

A WEEKLY COLUMN of REVIEW and COMMENT CONCERNING OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS
By Scholastic

Pupils of St. Ambrose School were recently honored by the presence of Officer Irish, who, before the assembled school, presented the boys and girls of the Safety Patrol with certificates for working 100 hours, from September to December 31, 1933, on patrol duty. It is the duty of the boys to safely escort the children across the streets, and the girls to keep order in the halls and stairways inside of the school buildings. Officer Irish's keen wit and humor made the meeting interesting and pleasant. He was high in praise of the work done by all the members of the Safety Patrol, but particularly of John Comerford, Charles Maggio and Eileen Kios, who were awarded a special badge in recognition of the excellent work done by them.

The following were awarded certificates: boys, Charles Fos, Captain, John E. Schoenberger, Donald I. Maggio, Donald Heffernan, Joseph J. Smith, James J. Tallie, Joseph J. Kelley, Arthur J. Thomey, John Comerford, girls, Catherine Emrich, Captain, Mary Cimino, Eileen Kios, Jean M. Schiefel, Betty O'Toole, Betty Murray.

Remember your Lenten Resolutions, your little boxes, your daily Mass! How about running errands for Mother without a grumble or doing your homework particularly well during the remainder of the Lenten season?

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith reports the following schools have adopted pagan babies and named them: 6th Grade pupils of St. Andrew's school have adopted Mary Perpetua Bates, a Chinese Baby; pupils of the 4th Grade of St. Andrew's school are proud of their daughter, an Indian Baby. Within a first adoption—James Edward Hommon, pupils of the 5th Grade of St. Mary's School, Auburn, have adopted a second Chinese baby, Joseph Stephen.

Nazareth College, St. Bonaventure's Glee Clubs To Sing

Nazareth College Glee Club will sponsor a College Glee Club Friday evening, April 20, with a concert to be given by the Glee Clubs of St. Bonaventure College, Olean, and Nazareth College. A dance will follow the concert.

The Rev. William P. Ryan, well known lecturer and member of the faculty of St. Bernard's Seminary, will speak to the students on Thursday, March 8, at 1:30 on Catholic Literature. The lecture is intended to further active support of the Catholic Press.

The following books will be reviewed at Literary Club at the monthly supper meeting on March 8: Eugene O'Neill's "Days Without End" by Viola Stoutington; Philip Gibb's "Cross of Peace" by Betty Doyle, and Sinclair Lewis' "Work of Art" by Adelaide Brennan.

Mrs. Amy LaVigne Hutchinson was guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Dramatic Club on Tuesday afternoon, March 6.

The February issue of Verity Fair contains two very interesting editorials, "What is Art?" and "A Modern Pioneer" as well as the usual number of fine reviews, essays, and poems.

A money prize is being offered by the Sodality at the College for the best and most original poster for National Vocational Guidance Week.

Nazareth Academy to Send Thirty-one To Sodality Conference

Thirty-one members of the Junior and Senior classes plan to attend the Western New York Sodality Conference to be held at the Hotel Statler, Buffalo, New York, on March 11. Those who have signed for attendance are Margaret O'Connell, Virginia Downs, Mary Louise Krueger, Margaret Larkin, Margaret Grant, Gertrude Collins, Anne Doyle, Jean Ludlow, Margaret Briggs, Marjorie Chatterton, Coyle, Worthington, Catherine Magee, Dorothy Rice, Dorothy Nash, Dorothy Breslin, Ruth Page, Mary Ruser, Bernadette Welch, Ruth Rayson, Mildred McMaster, Margaret Burgett, Helen Westfall, Veronica Casey, Agnes Mahoney, Marion Schantz, Katherine Hurley, Margaret Hendricks, Sabina Lyons, Julia Gottry.

The Sister of Saint Joseph doll at the Nazareth Academy "Queen's Work" booth at the Catholic Press exhibit was correctly named Sister Mary Daniel by Teresa Leane, a pupil in the sixth grade at St. Peter & Paul's School. The doll was named for the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J., whose writings composed a large part of the Nazareth exhibit.

The Catholic Literature Committee has appointed the following members to provide suitable retreat reading for the Sodality: Mary Keenan, Margaret Worthington, Dorothy Geck, Grace Weisner and Mary Jane Ward.

The "Catholic Courier" will be sold during March and April by Eileen Hayes, Eileen Kelly, Virginia Downs, Madeline Roach, Patricia Latel, Gertrude Buebel, Mary Guncheson, Betty Meagher, Marie Sereb, Betty Gossnell.

The February examination reports show the following leading their classes: Marjorie Anderson, freshman, 99%; Grace Weisner, sophomore, 100%; Elizabeth Kraft, Margaret O'Connell, Shirley Ganger and Dorothy McMahon, juniors, each with 97%; and Margaret Beahon, senior, 99%.

All Sodality members offered their First Friday Communion for President Roosevelt as a part of the Sodality Program of Crusade of Patriotic Prayer. A special Lenten noon-day service was held in the Chapel at each lunch period on Friday. The First Friday Sermon and Benediction were given by The Rev. Robert ox, Diocesan Sodality Union Director.

The annual Senior Play will take place the week of April 16. "Cross Road" is the title of the play selected.

Catholic Daughters Plan For Easter Ball

Waterloo—Annual Easter Ball of Court Theresa, Catholic Daughters of America, will take place Friday evening, April 6, in Odd Fellows Hall. Mrs. Mary L. Durkin, grand regent, has named the following as a committee in charge of the affair:
General chairman, Mrs. Sarah Dunning, assisted by Miss Mary McKeon and Miss Mary Henry; music, Mrs. Emma Moylan and Mrs. Anna Bella McGuan; decorations, Mrs. Madeline Daley and Mrs. Cecilia Smith; tickets, Mrs. Alice Coggins and Mrs. Hazel Fennell; punch, Mrs. Jennie Sexton and Mrs. Nellie Dills; publicity, Miss Cecilia Kennedy and Miss Helena Morran. An orchestra will furnish the music.
Rugged individualism has made a lot of individuals ragged.

BOYS Their Interests

Plans are underway for a Parochial Track Meet to be held some time after Easter. Father John M. Duffy, in charge of the Parochial Schools, has given his consent, and authorities at Columbus Civic Center Building think the plan excellent. Father Gerald C. Lambert, who in the name of the Center, is sponsoring the Meet, has this to say: "We are starting out on a small scale, but we hope that in time the Track Meets will be as popular as the Parochial Baseball League. Wilbur E. Quinn, Physical Director, has offered his cooperation and is even now working upon a program. His expert advice will be closely followed."

Well, boys, here is a chance to make good! Everyone likes to tell of his speed in the sprints or the relay. Get out and practice on these cool afternoons so that when your school enters, you can carry her colors to victory.

"Our school is not in the Parochial Baseball League. We would like to enter. How does one join?" First see the pastor and ask his permission and cooperation. Most are only too anxious to give their boys a good time, and have them enjoy supervised recreation. Then get someone to appeal to the Holy Name Society to buy you uniforms and sponsor the team. Lastly, be sure to get a coach who will teach you and show up for the games. When all is completed, go to Columbus Civic Center Building, and apply for particulars.

"Supposing the pastor does not want us in the League?" In that case you cannot do very much. Having a delegation of prominent men in the parish wait upon the pastor might aid considerably. Always remember the story in the Gospel about the man whogot what he wanted because he kept at it until the other party grew tired. Keep trying.

The Nazis are suppressing the Boy Scouts in Germany because they say that they do not need them. Scouts are perhaps not military enough for them.

Like a comic movie ending, a boxing bout came to an abrupt ending in Toronto the other night when one of the boxers took a terrific wild swing and hit the referee on the jaw. In that case who wins the bout?

Thomas Rigsey of 100 Flint Street won the Grandpa Hezlie Story Contest. Father Benedict C. Ehmman of St. Andrew's Seminary selected the winning story. This means that Thomas will receive a week's vacation at Camp Stella Maris next summer. Pretty lucky, Tom! We hope to print part of the story in this column.

Why are boys afraid of a priest? Many times when they see a priest coming instead of waiting to greet him, someone shouts, "Cheese! the priest!" All scurry away as though they were criminals pursued by officers of the law. People watching them imagine that the priest must be awfully strict or dislikes children. In truth, it is just the opposite. How much more manly it is for the boys to meet their parish priests as friends and trusted confidants, to look them in the eyes and speak as naturally as though speaking to their fathers. The priests are always interested in the boys and love to hear how they are getting along. It is because of this interest and affection that people call the priest "Father".

Out in Dubuque Boy Scouts acted as an honorary escort to Archbishop Beckman when that prelate opened the Catholic Action Convention with a Pontifical High Mass. A Scout announced with his bugle the principal parts of the Mass. Both Sea Scouts and Boy Scouts acted as ushers.

Cardinal Hayes of New York has a special Troop of Scouts who attend him in public processions. They are known as the "Cardinal's Own". They are a crack Troop picked from all the Catholic Troops in New York on a system of merit. What an honor to belong to this Troop!

St. Aloysius Five Winners First Half Title Auburn Loop

By PAUL W. FINCKNEY
Auburn—Surprising event their most ardent supporters, the St. Aloysius Church basketballers today wear the crown symbolic of the first half championship in the Catholic Church Basketball League as a result of their unexpected 29-11 victory over the St. Francis d'Assisi Church quint last Thursday night at the St. Anthony Recreation Hall court in Water Street.

Until a week ago, the St. Francis team had waded through all opposition, including St. Aloysius, to hold the top position in the loop. But the under-rated St. Mary's aggression flashed an improved form to edge out the leaders by one point. This setback forced St. Francis into a deadlock with St. Aloysius.

Billy Jones, former Auburn High School running guard, playing a similar position for St. Aloysius, captured high scoring honors in the deciding game with eight points. F. Newcomb and R. Muldoon added six points apiece, Hallie led the losers with four counts.

Officials of the league announced that the games during the second half of the race, due to the limited capacity of St. Anthony Hall, will be contested elsewhere, the place to be announced later.

Final standings for the first half follow:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Aloysius	5	1	.833
St. Francis	4	2	.666
St. Hyacinth's	3	2	.600
St. Mary's	2	3	.400
St. Alphonsus	1	4	.200
SS. Peter-Paul	1	4	.200

Holy Family and Auburn Senior High Fives Even Series

Auburn—Basketball fans of Auburn and Cayuga County today looked forward with eager anticipation to the third meeting of the two local scholastic teams, Holy Family Parochial High School of the New York Pennsylvania League and Auburn Senior High School, after the Marcous had opened the series last Friday afternoon by scoring a 14-12 victory over the Senior High court in Franklin Street.

Victorious in the initial engagement on the Army court by a score of 17-16 earlier in the season, the clever cagers of Coach Joseph Curtin ended a very brilliant season. It is likely that the third contest will be played for the benefit of some charitable purpose. With only a minute to play, Jerome (Braid) Holland, Senior High pivotman, picked the ball off the backboard and easily dropped in through the meshes for the winning two points. The winners hold a three point advantage at half time.

The lineup: Holy Family—Lode, V. Leide, Muldoon, Kelly, A. Leide, Cahill and Impagliazi; Senior High—Barron, Philpott, Holland, Giltner and Kemp.

St. Mary's Boys Orphan Asylum Court Team In 14th Consecutive Win

Under the brilliant coaching of Paul Brodca, the St. Mary's boys captured their 14th consecutive basketball victory when they defeated the score of 18 to 11 Our Lady of Sorrows quintet last Friday night on the Stars court. The Stars trailed at the half by the score of 11 to 13. At the out of the third period the score stood 16 to 24 O. L. O. S. leading. In the last period the Stars broke loose with a volley of baskets to send them in front by a wide margin. Walter and Vallington each scored 12 points. The Stars hope to continue their winning streak next Friday when they tackle Nazareth Hall on the former's court. Both teams show good records, the Stars having won 14 games and losing none, Nazareth winning 11 and losing none.

With a total of 484 points to date, the Stars are making a drive to break the record of 713 points which was made during the season of 1931. Their opponents have scored 202 points for the present season. Among the teams defeated were the following parochial schools: St. Gabriel, two games, Holy Rosary, St. Michaels, and Our Lady of Sorrows. Captain Waters center leads the St. Mary's squad with a grand total of 143 points and eight Guard Lavette Vallington trails with 111 points.

The Stars are looking forward to a good basketball season and hope to make it equal their basketball season of 1934.

MILK
The FOOD for BEAUTY
What Every Woman Knows
BEAUTY WITHOUT health is improbable. And health without the vital food elements contained in milk is impossible. Every mother knows that pure milk must be a large part of her children's diet if they are to glow with the beauty of perfect health. And every woman knows that the healthfulness of milk is an aid to her own beauty.
