BOYS
Their Interests

Enthusiasm for the Parochial Track and Swim Meet is growing. Many names are pouring in to the office of Columbus Civic Center Building from different schools all anxious that they shall cop the coveted pennant. To insure every boy getting a fair chance, classes have been arranged according to weight, and in each class a bronze medal will be given to the boy making the best record. A large pennant somewhat similar to the Baseball Pennant will be given to the school garnering the most points.

Some parishes are only entering one section of the meet, either the swim or the track. That is perfectly proper. After all as long as the boys have a good time and learn something useful, the meet is a success. And it is very possible that one parish might amass enough points in track alone to carry the meet and win the pennant.

Crack! "It's a homer! Hurray!" Again the smiling skies and the warm sun remind us that the baseball season is here. And that brings the Parochial Baseball League under focus. Get ready, boys! The League opens the first week in May. This is a special warning to go out and practice, you know those rat games are awfully important. Losing them might mean losing the pennant. And get your pitchers in shape. Let them warm up every day. But don't throw out that arm!

Scouting News: The Red Jacket Troop of Dansville defeated the Crusaders of St. Boniface after a close fight. The meet was well attended and a note of enthusiasm was struck when Father Rauber of Dansville suggested that this was the beginning of competition between the Catholic Scout Troops of the diocese. A group of 50 Scoutmasters are being trained by the K. of C. to aid Catholic Scout interests. The last three classes will be conducted by priests who will inculcate Catholic principles in Scouting. Columbian Squires in Elmira are successful acting as assistant scout masters to many of the Catholic Troops in Elmira and vicinity. Sacred Heart Troop is surging ahead with leaps and bounds and hopes to meet the Troops from St. Boniface and the K. of C. Troop next autumn. In competitive meets in Chicago recently 4,000 Catholic Scouts made a rereast and received Holy Communion in a body. One hundred priests heard their confessions. Bishop Sheid, Auxiliary, says that he wants ninety per cent of Catholic boys in Chicago in the Scout movement.

Camp Stella Maris announces that it will have the same counselor staff as last summer with two or three additions. A specialty is being made of the ability of each to pitch a tent and cook his own food on the overnight hike. The Camp trucks will seek the wildest spots in the lake regions to give everyone an opportunity of seeing nature at its wildest. Ghosts of Indians are guaranteed to appear at midnight.

Auburn Columbian Squires led by Father Straub came to Rochester last week to be entertained by the local Circle Athletic games, and a joint meeting followed by "eats" provided loads of fun. A harmonious feeling was established between the two Circles. Father Straub praised the Squires and urged them to develop themselves spiritually and physically. Auburn won a hotly-contested basketball game.

The following members of the freshman class are in charge of the various projects for the scientific exhibits to be held in biology laboratory the week of April 24: Marie Serou, Rita Hoopli, Rosemary McCarthy, Rosalie Carapezza, Mary Baynes and Jeanne Kinchler.

Demonstration of New Education Phase Takes Place At Sacred Heart Academy

Children of the Pre-School Department of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Prince Street, presented an unusual entertainment and valuable demonstration of the newest phase of education at the April meeting of the Parent Association held Monday, April 9, in the Academy Auditorium.

This Department, open to boys and girls between the ages of three and six years, is a pioneer movement in education conducted by the Religious of the Sacred Heart; it was added to the curricula of the Academy here as an innovation last September under the direction of Mother Brown and Miss Mary Dowd. Moving pictures taken of the Pre-School classes at the Rochester Convent have been in demand by many of the Sacred Heart Convents throughout the United States. Because of the success of the Pre-School Department here, other Sacred Heart houses are making arrangements to include it in their course of studies.

Opening the program last week, Auburn Squires Win Over Rochester Is Fourth in Five Days
