Encyclicals and Convention To Be Federation Topics

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Men's Federation will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in St. Joseph's Hall.

Final plans for the coming convention of the Catholic Central Verein of America and of the Catholic Women's Union will be checked and where necessary put in final form. Reports of the various convention committees will be received.

The attendance at the joint meeting in April of the Men's and the Women's Federations, of John Elbeck president of the Catholic Central Verein; of Dr. A. G. Maron, president of the New York State Branch, and of Mr. Mary Lohr, president of the Catholic Women's Union, and the addresses made by them have added to the enthusiasm of the local Federations in their preparations for the national conventions which will be held in Rochester, August 17-22. Their suggestions will be discussed Sunday.

The Men's Federation will also give over much of its time at this meeting to a review of the great Encyclicals on Labor of Pope Leo XIII, and of Pope Pius XI. Both of these Encyclicals were issued in the month of May, and the Federation deems it fitting at this time to bring their contents to the attention of the members. A general discussion will take place.

The attention of the delegates will be called to the card party to be given by the Catholic Women's Federation in Holy Redeemer Hall, Clifford Avenue near Hudson Avenue, Wednesday evening, May 23. The card party is in charge of Mrs. Frank Lill as chairman and is for the benefit of the convention fund.

The third advertisement in a series to promote public knowledge of the funeral director's service

Worthy of Your Full Confidence and Respect

THE FUNERAL director practices an honorable profession, and one that is indispensable to the community. The superior qualifications which he must possess are appreciated to the fullest extent only by those whom he has served.

IN PREPARATION for his profession, the modern funeral director must pass through an exacting course of training. Only those can qualify for a license from New York authorities. And thus his status is similar to that of the lawyer, doctor, or other licensed professional man.

IN PERFORMING his professional duties, the funeral director must have intelligence, poise, and real ability to serve sorrowing people, from every walk of life. He must be a professional and business man. In rendering well highly specialized personal service, he has made his calling worthy of your respect and confidence.

Introducing THE BUFFET

The New Main Floor Restaurant

On the Main Floor, near the Service Bureau, you will find yourself facing a new, modernistic Candy Shop, of glass and chromium, flanking an archway of apple-green. Beyond this unique setting is as cozy and colorful a restaurant as ever greeted Rochester.

You will find it a little gem; perfect in every detail, harmoniously decorated, strikingly arranged, uniquely planned. However, The Buffet is not pretentious, but rather an informal, convenient eating place; distinctive in setting and with some appointments which you will find nowhere else in Rochester.

The Buffet will prove especially handy at noontime when shopping trips or business engagements do not permit more than a limited time for lunch. It affords Fountain Service at all times as well as special table service by the Military Girls from 3 P. M. to 8 P. M.

OPEN FROM 7:30 A. M. TO 8 P. M.

The Buffet is an exceedingly central location for a delicious breakfast, a noon-time lunch, an afternoon soda, a tete-a-tete with your friends, or for eating the evening meal downtown. From 7:30 A. M. to 8 P. M. you will find it hospitable and handy.

Note: The Main Entrance of The Buffet is direct from the Store; near the Service Bureau. There are also 3 entrances on Franklin St.
