

A. J.'s Tux Parlors
73 Clinton Ave. South Specializing in the rental of tuxedos, suits, for day and evening wear.
Main 6764 Open Eve's by Appointment

CABOT'S COLLOPAKES
A NEW IDEA
IN PAINTS
Cabot's patented process prevents fading, peeling, cracking, and blistering. The tint and pigment do not separate.
"PROVE IT WITH A BRUSH"
SUSKIND'S
PAINTS - WINDOW SHADES
WALLPAPER
148 STATE ST. - 207
MAIN 7001 - 8 JOSEPH AVE.
MAIN 211

SHEET MUSIC — METHODS
ORCHESTRATIONS
MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. A Large Stock of EXPERTLY REPAIRED. New & Reconditioned
Musical Instruments
Always On Hand
WALKER and ADAMS
Music House
79 CLINTON AVE. SO. STONE 2145

A New Interest Period
Begins June First
Deposits to interest accounts made on or before June 4th earn interest as of the First UNION TRUST COMPANY
Nine Convenient Offices
ROCHESTER

That Top-Rating Taste!
YOU want to taste Teal's Triple Treat
Quart Brick Ice Cream for a Quarter.
That vanilla is not ordinary vanilla... it is made from the fresh, ground vanilla bean.
With Tutti-Frutti and Pineapple Ice Creams
it surely is a TRIPLE treat. Serve it tonight for dinner.
QUART BRICK 25c
AT TEAL'S STORES ONLY
Teal's

Blessed Sacrament Girl Wins Mercy High Scholarship
The annual scholarship exam, held Saturday, May 26, at Mercy was won by Frances Claire O'Reilly, a pupil of Blessed Sacrament School, with an average of 99.2-3 per cent. The winning of this scholarship entitles her to four years of high school education with free tuition.
The scholarship winners in the school are: Senior, Mary Elizabeth Logan, St. Ambrose School; Junior, Alice Daly, St. Monica School; Sophomore, Ariene Lochner, St. Andrew's School, and Freshman, Elizabeth Green, St. Ambrose School.

CRUSADE AGAINST MOVIES
Raleigh, N. C., (NOWC)—Catholic laymen of the diocese were summoned to a crusade against salaciousness, particularly evident in motion pictures, by the Most Rev. William J. Hays, Bishop of Raleigh, in a pastoral letter which outlines as a plan of action the formation of "Christian Morality Committees" in the various parishes. These committees would advise with their pastors and protest or commend pictures shown.

Fr. Hepner Death Recalls Conversion In Rochester, 1899

Stricken when about to don vestments for Benediction at the Redemptorist College, Northeast, Pa., the Rev. Martin G. Hepner, C.S.S.R., who in his youth was a convert from Judaism and was received into the Catholic Church by Father J. Sattig, Redemptorist priest then stationed at St. Joseph's Church, here, died May 21 and was buried at Northeast, Pa., on May 24.
Father Hepner who was an outstanding professor in the Redemptorist Order and who attained national fame as a apirist, was born in Breslau, Germany, the eldest son of Jewish parents, who were of the tribe of Levi. His great-grandfather was Rabbi Guttmacher, the grandrabi of Gratz in Austria. In his early childhood, Father Hepner is said to have felt himself attracted to the Christian Faith.
The person of Christ Crucified especially seemed to attract him and he loved to dwell with preference on the inscription on the Cross, "Jesus of Nazareth King of the Jews." Extensive reading of the "History of the Jews" by Graetz, only served to increase his desire to know more of the reasons for the destruction of Jerusalem and the Holy Temple, and the peculiar fate of the Chosen People.
Deciding to become a Catholic, he was advised to wait until he became of age. However, he risked all told his father's intentions. Result besides other punishments, consisted in thwarting his career. He was removed from college and forced to enter the commercial world.
Despite strict surveillance, he managed to correspond with Catholic friends in Rochester and came here at the age of 21 where relatives of his mother were living. Following long and careful instruction by Father Sattig of the Redemptorists, he was baptized and received into the Church on May 27, 1899.
Requesting admittance into the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer and to become a priest to help carry on the work of saving souls, he was admitted, September, 1900, and ordained eight years later. In 1893 he celebrated his silver jubilee as a priest.
His brother, George Hepner, who followed him to America and now lives on Long Island, became a Catholic at did several relatives.
Father Hepner is mourned by the many here who remember him when in Rochester.

Auburn Wins Theatre Contest; Audience For Nazareth Club

Auburn Little Theater Players, presenting "Smokescreen," were judged winner in the one-act play contest with Nazareth College Dramatic Club, Rochester group, and Ithaca's Aegeo Dramatic Club given at Immaculate Conception Auditorium, May 23, before an audience of 460.
Among the interested spectators was the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney, Bishop of Rochester. First choice of the audience was given to Nazareth College Dramatic Club for "Gloria Mundi," with the following cast: The Misses Doris Weber, Jean Reynolds, Zella Lyons, Eileen Burns, Clete Lockner and Cameron Switzer.
Decision of the judges, given five minutes after the curtain fell, was announced by Mrs. Army Hutchinson, director of the Rochester Catholic Theater Guild. The judges were: George David, chairman, Democrat and Chronicle; Miss Amy H. Crough-ton, Times-Union; and Miss Mary Gilmore, Rochester Journal. Laurels for individual performances went to Auburn players, Miss Helen Beardsley, as Kate Luce in "Smokescreen," and Luke White, who impersonated "Smoke" Briggs. Edward Hubbard, member of the Auburn Club, was effectively cast as Jack Burns.
Final tabulation of the contest performances given in Auburn and Rochester are as follows: Auburn Little Theater Players, "Smokescreen," 91 per cent; Nazareth College Dramatic Club, "Gloria Mundi," 86.2-3 per cent; and Ithaca's Aegeo Dramatic Club, "Sons of the Soil," 61 1/2 per cent.

B. O'REILLY'S SONS
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
for nearly 30 years
100 STATE ST. MAIN 104

Do your shingle roofs and sidewalls show their age?
Renew their beauty with

CREO-DIP
FRASCO
STAINS
Essentially the same stain that is used on granite, Creo-Dip Stain-Resistant Restores the color of your granite and other stone surfaces. And it leaves soft, lovely, color-fast surfaces.
Barnard, Porter
& Remington
211 1/2 NORTH WATER ST.
MAIN 200

Holy Name Rally Lay Speaker To Be Judge Cohalan of New York

Former Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Cohalan, outstanding Catholic layman of New York City will be the principal lay speaker at the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union rally at Dunn Baseball Field, in Elmira, Sunday June 17, it was announced Monday night by President of the Union, B. Edward Shlesinger at a special meeting of the Rochester Section of the Union. Word of Judge Cohalan's acceptance to speak was received from the Elmira committee on arrangements, Monday.
Daniel F. Cohalan was born in Middletown, Orange County in the early 70s. He was graduated from Manhattan College, admitted to the Bar in the State of New York and in 1911 was appointed to the Supreme Court bench of that State, to which office he was elected at the following election and served as justice of that court for over 12 years, at which time he resigned to resume the practice of law.
He is a member of an illustrious family of Irish Catholics and has had relatives prominent in the Jesuit and Franciscan Orders and many of the older and present generations among the secular clergy. Four of his sisters-in-law were nuns, one of the Order of Mercy who died recently in Wicklow, Ireland, the other three being members of the Order of the Daughters of Notre Dame, one in Spain, one in St. Calud, Paris and one at Tollington Park, London.
He is the father of a large family, six of whom survive. His daughter Aileen is a member of the Sacred Heart and is now located at Noroton, Conn. His third son, Patrick J., is a Jesuit novice at Wernersville, Pa. His two oldest sons, Conn and Daniel F., Jr., are graduates of Holy Cross College and are engaged in the practice of law with their father in New York. His youngest son, Florence D., graduated from Georgetown University, took his masters degree at Catholic University and is now taking his Ph. D. at Harvard University. His other daughter, Miss Kathleen is a graduate of Sacred Heart College of Manhattanville.
Judge Cohalan has always been interested and actively engaged in Catholic affairs. He is the oldest trustee in point of service of Manhattan College, his alma mater, and has been a militant worker in numerous Catholic lay activities all during his life. He bears an excellent reputation as an orator in and about New York City.
Arrangements for the rally are in charge of the Elmira Deanery of which Clarence H. Kennedy is president and the Rev. D. A. McCarthy, assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul Church, Elmira is spiritual director. Temporary stands will be erected to accommodate 6,000.
Services beginning at 7:15 will be broadcast over Station WESG. A nationally prominent clergyman will be on the program with Judge Cohalan and the services will close with the solemn Benediction given by Archbishop Mooney, Bishop of Rochester diocese. The candlelight service will again take place.
President Shlesinger reported this week that more than 1000 will go from the Rochester deanery. More than 700 candles have already been ordered. Arrangements will be made to meet at a given point in Elmira and march in a body to the field, St. Anthony's Elmira Band will furnish the music.

DANIEL F. COHALAN

VICTOR C. D'PREZ
CENTRAL TRAVEL BUREAU
POWERS BLDG. 19 STATE ST.
ROCHESTER, N. Y.
Official Agents for Rochester Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes, Rome, Oberammergau

1831—Rochester's Oldest Financial Institution—1934 Money Deposited
on or before
Monday, June 4th, will receive dividends (interest)
from June 1st.
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR A SAVINGS ACCOUNT
Rochester Savings Bank
47 Main St. W. —Two Offices— 40 Franklin St.
Banking Hours: 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.
Saturdays: 9 A. M. to 12 M.
Resources Over $68,000,000.00
181—STRENGTH AND SECURITY FOR OVER 100 YEARS—1893

For Graduation and summer's good times
Silbury Combination
This ensemble consists of four pieces, from which you can assemble a strictly Graduation outfit or a smart sport ensemble for dances and other summer affairs. The coat, vest and trousers are of blue cheviot; and there is an extra pair of white slacks of washable, sanfordized, super-shrink "Flano." Sizes 14 to 22.
13.95
Flannel Sport Coats 7.95
Grey or Tan Flannel Slacks 3.95 and 4.95
White Duck Trousers 1.59
Sleeveless Sweaters 98c
BOYLAND, SECOND FLOOR
Clothes for Warm Weather and Vacation
Summer days are almost here. Children's Shop is ready with cunning clothes which tiny girls will enjoy wearing from now until Autumn.
Sheer Blouses 98c
Blouses of smocked dimity, and pique voile styles with shirring encircling the arms and puffed sleeves; lovely little breeze-catchers. Sizes 4 to 6.
Tubbable Skirts 98c
Pleated skirts of plaid gingham; others of plain blue broadcloth. They are all easy to tub and to iron. Sizes 4 to 6.
Flannel Coats $2.95
Even infancy adopts the ardor for sports! For instance, these cunning little swagger coats of fine flannel. Unlined for added coolness. Fire-cracker red, navy blue or white. Sizes 3 to 6.
Flannel Skirts $1.95
Match these little skirts to the coats—or wear contrasting colors. Either combination is equally smart! Perfectly pleated, in a detachable yoke style. Sizes 3 to 6.
CHILDREN'S SECTION, SECOND FLOOR
SIBLEY, LINDSAY & CURR CO.

HARRY L. PARKER
announces the removal of his office to 704-7 Wilder Bldg. Main 1930
"All matters in connection with your insurance will be cared for in my new location. N. B.—I am no longer associated with Parker - Conley Agency, Inc."
WALL PAPER
1¢
SALE!
Hundreds of patterns suitable for any room in the home.
Ten-Day Feature!
When you can buy one roll at our regular price and an additional roll for 1c extra.
ONE ROLL PAPER for ONLY 10c
Or—
2 Rolls 11c
ONE ROLL PAPER for ONLY 15c
Or—
2 Rolls 16c
ONE ROLL PAPER for ONLY 20c
Or—
2 Rolls 25c
Powers Wallpaper & Paint Co.
25 NORTH ST. MAIN 1002
ROCHESTER, N. Y.