Federations Effect Organization to Run Three Day Bazaar

Permanent chairmen and secretaries of the societies of the nine German parishes affiliated with the Catholic Men's Federation and the Catholic Women's Federation, the local branches of the Catholic General Verein of America and the Catholic Women's Union, respectively, met at the Seneca Hotel recently to perfect plans for the bazaar to be held in St. Michael's Hall, February 1, 2, and 3, 1934.

Representatives of each parish selected the kind of booth they desired, and that booth will be in charge of the societies of that parish. It was directed that a circular letter be sent to each of the 2,500 to 3,000 members in the societies affiliated with the two federations and also two tickets to each member. The price of tickets is the nominal sum of ten cents.

Additional tickets may be secured from any of the secretaries of the societies in the various parishes. Those in attendance at the meeting were encouraged by Frank C. Hehnlein, chairman of the bazaar committee, to use their best efforts to make the bazaar both a financial and social success. Joseph T. Otto and Mary Kios, chairmen, respectively, of the general convention committees of the Men's and Women's Federations also urged the representatives of the various societies to have all their members cooperate by taking part in the bazaar.

Reports from the nine parishes indicate keen interest in every parish in the coming convention of the Catholic Verein of America and of the Catholic Women's Union.

'Puss In Boots' To Be Christmas Attraction At The Little Theatre
Beginning Christmas Day, the Little Theatre will present PUSS IN BOOTS, an elaborate talking, singing, dancing version of the fairyland classic. Originally planned for the entertainment of juveniles, the camera tricks, the melodious tunes and pertinent lyrics, together with an inspired cast, has so delighted adults as well, that it is now offered as outstanding entertainment for the whole family.

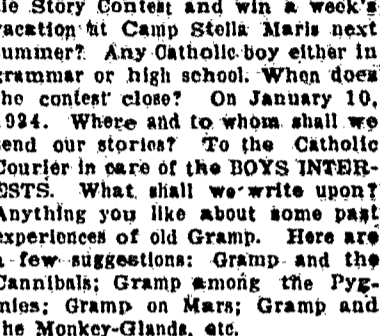

The addition of music and dancing and the inclusion of an ensemble of sixty-five of America's most talented children have served to verify the old story. Fairy tale though it is, because of the clever adaptation, camera work, and acting, it is said that the famous old classic holds more human interest than many a prosaic tale of our own times. The program will be supplemented by appropriate and interesting short subjects.

Mrs. Rita C. McGoldrick, chairman of the Motion Picture Bureau of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae says of "PUSS IN BOOTS": "Far removed from the reality of aerial warfare and the majesty of fleets and navies is the simple and charming little operetta, "PUSS IN BOOTS". It is a dramatization of the favorite fairy-tale, set to music especially written for the production by Nathaniel Shilkret. He has composed a delightfully tuneful score with many catch songs. Parents, teachers, club women and theatre managers do well to recommend it."

Communion Breakfast Attended Jointly By Sodality, Young Men
Two hundred and seventy young people of Saint Andrew's Church attended the first joint Communion breakfast of the Sodality of Our Lady and the Young Men's Club on Sunday, December 17. They received Holy Communion in a body at the 8:30 o'clock Mass, then went to the school hall where breakfast was served. The address was given by The Rev. Benedict Ehmman.

Federation Discusses Opposition To So-Called Child Labor Amendment

The business session of the Catholic Men's Federation at its regular monthly meeting last Sunday afternoon was given over chiefly to reports of the various committees in connection with the coming National Convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America and of the Catholic Women's Union. Chief among these reports was that of the bazaar committee.

Who can enter the Gran-pa Hezlie Story Contest and win a week's vacation at Camp Stella Maris next summer? Any Catholic boy either in grammar or high school. When does the contest close? On January 10, 1934. Where and to whom shall we send our stories? To the Catholic Courier in care of the BOYS INTERESTS. What shall we write upon? Anything you like about some past experiences of old Grandpa. Here are a few suggestions: Grandpa and the Cannibals; Grandpa among the Pygmies; Grandpa on Mars; Grandpa and the Monkey-Glands, etc.

The Aquinas basketball team won their first victory at the expense of Brockport last Saturday night. The passwork was slow and rusty and with the exception of Farrell everyone seemed undecided what to do. Joe dashed around and kept the enemy busy at all times and had the grace and speed of former Aquinas players. An unusual thing was the enthusiasm of the Aquinas rooters; and especially their numbers. It was good to see them and hear their yells. Well, good luck, boys! We hope you have a great success.

The Columbus Civic Center's Boy Club, directed by Captain Ehmman, will have a hilarious Christmas party if we are to judge from the advance notices. There are to be treasure hunts, awarding of badges, giving away of prizes earned in the Popularity Contest, (which by the way was a great success) a story or two by Father Vogt, several acts by the boys, and (what is to the point) they will have some EATS. Come all ye faithful!

The K. of C. Scout Troop, of whom George J. Burt is the Scout Master, held a very successful card party last week to replenish their treasury. The Troop is rapidly rounding into form and hopes before long to be the best Catholic Troop in the city. They have a waiting list of ten or fifteen boys who would like to join the Troop.

Catholic Scouting was much in evidence at the Scouters Banquet last week. At the speakers' table were Messrs. Boylan, Finucane, Hickey, Tom O'Connor and Chief Kavanaugh. Mr. Burns who said the invocation, and Father Lambert, who is the promoter of Catholic Scouting, held prominent places at the table. Scattered through the hall were many Catholic laymen and priests.

Catholic altar-boys and vested choir boys have a little competition. In the civic Christmas concert, last Sunday evening, the combined boys-choirs (vested in cassock and surplice) of two Protestant Churches presented about eighty boys in a very beautiful pageant. They marched through the aisles of the theatre up to the stage where they sang a Christmas hymn. Then led by the cross-bearers, they turned about toward the back of the stage and a curtain was raised showing Mary bending over her Divine Child. Kneeling and with great reverence the boys sang "Holy Night". The boys carried their torches very straight and walked like soldiers. The audience was visibly impressed.

How would you like to be a boy-bishop? In Merrie England there was once a custom to elect a boy upon a popular vote on St. Nicholas' Day to be a boy-bishop until the feast of Holy Innocents. On the feast of St. Nicholas he would dress like a bishop with mitre and crozier, and attended by priests as altar-boys, would sit on the bishop's throne during the Mass. Then he preached a sermon to his congregation and took up a collection which went to him personally. And, during this time while he was obliged to go to school he was not called on for any lessons! Born three hundred years too late!

Notre Dame Men To Hold Formal Party

The annual Christmas formal party of the Rochester Club of Notre Dame and alumni will be held on Hotel Sagamore Roof, Tuesday evening beginning at 9:30 p. m. Music will be furnished by "Doc" Perkins Orchestra of Cleveland featuring Marlene Gilbert.

The student organization is headed by the following officers: President, James H. Gleason of Lima; Vice President, Charles Bragg; Treasurer, John Gillooly; Secretary, D. Bernard Kennedy. Heading the alumni are: President, Ward Schlotzky; Vice President, William Jones; Treasurer, Arthur Curran; and Secretary, Richard Sullivan.

A feature of the party will be the singing of Notre Dame football songs during the intermission.

Rub yellowed piano keys with paraffin, or with a little lemon juice and waiting; then remove it with a damp cloth. It is advisable to close the piano on damp days.

He stated further that as indicated by the resolution adopted at Pittsburgh, the Catholic Central Verein of America is unalterably opposed to child labor. It maintains however that the way to correct the evils of child labor is not through the Federal government, but through an aroused public opinion in the several states. There are few states which have not already ample laws to stamp out the abuses of child labor.

It will be noted that the amendment if ratified gives to Congress the absolute power to prohibit the labor of all persons up to eighteen years of age. That is as stated above an unwarranted and unnecessary arrogating of the rights of parents over their children. It would, as has been well stated by many eminent persons who have opposed ratification, be admitting that the child practically belongs to the state and not to the parents.

There was a general discussion at the conclusion of Judge Donnelly's remarks. Many questions were asked by those present, and much discussion was had.
