Two informative letters describing experiences of Sister Catherine of the Sisters of Charity located at St. Louis Hospital, Nanchang, Kiang-Si, China, have just been received by Miss Margaret Renaud of Blessed Clet Unit of St. Mary's Hospital here. Conditions found by the Sisters in China indicate the great need for cooperation by those at home. The letters are as follows: we can do all things.

I received your very kind letter. It is needless to tell you how very telling me all about the picuic of the happy I am. All day long I am Blessed Clet Unit and the plans the with the poor. The mornings I spend girls are making for the coming sea- at the dispensary here, and after dia-

Mother Mary Columba, sister of the late "Tim" Healy, first Governor General of the Irish Free State, has died in Rome.

She was one of the counsellors of the Mother General of the Dominican Congregation of St. Catherine, of South Africa. Mother Mary Columba was well known throughout South Africa, where she helped to found many convents.

On the eve of her hundredth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Turner of London walked unaided up a flight of 16 stone steps to chapel to return thanks for her long life.

Her pastor, the Rev. Austin Oates. visited her on birthday. The old woman is an inmate of the poorhouse at Kensington. She has been there 40 years

MRS. O'LEARY'S COW

On October 8th and 9th, 1871, the great Chicago fire raged. Three and one half square miles burned, destroyed 17,450 buildings, 200 people lost their lives, and 98,500 were rendered homeless.

Legend has it that the fire started when a Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over an oil lamp in the barn, but this had never been proved. We do know, however, that out of the ruins Chicago built anew and became a great world metropolis a great world metropolis.

At that time, the Rochester Savings Bank was already known as the "Old Bank," having been established forty years before. Throughout its entire history of one hundred and two years, the "Old Bank" has witnessed many such catastrophies, both conomical and physical, in the life of this nation. Each one has meant the rebuilding of the fortunes of many. Auxiliaries 1933 EDITION Compiled by Lt. Chas. H. Mura St. Andrew's Auxiliary No. 282

Ladles Auxiliary, No. 232, Knights Tuesday of St. John, was organized at St. Andrew's parish by Deputy Organizer Otilla Hempel on February 7, 1924 with eight charter members who were: Margaret Hannan, Bertha Richter, Susie Noeth, Emma Schwansky, Lillian Voellinger, Lillian Hengstler, Anna Richter and Augusta Wirley.

The first meeting was held February 18, 1924 at which the following officers were elected: Spiritual Director, Rev. George W. Eckl; President, Mabel McGrath; First Vice-President Anna Schnarr; Second Vice-President, Marie Smith; Secretary, Marie Nier: Financial Secretary. Margaret Hummel: Treasurer, Teresa Stickel Messenger, Caroyn Weingartner; Sentinel, Celia McGee; Guard, Mary Auxiliary No. 232 is not connected with any commandery but it is hoped that through the efforts of the Knights of St. John with the assistance of this auxiliary that a commandery may be organized at St. Andrew's parish.
