> The Ebers deserved to win for they had a better team. But we certainly admired the way the Co. lumbians fought. Especially, Barrett and Rip Riley. The great improvement was the free way in which, Mac let them shoot. In the second game they played too cautiously. You have to meet fire with fire. If the other team gets 'hot' and makes them from all angles, the only thing left is to take chances and shoot every chance you get. If you miss it does not matter because you will only lose anyway unless you make many baskets. And you cannot make baskets unless you shoot,

Some good basketball games ought to be forthcoming in the Catholic Tournament which is being arranged for by the Aljes. We wish them luck.
