Elmira Morning Newspaper Comments Editorially Upon New Bishop of See

Among the expressions of editorial comment upon the advent of Archbishop Mooney into the diocese as Episcopal head of the See of Rochester is the following which was the leading editorial Thursday, October 12, in the Elmira Advertiser, morning newspaper:
FOURTH BISHOP OF ROCHESTER
 Today the episcopacy of the Roman Catholic Church in the Diocese of Rochester, of which Elmira is an important part, passes into the jurisdiction of the Most Reverend Archbishop Edward A. Mooney, D. D., recently appointed by the Holy See and by His Holiness, Pope Pius XI to be fourth Bishop of the important See in Western New York.
 Archbishop Mooney succeeds the late Most Rev. Bishop John Francis O'Hern, D. D., beloved Bishop of Rochester Diocese for the brief span of four years.
 Throughout the diocese today, hearts of Catholics are lifted in union and prayer with the multitude of clergyman, religious men and women and members of the laity gathered in person to witness the impressive event of the installation of the Prelate in his new Bishopric. With His Eminence, Patrick Cardinal Hayes presiding, Bishops, Monsignori, and priests in attendance, the solemn ritual of ancient liturgy will be in evidence in the Episcopal See of Rochester, in St. Patrick's Cathedral, where the Archbishop will be formally inducted into his new office. Accepting him, in compliance with their ancient creed of Catholicism, as a legitimate successor of the Twelve Apostles of the early Church, members of the faith whom Archbishop Mooney will direct, rejoice with him in the privilege conferred upon an ordained son of that Church, honored with apostolic dignity and given the special prerogatives which accrue to the office of Bishop.

Raised to dignity, the new Prelate will be recipient also of grave responsibility. Brought face to face with pagan practices and concepts so prevalent in the world today, the duty of shepherding human souls is a delicate task fraught with incalculable tasks and endless care. The preservation of religiosity in a worldly atmosphere of modern impatient and forgetfulness of deeper principles and holier practices of earlier epochs, even in the history of the United States, is an objective difficult of attainment and challenging to the courage and personal holiness of a religious leader.
 Archbishop Mooney is reputed to be possessed of all these desirable qualities. Erstwhile representative of the Holy See in India and in Japan, an educator both in America and in Rome for many years, a chairman of extraordinary personal piety, of rank diplomatic gifts combined with a simple and genial personality, Rochester's new Catholic Prelate brings to this diocese and to the Catholic citizens of this city a blessing and grace which every serious Elmiran welcomes. With such sincerity, therefore, does Elmira and all its people, the press, and this particular newspaper extend to both Archbishop Mooney and to his flock congratulations and good wishes. May the spiritual reign of this new representative of a great Church in our midst bring greater happiness, deeper peace to the people, and benediction upon this part of our great country and this part of the Empire State.
