Getting Acquainted
MORE AND more people realize the wisdom of foresight in planning for the inevitable need for the funeral director's services. Many families not only select the director who is to serve when the occasion arises, but also make definite arrangements for the services which he is to render.
PREARRANGEMENT of funerals is no longer unusual. Nor does this fact indicate any morbidity. On the contrary, those who make such arrangements exercise sound judgment. Carefully and thoughtfully they plan ahead for the emergency of death, shielding those who remain from unnecessarily worry and confusion at a trying time.
CONSIDER the advantages of prearranged funeral plans:
and you too will be convinced that now is not too soon to think about a problem that must be met, soon or late.
Then select your funeral director on the basis of his professional training and reputation.
BECOME ACQUAINTED with him. Know at first hand about the valuable services which he renders. You will be repaid many times over in peace of mind, in confidence that the unexpected is prepared for, and in the sense of security that comes from removing all uncertainty.

FR. STAUDER RECOMMENDS COMING NATIONAL HOLY NAME PILGRIMAGE

Announcement has been received from the National headquarters of the Holy Name Society that the national Holy Name pilgrimage of 1934 will be made in the SS. Champlain of the French line, sailing from New York on July 15 and returning on the SS. Lafayette of the same line on August 23, under the personal leadership of the Rev. Thomas F. Conlon, O. P. National Director, Holy Name Societies. The Holy Name Society, with a membership of 2,000,000 men, is composed of 14 archdiocesan unions, and 3,497 parochial branches.
"The National Holy Name pilgrimage of 1934 is an opportune and highly commendable way 'seeing Rome, the Oberammergau Passion Play and the famous Shrine of Lourdes,' the Rev. F. William Stauder, M. R., director of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, told the CATHOLIC COURIER, this week. "If it is at all possible," Father Stauder stated, "I personally intend to avail myself of this splendid opportunity of visiting the highlights of Catholicism in Europe, as a member of the Holy Name pilgrimage, which is under the direction of our National Director, Father Conlon."
"With several Dominican Fathers and many Holy Name Directors from all over the country accompanying this Catholic party, the pilgrimage promises to be outstanding and thorough in its tour, supplemented by special privileges which will, no doubt, be granted to the noted members of the Dominican Order who are making the arrangements. I strongly urge all Holy Name men of the diocese wherever possible to plan to become members of the 1934 Holy Name pilgrimage." The itinerary for the tour includes visits to France, Italy, Germany and

Competent Lecturer Will Start Gardening Talks This Friday

Arrangements have been completed for the first lecture to be given by Mr. Schuyler Arnold, garden expert and secretary of Joseph Harris Company, Seed Growers, Friday evening of this week in Columbus Civic Center Building to which men, women and children are invited. There will be no charge for admission to any of a series of six lectures.
Mr. Arnold will lecture on "How to Lay Out the Garden and Lawn" and will explain details of a contact based on "before and after" comparisons of diagrams of garden layouts submitted by those who attend the lectures. Persons attending will be given souvenir notebooks for making memorandums with the compliments of the CATHOLIC COURIER sponsoring the lectures. The lectures will be devoted to 45-minute talks with 15 minutes of questions and answers.
The lecturer is qualified by a life time spent in horticultural pursuits to give a comprehensive idea of better gardening. He started with Henry A. Dreer, famous seed grower, in Philadelphia and spent several years with James Vick's Sons. For fifteen years he has been in his present connection with Joseph Harris Co., Coldwater, as secretary and superintendent of operation. Because of his extensive work in seed and flower business he has become widely known to garden clubs and horticulturists and as a member of the American Society of Ornamental Florists and Horticulturists, the organization that sponsored the recent National Flower Show in Rochester.
Mr. Arnold stresses the importance of these lectures for men who do their own gardening.

HEINDL TEAM TO BOWL
