Our Lady of Perpetual Help Devotions

"WE OUGHT ALWAYS TO PRAY." (Luke XVIII-1.)

from his presence. Then came the dawn of selfish reason. If he did not grant her judgment she would bother him continuously. Her troublesome pleas would become wears some. So her constancy in asking won the vindication of the evil-done

seem to bring the wisdom of heaven

Key That Releases

to the Feet of Christ: nor should we hours when we feel like praying.

whether or not we are in need or pain

the loneliness of His absence. We Petition is not the only reason for raising up our hearts and souls to

RATES

($3.25 to $5.50

per pergon)

BILLIARD TABLES

God. We can pray without even a ray and not to faint."

By REV. WILLIAM A. DOHERTY, C. 88. R. (This article has been written exclusively for the Catholic Courier, diocesan slipping from our lips. They do not ushaper, by Father, Doherty, Redemptorist priest in charge of the Wednesday mean that we cannot go about our willows at St. Joseph's Church which are conducted each week in honor of Our daily concerns without giving them Ludy of Perpetual Help.)

In the inspired Book we read of a certain judge that feared neither God nor man. For that questionable fortitude, we, of Godfearing habits, do not admire him. This gentleman, however, that govern too many lives; moods happens into our thoughts for only a brief moment and since it that quicken and stacken our efforts: is not his plety that concerns us now we shall not make any comments much as we would like to. To this avenuer of wrongs came a ing arms were unaaviling. Her tears widow who had been subjected to were as the dew beneath the feet of ruled by moods but by reason. some unjust treatment. Her plead- this inhuman judge. He dismissed

Edward Wegman Phone: Gen. 8865 - 465 Chill Ave.

Did You Remember YOURSELF In * Your Will?

remembering God's missionaries for make powerff the greatest you make yearest the greatest beneficiary, energiators of the Society for the Propagation of the Falth, the Holy Father's own laguar for the respect of ALL, mississing at 185,000, workers in the Manaless and merica of the Manaless.

are safer and surer than be-quests by with they bring you a liberal and re-liable income during life and Our Lordh promised hundredfold during My and after death,

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

dety for the Propagation of the Faith mirios choorfully answered by REY, LIBO C. MOONEY Discount Director

Columbus Civic Center 56 Chestnet Street Stone 1492

Now in Season—Delicious

BOCK WURST

ZWEIGLE BROS.

for your Book Wurst Parties

MODERATE

Offering

Single: $4 to $7

Transient: $1,25

$1.50 with Connecting Bath

SWIMMING POOL

HAND BALL COURTS

DELECTABLE sausage made from choice, selected veal and lean pork, strictly fresh egigchives, and imported spices such as cardamom and mace. When ordering

ASK YOUR DEALER OR CALL STONE 6944-6945

214 Joseph Ave. at Kelly St.

'Just Around the Corner from Everything'

Running water in every room—Maid Service

MODERN CONVENIENCES

Available Gratis To Guests

THE place to LIVE

M Civic Centre

born of love-love for God; love for our neighbor; love for ourselves. It in a most effective way of remitting the debts we owe to God-adoration, praise and thanksgiving. By this means too we ask His pardon, and beg Him to condone the sinful guilt and the ensuing punishment. It is the key that releases the treasures of His Divine Goodness and Mercy. Evidently therefore we ought always to pray and not to faint.

Let not these words of Our Divine Redeemer disturb our peace. They do not mean that each moment of the day must find the words of prayer our undivided attention. The Divine Master intended to warn us against the moods that life is heir to; moods moods that brighten and darken our days; moods that raise us aloft and cast us down. Life ought not be

Prayer Increases Grace The power of prayer is its constancy. Who are they that can say: They who always pray. That is not best dressed of them all was a foronly a theory; it is a fact. Union throughout the day seemingly obliviwhen His grace is in our soul, but the state Hilbert to have the however, are pointed especially when they fall from Divine Lips, They fall from Divine Lips, They son for the little parable about the it was to the great joy of all the the grasp of sin-darkened judge and the widow. It was her who cry to Him day and night; and our means have not as yet permitted the lesson of this one be lost, St. "And he spoke size a parable to I say to you that He will quickly rethe construction of new sents or them, that we ought ALWAYS to the prevent of the preven Luke prefaced it with these words: them but because He loves them. They come to Him even in those busy in the confessionals. The number of the confessionals of the confessionals. Always! Hehold the sentinel-word They come to Him even in the busy in the confessionals. The number of that patrols our minds! Guardian of hours when their coming means is busy in the confessionals. The number of our bor, when they know that their our guest-priests (German Dominiown duties, That word forbids the hearts will be dry as the desert sands cans exiled from their own mission). There may be a time for speaking and be unknown to them. They come the six hundred confessions. a time for keeping silence but the nevertheless and they come most eslime for praying is always. Not only pecially where two or three are gathought we to pray when the soul red together in His Name. They know shares a kindred feeling with the an- that Christ will be in their midst, gels and dips itself into the sweet- and that the prayers uttered then ness of their prayerful bliss. Not will be more availing than when only when the tyrant hand of want sione. or sorrow or fear sends us hurtling The custom of the faithful joining together - for prayer - has - always development of this practice is the to have had any universality was the have our motives for prayer always part of the Middle Ages there was Crib. a novena made in preparation for the At midnight there were more than Hotcha! Feast of Chrisimas. This was gen- a thousand people in the church. however it seems that we co our obligations together.

Is Special Devotion form of devotion to Our Mother of

HART'S

GYMNASIUM DINUNG ROOM Table d'Hete and A le Carte Monte la Apparities Variety.

Everybody Saves HART'S COUPONS

PRICE

Society for the Propagation of the Faith

Foreign Missions

Diocese of Rochester, N. Y.

Home Missions DIRECTOR

Stone 1492

Stone 1492 COLUMBUS CIVIC CENTER, 50 Chestnut: Street

daily concerns without giving them FR. HILBERT'S CHOIR BOYS RENDER IN CHINESE THE "ADESTE FIDELIS'

(From "FIELD AFAR")

Father Hilbert, of Rochester, N. Y. the pastor in Siaolok, Kaying Prefecture Apostolic, China, called us from our Chinese books to see the native carpenters at work on the roof of the church. In spite of the freezing wind every one was barefoot, and "I always get what I pray for?" the warmest garment on even the minds. By them Christ tells us what unfailing constancy that overcame faithful, especially those who came we must do and what we must avoid him. And Christ adds these words: in from the outlying districts. Herein order to reach His Kingdom. Lest "And will not God revenge his elect tofore there had not been room for Him often, not that He wearies of noon on the day before Christmas, had to be called to assist in hearing

Brother Augustine took charge of limit our time of prayer only to the been popular in the Church. A later by a small oil lamp. No crib in the is written; the story will be judged Brothers, with accommodations for The time for prayer is always, novena. One of the first that seems tractive than ours, as it stood banked ly it is written. Take some title like or danger; whether or not we feel novena of mourning. We may class Mother was kneering beside the the novena of mourning. We may class fant. Whose arms were outstretched fore January 10. That is when the of preparation, of prayer and other to receive the tiny tots and their par contest closes. Come on now, get indulgenced novenas. In the early ents who came to pray before the busy. If you win first prize, you get eral only in France and Spain. In most of them Catholics, but the pa-all over the country and abroad. Of Christmas sermon, the fruit of many course these columns are concerned hours of hard labor, and it had its form of devotion to Our mother of the form of devotion to Our mother of the perpetual Help, is fast sweeping over the country. Every Wednesday of the year thousands of Her clients throng around Her shrines to offer their constant prayers to God the miraculous. Just consider the though Her Immaculate Hands and to beg of Her the intercession that the Christ cannot refuse. These souls set other hearts assume in order that Center, conducted by Jim Ehmann. Christ cannot refuse. These souls set other hearts affame in order that Center, conducted by Jim Ehmann, cry out to this loving Mother and the entire world may benefit by this for the junior members of the Boys the entire world may benefit by this for the junior members of the Boys the continuous and the continuous set of the Boys the Boys the continuous set of the Boys the continuous set of the Boys the continuous set of the Boys set other hearts aname in order that the entire world may benefit by this for the junior members of the Boys ask Her help for the unemployed and those in financial difficulties; help for those carrying the heavy cross of sickness and pain. Mothers and fathers that are deeply concerned about their children come to Her and ask Her help. Thousand upon thousand come to Her every Wednesday to plead for this help—help in every need and trouble; assistance in the unending fight against sin; help for all in their spiritual and temporal wants. Does She heed these prayers?

There is one undeniable proof that them and they are not at fault. It is merely encouraging to us all to Did you attend the amateur boxknow that Mary has helped a fellow ing matches at Columbus Civic Cenpeing, It gives us the pluck to con- ter? Lose no time in coming. They tinue praying despite the growing are a whirl whind from start to finish, endency to think that our prayer is There seems to be no need for chairs unheard. But remember who it is as most everyone is standing during that says: "I always get what I pray the fights. The one whose prayer is constant; the one who always prays and does not faint." The Wednesday Devotions form a will be on January 27, 1934. The perpetual Novena to Our Mother of location has not yet been picked. Perpetual Help. Begin on any There are two reasons for putting it Wednesday in the year and continue later than the Christmas holidays. for nine consecutive Wednesdays. We would like to have some snow What a splendid manner of praying for the topograms and we want the ALWAYS. When we honor Mary we counselors from St. Bernard's to be honor God Himself. She is the re-present. The Head counselor, Walter flection of His Eternal Beauty-let-Fischer has sent word that all the ting a ray of Heaven shine on the counselors will be there to greet the earth. Up from the earth come the boys and have a grand time. Mark prayers of the faithful. If we send that date on your calendar! them through Mary to God the beauty that is in them when She presents When you go uptown to see old them to the Trinity will capityate Santa and whisper in his ear on Satnese repeating parts of it to other who had not been able to attend Midnight Mass,

At eight o'clock in the morning we had another Solemn Mass, celebrated by our guests according to the Dominican rite. Frs. Down and McCormick took the chanters' posts, and sang those parts of the Mass which the children could not.

At noon we thought of all at Mary knoll, who at that time were only with God is the purpose of our existance out the day seemingly oblivi-lience. That union begins right here out to their scanty protection from thought too, of our Father General the cold. They were almost as anxioxident to cold. all from the altar after High Mass. and we knew that we were included in his thoughts and prayers -- In turn we breathed a praye rfor him, and for all at the Home Knoll.

Their Interests

What and how do you join the decorating the church, and was ably Gran'pa Hezzle Story Contest? - Just Superior General of Maryknoll. assisted by our cook ,who answers to take a piece of paper and a pencil the name of Joe. The day before, and sketch out some adventure of property, a large farm above Lexing-Joe had led a party of schoolboys and old Gramp's. Make it as funny as ton on the banks of the Concord a few elders to the mountains to get possible. Get the family in on it and River was acquired a year ago, and pine trees for the Crib. Even the let each suggest some foolish events, its buildings have been connected Star of Bethlehem was there, lighted Do not worry about how the story into living quarters for students and homeland could have been more at on how funny it is, and not how nice. the Maryknoll priest in charge. in Christmas trees The Virgin this, "Gramp Among the Injuns." Lodge. It is like a beehive, everyone Mother was kneeling beside the In. Then write your story, Send it in be-working and laughing. Airpianes a week at Camp this summer.

one place it was the custom to cele- gans were well represented too. The who Gran'pa Hezzie is, what he looks brate nine votive Masses of Our Lady German Dominicans had sent to one like, etc. Here is his description. just before. Christmas. From that of their parishes for vestments for Hezz' is 234 years old by his last be held Saturday. December 23. time on the novena has become a Solemn Mass, and a Christian had birthday on February 29. He is bent Christmas tree, games, candy, everymost popular way of preparing for walked sixty miles in two days to get over so far by old age that when he thing—so come and join in the fun.

the Feasts of Our Lord, Our Lady them here in time. When Frs. Hil- walks he knocks himself in the chin. and the Saints. In our own day bert. Rhodes, and McCormick, as (To prevent this he usually walks celebrant, deacon, and sub-deacon, backward.) His heard is snow white our efforts to honor God and Mary respectively, entered the sanctuary, and 34 feet long the last time it was our efforts to honor God and Mary superiors, entered the sanctuary, and 34 feet long the last time it was with an appeal for help in our own fifty small Chinese boys began the filled with anti-freeze. This set of meeds: There is certainly nothing familiar "Adeste Fidelis." The whiskers is tensile like a monkey's against combining all the motives of strains were familiar, but the words this and Gramp can do anything with prayer. By doing that we fulfill all were strange, for Father Hilbert had it from buttoning up his raincoat to translated it into Chinese for the threading a needle. Then he talks boys. They sang as if they ap- many languages, is very powerful. Is Special Devotion preciated the difference the Infant very wise, and very very cunning.

At the present time there are Saviour has made in their lives, His full name is Hezekiah Wettaman countless novenas that are in favor. Father Hilbert preached his Snops. That ought to help.

During the last two weeks, both with only one of these, namely those effect on both the Catholics and pa-to Our Mother of Perpetual Help, gans in the congregation. In the Columbian Squires, We wish to con-The nine Wednesdays, as a special morning we heard some of the Chi-gratulate those who were responsible for instituting these new units. When

When and where will Stella Maris have their Powwow this year? It

When you go uptown to see old the Three Divine Persons and our urday afternoon, stop in the Colum-prayers will be cherished and bus Civic Center, come down to the granted. basement and import the Craft

Father Bleier Celebrates Mother's Funeral Mass

Bleler, mother of the Rev. Henry wondrous gift from man to man Bleter, assistant pastor of Holy Famlly Church, were held Wednesday of last week at the home, 1104 Joseph Avenue and at Our Lady of Perherual Help Church.

Solemn requiem Mass was celebrated by Father Bleier assisted by the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell. D.D., deacon, and the Rev. Charles Azzi, subdeacon. Archbishop Mooney, the Rt. Rev. Magr. William M. Hart, V.G. the Rt. Rev. Magr. Joseph P. Schellhorn and 27 other priests of the diocese were in the sanctuary.

Besides Father Bleier she is also survived by seven other sons, Wendell. Joseph. Charles and John of Chicago and Leo. Richard and Ste phen of Rochester; two daughters, and Charles Bleife and Mrs. Joseph Edit; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Czarnowsky, Mrs. Génevleve Schoenrock of Thompsonville, Conn, and Mrs Blankensh of Los Angeles: two brothers, Henry Scherf of Chicago and Albert Scherf of Rochester; 42 grandchildren and three greatgrandchildren.

Legal Aid Given In 583 Cases In Month

ipon to handle a total of 583 cases during the month of November according to the report of Emery A Brownell, Executive Attorney, at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Society held Monday. Of this number, the largest group represented wage claims, foreclosure matters and domestic relation cases. The Society disposed of 320 cases during the month and carried over 263 cases for service during December.

Prelate Blesses Probatorium Bedford, Mass .- (NCWC) - The Maryknoll Probatorium has been formally opened here. His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, was present in person at the formal opening, and, assisted by Bishop James A. Walsh, blessed the chanel and houses. The working and laughing. Airpianes seem to be the rage. Painted book marks are also popular.

Returns must be made for the popularity contest sponsored by the Boys' Department of Columbus Civic Some have shocked us by asking Centre by Saturday. December 16. The prizes for this novel contest-will be awarded at the Christmas party to makes some personal bestowal of himself, of his own strength, his own life, into the weakness and deadness Faneral services for Mrs. Eleanor that he tries to help. It is indeed a

> Hedges & Hoffman FUNERAL DIRECTORS John M. Hedges 141 Scio St. Main 620

Programs, Banquet and Wedding Announcements Printed or Engraved The SIMONDS PRESS

HEAD-MILLER, Inc.

Gen.$14-815 FOOD PRODUCTS OF VALUE Flour-Butter-Crisco Cheese-Eggs Canned Fruits and Vegetables

Art Jewelry Shop LOUIS COWAN, Prop. Glass Frames Repaired Reasonably OLD GOLD BOUGHT

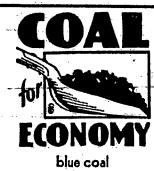

Welers, Engravers, Diamond Set rs, Watch Repairing at reasonabl 227 Granite Bldg., at 136 Wain East Phone Stone 5911 Rochester, N. Y.

MAIN VALET SERVICE Rochester's Best Cleaners

414 Burke Bldg.

Cleaning—Pressing Prices uniform under N.R.A. Code

Our Special: Ties, 10 for $1 Laundry: Shirts, 11c, BVD's, 10c; Sox, per pair, 3c.

R. G. & E. Coke

Ben Meisenzahl 377 Main West

A. J. MATTLE & SON

FUNERAL SERVICE

300 Cumberland St.

Stone 1552

Twas Overheard In Our Store

Jobber's Salesman: "Why do you want to carry these expensive drugs? Buy our line and you'll save money!"

"No, sirree! My customers' health comes first. They demand the very best and I'm going to give it to them!"

The Paine Drug Company Label 1820 24-26 MAIN ST. BAST Rockerter,

1831-Rochetter's Oidest Financial Institution-1933

Give a Gift that Grows GIVE A BANK BOOK

Have you thought of a Savings Account for a Christmas present?

A bank book in Rochester's oldest Bank makes a most attractive

Simply come to either of our offices and open an account in the name of the person for whom your present is intended. You will receive an attractive bank book showing the amount you wish to

Your gift will be a growing one—one that will grow with each addition of dividends (interest); a gift that points the way to

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR A SAVINGS ACCOUNT

Rochester Savings Bank 47 Main St. W.

-Two Offices-40 Franklin St. Open after July 1st, Monday afternoon-For Non Accepts and Deposits Only

Recourses Over $68,000,000.00
HEL-STRENGER AND SECURITY FOR OVER 10 YEARS...

Rochester's Greatest GROCERS