McGuire and have it done her knee and said "Mama. I will be over. Simple, isn't it? He has the the saint" That child never forgot latest, samples and thouse the saint." over. Simple, isn't it? He has the the saint." That child never forgot latest samples and knows what's the tender look his mother bestowed what in the uphoistery line. Call upon him when he uttered those words; and that child kept his promise, but not all the glory goes to CANDY You don't know what him. Do not forget that his mother you've missed if you fashioned him—both in soul and haven't tried some of Colebrook's hody. How many children there Colonial Chocolates. (Also assort- might be in the world today, that ment of chocolates and bon bons, would have that same desireare responsible for that chance! (Continued Next Week)

Catholic Women's Club Fall Season Opens Sept. 10

The early fall season at the Catholic Women's Club will open Sunday Poetry Group will meet at 3:30 p. m.

Miss Blanche J. Thompson, the leader of the Group, has recently respiritual direction of Rev. Clement turned from a Holy Year pilgrimage from New York bringing greetings Risacher, S. J., of Pittsburgh, Pa., conducted by the third order of St. and news from the New York Buin-Dominic to Lisieux, Orleans, Lour- mer School of Catholic Action, Miss des. Rome, and St. Dominic's country Aune Brennan was our correspondin the Pyrenees, including Car. ont at the Summer School, We by casonne and Proulite. Monreal and pect to hear great tales about Panjenux, where St. Dominic founded when she returns. Miss Brennan is his first community and worked his a member of the National Parish first miracles, visiting also the home Advisory Board. of St. Catherine of Siena.

At this first meeting of the Group, Miss Thompson will speak informally of the experiences of a pligrimage to in his some of the earthly habitations of the Eternal City in this Extraordinary Holy Year promulgated by Popo Plus XI in commemoration of the completion of the nineteenth century of the Redemption.

The meeting will be devoted also to the consideration of the anthology not all here. Greetings from the "Our Lady's Choir" edited by William Stanley Braithwaite and including an admirable selection of poems written by Catholic nuns.

any one interested to come in to this summer school resting upon him and first, or any subsequent meeting. All with a thousand things to do, meetings are held on the second Sun- wasn't it just like him, in spite of day of each month at 3:30 p. m. all that, to remember those who at the Catholic Women's Club, and could not attend and wish that all are without fee.

On Friday evening, September 8, the Board of Directors of the Club

The Junior Cook

By MOLLY GAVEN

Now that vegetables are cheaper than they will be for some time everyone should try to use them as often as possible. Here is a recipe for vegetable sandwich which is new and appetizing:

Green Vegetable Sandwick

Pass tender raw carrots, crisp celery, green peppers, a small mild onion and tender cucumbers through the meat grinder. Mix with mayonnaise dressing and spread between thin slices of white or graham bread that has been buttered,

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

Prices are cheaper how than they will be later and it is the economical woman who will take advantage of the present situation by preserving tivities during the coming year." and canning as much food as possible? The large Molly Gavin cookbook, bound in a pretty blue and and said: "O my own dear children. The "Preserving and Canning" what might a happy mother I pamphlet contains many excellent recipes. It is yours for five cents a copy

A new circular has been prepared for our readers this week, containing numerous appetizing and economical recipes. It is entitled "Corn Recipes." With your request enclose a threecent stamp. Address: Molly Gavin, 1312 Massachusetts Ave., N. W. Washington. D. C.

(Copyright, 1933, N. C. W. C.)

It is easy to form the habit of

SODALTALK

Activities of Rochester Parish Sodalities Union

Special delivery has just arrived

Here is a bit of the Summer School for you. Father Lord writes "When the twenty-eight Rochester saints of the Catholic Church, and to delegates arrived at the New York Summer School of Catholic Action. we knew the School was a success. Att the pep and spirit and enthusi sam of Rochester is with us, and we are only worry that the big group we met at the Rochester Convention is School to Rochester which sends us one of our finest delegations."

We are thinking seriously of framing the original of that greets Cordial invitation is extended to ing. With the responsibility of the might have been able to be present? We connote ourselves with the well known phrase "They also serve who only stand and wait."

> Miss. Dorotny J. Willmann also sends us a mousego: "The Parish Department of the S. S. C. A. sends exemplary, alert and spicitual Bodalily work has been done," Eather Le Buffe, Eastern. Represeniative, was heard to remark "By the attendance of religious, such as priests, nuns, brothers and semidelegation of lay people at the Summer School of Catholic Action from Rochester, true Catholic Action is carried on through the Sodality."

> , Father Roger Lyons writes: "The faculty of the Summer School Catholic Action was delighted. learn that Rochester had sent large and interested delegation of Sodalists to the Summer School. It clearly indicates the interest of the Rochester Union and gives promise of greater success for Sodality ac-Father Lyons is director of sodality activities in the high school departmont.

"The Third Summer School The Rev. Francis P. Le Buffe, S.J., the eastern representative of the So dality of Our Lady, introduced the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., the National Director, who gave the first lecture. The subject for -the firs lecture was The reasons for the Catholic Church's program of Catholic Action."

"About three hundred and filly students. including priests, nuns, college and high school students and members of parish sodulities, were washing the tray from under the present. This year the majority of milk and dark chocolates assorted only they were given the chance to burners of the gas slove once a day those attending the school are or all dark chocolates.) Visit the have it if only mothers would not after the dishes are done. Then hard priests and religious. To my mind the country will never form from food that this is a very significant fact, for it Colebrook Candy House, 413 State forget that they are the ones that crusts will never form food that this is a very significant fact, for it has cooked over and the stove will is palpable proof of the growing in always have a neat, clean appearance, terest in Catholic Action, and the Sodulity movement. Priests and nuns are the logical persons from whom people expect intelligent leadership and it is very intelligent leadknow that so many are taking advaniage of this means of informing themselves about Catholic Action, its scope and practical application to the individual Catholic.

Wednesday morning the Robert J. Fox, Diocesan Director of the Sodality of Our Lady celebrated the Mass which marked the formal opening of the Third Summer School of Catholic Action. -This Mass was said in St. Francis Xavier Church, the whole student body attending. And so runs the story from New York. Of the Central Office staff the Rev. Dapiel A. Lord, the Rev. J. Roger Lyons, the Rev. George A McDonald, Father Heeg, Father El. lard, Miss Dorothy J. Willmann, Miss B. Wolff, Miss M. Prendergast, Miss Stalksmith, are present.

To continue the litiny of names we include the names of the Roch esfer delegation of which we are terribly proud. The Rev. Robert J. Fox, Diocesan Director of the Bodallty; the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Diocesan Director of the Propagation of the Faith; the Rev. Benedict A. Ehmann, professor of English at St. Andrew's Seminary; the Rev. Norbert A. Wagner, chaplain at Nazareth College; the Rev. Francis Feeny and the Rev. William Ayers, assistant pastors of Blessed Sacrament parish; the Rev. Robert Fennessy, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Auburn; the Rev. Francis Kleehammer, assistant pastor of St. Andrew's Church; and Mr. John S. Whalen, student at St. Bernard's Seminary Slater M. Joseph Mary, Nazareth College: Sister M. Ross Angela and Sister M. Consuella, flisters of Bt. Joseph, Nazireth Academy: States M. Adelaide and Sister M. Florence Sisters of Mercy, Mercy High School; Miss Dorothy Hall, Mercy

Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

Office: 1020 Columbus Civic Center, 30 Chestmen Street

ed the plantmane at the Martyre bene among our Cathelie organi Shring will appreciate the following tions give evidence of a courage pas poem which appeared in The Auries. ille Pilgrima

CATHEDRAL OF THE WOODS Auriciville Havis The walls are lapositried with young fresh leaves, The heiges send up incause row OH TOW! In organisate of boughs the wood. birds choir he pistees of the dead who sleep below. Through pillared alales of trees the sunbeams glide The allar's carpet at the long day's Moneon and last-years leaves are altar cloth, Beneath, the Relies every alter knows:

n altent nave no worshipper is nigh, And all the preyer is prayed by growing things, Bees in the hearts of flowers that fringe the nod And all a prayer the whirring of soft wings,

Burnedout the tapers at Our Lady's Spent, like the lives of three who loved Her Son1

Banoid, O'Mother, these, thy martyred ones! Behold thy Mother, Isaac, Rene, Johmi --- Mabel A. Paraum.

Household Hints

Wrap lettover ple erust and matri greetings to Rochester where such in a damp mapkin, or choseseleth wrung out of cold water, and place it in the refrigerator. It will keep to week or more.

Instead of grating onloss for onlo wice, out the onlon in half and press marians, supported by the splendid it through the lemon squeezer; the juice will be of better flavor and mo tears will be shed in the operation

> To make a slice of ham exception nily tender, sonk it in milk over night. In the morning wipe it dry and dip it in four before frying.

Never sprinkle ponges, Roll in sowel while wel and Iron while damp Keen knitting needles and proched hooks in a box with plenty of powdered starch. They will not rust.

High School: Misses Margaret Lark. in, Ruth Webber, Bernadette Welch, Doris Ransom and Margaret Head. ricks, Nasareth Academy; Misses Margaret Blumerick and Winifred Murphy, Nazareth College; Misses. Eva Houer and Anne Brennam, member of National Parish Advisory Catholic Action began this morning. Board, 88. Peter and Paul parish; Miss Ruth Phospan, St. Bodifson Parish: Miss Catherine Wendelmans. St. Andrew's Parish; Misses Marion Luckett and Florence Dempsey, Blessed Sacrament Parish.

Those of our members whe attendar. The mercunts of successful consum hour of challenge to set Christian forces. Our Salbanat Frankows Street Marr G. Hawke sale more that spirit, upon our malimities that here and now we must be Chibattes until to many the oppositelying the lines to make the N.C.O.W. Com-yeation as unpresentation meeting

This will be the Thirteent's Assumation of our national argantum tion. It will be hold in M. Italian Ministry, Cetober to II, 1888. Please register at our Diocessa Osses as soon as possible if you think mains. All Catholic woman are serificially invited and surposity tribes as allowed.

SEVA the old blankets for passing for the frontag board. There is noth ing that can take their please. When hom and then tack fruly over the board. Over this stretch a pleas of Unbleached mustim and you have the finat fronting purdage possible

John C. Rossen

THE STUDENTS

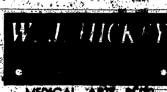

Barnard, Porter & Remington

3, 11, 15 HORTH WATER BY

*Good Glasses Better Vision

● CHECK UP on your eyest Your oculist laye physician) will prescribe the proper glasses

TO BE CERTAIN that his orders will be carefully followed. bring his prescription to us.

WE SPECIALIZE In filling

oculist's prescriptions, fitting good glasses that meen better

MEDICAL ARTS BEES. 277 Almoster H. A. C. Bran 20 - WARM !

Liturgical Arts

A QUARTERLY DEVOTED TO THE ARTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Surety you must know some period or sister or seminarish to who Literifical Arts would be an impiration. And it is about as the sequenter, and jet appropriate, a token of your extern as you can find in these lard times. Only two dollars a year for this splendid and beautiful publication fust clip the coupon and send it in.

Last fall the Lineages | Arts decirate a indicate | new years and sixty of America | medical checks arising architects on the creation of Lineages | Linea

LITURGICAL ARTS SOCIETY, INC. 66 East 418d Street New York City

le pour yourself the roll of worse off than a woman without a new fall dress. Elinor's Dress Shop, 527 terior decorator I ston), has the new satins, wools, Start by purchasing one of the new, white sheers and travel crepes at $6.95 and travel crepes at $6.95 and $10.95. Get yours early for you miss sheers and travel crepes at $6.95 and $10.95. Get yours early for you miss delaying. Open evenings. GOOD FOOD is an aim that all eating places strive for but not all at-tain. The Columbus Civic Centre Dining Room however, has lain, lennox china and wood. Room however, has reached and surpassed its goal. Come in for SOME FASHION NOTES: Hem dinner some noon. 4th Floor, Columnia. FOR YOUR NEW fall chapeau, go to the Gene-see Millinery, 170 Gene-see Street (Near Bron-

see prices like these on furniture so fine and so desirable living room suites

159 up *87 up

105 up

get in before the curtain goes down on this sale . . and prices

never again

one may bedroom suites dining room suites

she would rather it came from weis & fisher's the show place of furniture fashion in rochester