

MAGAZINE STORY DRAWS PROTESTS FROM TWO CORNING SOCIETIES

Corning — Two protests against the publication of the story "Three Wise Guys," in Collier's magazine Christmas number have just been sent to the publishers by societies of St. Patrick's Church, here.

Founder of our Faith. Mrs. John Grady, President. Marguerite Madigan, Secretary. And by leaders who attended the meeting, January 3, 1934.

Sisters Hold Family Reunion

Six sisters—sisters in family life and Sisters in the Order of St. Francis—were reunited in Chicago, Ill., recently, upon the occasion of the golden jubilee of the eldest of their number, Sister Adelheid of the staff of St. Alexis Hospital, Cleveland, and formerly stationed at Omaha, Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Memphis.

Clipped For Fun

Fond Mother: "I hope my little darling has been as good as gold all day." "You did?" "Yes!" "I learned to say Yes, sir, and No, sir, and Yes, ma'am and No, ma'am." "You did?" "Yes!"

NEW SEMINARIES IN 1934. The Rev. Dennis J. Bennett, a former pastor who was appointed to the position of rector of St. Ignace Church in 1931, has just completed construction of two new seminaries during the year.

I HAVE MONEY! Perhaps some worthy readers of the Catholic Courier can use a loan of $100 or $200 to tide them over temporary difficulties, and who would be willing and able to repay it to me in small sums each month.

Frederick J. Welch FUNERAL DIRECTOR Phone 2197-W 14 Tuxill Square Auburn, N. Y.

To TEACHERS We Have the Art Materials You Want. Our department of Artists' Materials is kept on a plane of excellence and service which makes for the continual satisfaction of its patrons.

The "Wise Men" of Today are members of a CHRISTMAS CLUB. THE Mechanics Savings Bank invites you to join its 1934 CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB.

AGAINST THESE INSULT IN A MAGAZINE WHICH OFTEN HAS GOOD STORIES AND USEFUL ARTICLES, and surely Collier's does not need to grovel in the vile to please perhaps a few of its ignorant and low minded readers, to hold their subscriptions.

Senate Bill Provides Loans From R.F.C. To Religious Institutions

Washington—(NCWC)—A Bill to authorize the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make loans to aid in the operation and maintenance of institutions for religious instruction and worship was introduced this week by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas.

1,964,710 Communion Is 25-Year Record Of Catholic Boys' School

Baltimore—(NCWC)—A 25-year record of 1,964,710 Holy Communion has been achieved by St. Mary's Industrial School for boys, here, according to figures just released.

Weddings

MAIORONO-CIARELLA. Auburn—Miss Francis Ciarella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ciarella of 107 Van Anden Street, and Alphonse Maiorono, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maiorono of 6 Spring Street, were married last 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning last St. Francis in St. Francis d'Assisi Church.

Ukrainian Choir Will Be Heard Over Station WMBO. Auburn—The Ukrainian Choir of St. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Catholic Church, under the direction of Stephen Hrabar, will present a program of sacred and liturgical music Sunday evening over the local radio station, WMBO.

Auxiliary 43 Members Honor President at Officers Installation

Installation of officers took place at the meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary, Number 43, Knights of St. John of St. Joseph's Church in their club rooms, January 10. The next meeting will be held on Ash Wednesday after Church services.

English Catholic Drama Contest Is Being Held

London.—A Catholic Drama Festival and contest, is being held in Glasgow. It is the first of its kind in the country, and 16 societies are competing for a trophy.

Action and SERVICE Is What You Get from your PARISH NEWSBOY. HE IS an enterprising young business man... anxious to please you. Hence the action AND the service!

Consistent lineage increases unequaled among weeklies here. Because COMPLETE COVERAGE OF THE CATHOLIC PUBLIC AND INSTITUTIONAL MARKET BY A HOME DELIVERED CIRCULATION...

Catholic Courier OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE. The records prove that the Catholic Courier is "the most influential weekly in the Rochester Area".