AS ONE WOMAN TO ANOTHER

By SUZANNE

HAVE YOU ever felt that many a Mother Nature didn't do just right by "Little Nell"? I have... especially when summer rolls round... the sunlight seems to take delight in showing off those irregular features of mine... so why not do the opposite with Suzanne and see if we can't fix those wrinkles?

FIRST... let's go to Charlotte White's, 222 Cedar Bldg., and find out about removing this superfluous hair on our legs, arms and face. I hear that Charlotte White does it without those dreadful electric needles... insisted she uses filtered oil. Not harmful or painful, but the removal is permanent. Charlotte White offers a free booklet on "Unwanted Hair." We might ask for that, too. Stone 3668.

NOW TO MEANDER down to Teresa's Beauty Shoppe, 314 Burke Bldg., and have the top knot fixed... with one of Teresa's permanent. Since Teresa was the first to have the "Wella Permanent Waves" she ought to know just the proper treatment. Teresa also offers three other waves... but let's talk it over with her, she will suggest just the right wave for our type. Individuality is our aim, always... can't have beauty. Stone 4551.

HATH HATH! When you go for a hat? Suzanne's are featuring Mid-Summer hats in plique for $1.25... so when they are sold you don't feel that you've lost a fortune. Suzanne's also have other sport hats at $1.25, large and small sizes. In white and pastel colors. They are located at 64 Roslyn Street, just off Genesee St.

SUZANNE WAS talking me about her experience at Laura's furniture store. After viewing several of the exceptional pieces of furniture... Edith walked up to her and said bluntly asked when she intended to marry... after a bit of stammering Suzanne answered "why not yet, not for a long time." Mr. K's only reply was "Too bad, because we have just the bedroom suite for you... a 3-piece classic modern in bone-white for only $69.00." Maybe with due consideration Suzanne might reconsider this marriage proposition... as Laura's might not always have a bargain like this. Laura's at the sign of the Grandfather's clock, 50 State Street.

MASSAGE LADY LUCK must be yielding her way with us... because we are headed for Swedish Institute of Massage where fabby figures are made firm and beautiful. No more overweight because the Swedish Massage will see to it that not an ounce remains. And you must remember to tell friend husband that Swedish Institute of Massage, 423 Case Bldg., 52 St. Paul St., has special rooms for men. And to make an appointment... Main 5822.

SINCE WE have the figure reduced, Suzanne sees no point in letting it lapse into the state it was before... so she suggests that we make appointments for regular riding lessons at Robert's Riding Academy, Burnside Bldg., 1011 1/2 St. Paul St., to keep the muscles in good condition. These riding lessons are $1.00 per week... will bring us more detailed information.

GOLF OFF... almost forgot... Tom asked me if I would like to go to the D. Morgan Richards on 52nd and see about... I said I would like to go... but I don't know anything about golf... I would like to go... but I don't know anything about golf... I would like to go... but I don't know anything about golf...

home-made candy? It is luscious... simply melts in your mouth. YOU HAVE never had one like it... a Pine Tree Food Shoppe orange or lemon cake and the best part of it is... the cakes are on the special this week 35c. The Pine Tree Food Shoppe, are to the rescue again... a hot weather special... salads on order, potato, cabbage, macaroni and chicken... phone your order in, the salad will be ready when you get there. Pine Tree Food Shoppe, 470 Court Street.

DRESSES DIDN'T YOU like those little plique frocks we tried on at Elinor's Dress Shoppe, 627 Chilli Avenue? And those washable pastel dresses were the temptation of the day. I know I was hasty in taking this chiffon evening dress... but I just had to have something for that dance Saturday night, and it is a love of a dress.

GENUINE antiques are hard to get... that is why we recommend the Little Brown Jug, 315 Driving Park Avenue. There you will find antiques of all kinds and descriptions. Everything from tip-top tables to queer little bits of glass ware that will simply fascinate a lover of true antiques. The Little Brown Jug is open each evening until 8:00 o'clock.

GRIFFIN'S HATS are an amazing factor to all who have seen them. Such beautiful hats for so little money. Hats in every head size... with so many styles to choose from. Large brimmed hats in novelty bright and felt for evening wear... all colors. Griffin's Hat Shoppe, 154 Sherman Street, off Lyell Ave., Glen 4070.

JENNIE'S AUNT what shall I get friend husband for AND NOW THAT I've shopped all day... I know... I'll stop at Aunt Jennie's. Bake Shoppe, 516 Monroe Avenue, and get some of their ice cold salad. What shall it be... potato, cabbage or macaroni salad? The specials this weekend are chicken and turna fish salad, aren't they? Maybe I'd better call and put my order in for chicken salad before it is all gone. What is the number... Oh yes... Monroe 6065.

LET'S STOP shopping and go to Edith Ellis Shoppe, 88 East Avenue, and enjoy the cool restful atmosphere. While we sip iced tea and nibble on cookies... but if you're really hungry Edith Ellis does have delicious sandwiches and at noon they serve a tasty luncheon. And, by the way, have you ever had any of Edith Ellis'...

EXCERPTS FROM OUR NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FOR JUNE: Are we all gardeners in the work of the Lay Apostolate? Far from the centers of multiple social activity where life is somewhat barren of the cultural beauties of the faith, and where the struggle for existence might conceivably blot out the craving for such beauty, there even the lay apostolate fosters in tiny sparks of life. But in the crowded centers where life is crammed with many things, the pagan, the evil, and the good, there does the lay apostolate unite to give a proper place to the riches of our faith, "to carry the mind of the Church into the mind of the world." And when the Beloved Master walks lonely in His garden at the twilight and the purple shadows of the Cross deepen about Him, and He sees again before Him the black and barren Hill of Calvary, then may there blossom at His feet deep red roses of faith and waxen lilies of devotion, planted by you and nurtured by you at the cost of time and sacrifice. May we hear His gentle voice, "My sacrifice was not in vain, for these, the least of My children have so treasured the gift of faith which I have labored through the days and weeks and months to know it, to understand it, and to feel that they may better share it with their less fortunate fellow-men." —Anne Sarahon Hooley.

The March issue of the N. C. C. W. Monthly Message to Affiliated Organizations carried an explanation of the plan and work of the Committee on Organization and Development. In order that satisfactory results may be obtained, it has been found necessary to have as members of this National Committee, diocesan chairmen on organization and development. Each diocesan chairman under the guidance of the diocesan and diocessary presidents, effects a diocessary committee which provides an effective and efficient channeling of the entire diocese. Mrs. Earl R. Reynolds of Chicago

Nazareth Academy The twenty-second volume of the Nazareth Senior Year Book under the new caption, "The Lanthorn," came out on Friday, June 1. The book is bound in blue and gold and contains one hundred forty-four pages. Besides the usual run of class portraits, class activities, and literary matter, the book features the Rochester Centennial in appropriate design and historical articles. It is dedicated to the cherished memory of Rochester's early pioneers. Eight illuminated pages, the work of Mary Katherine Ringan, set forth the foreword, dedication and contents, and make the volume a distinctive and an unusually attractive one. In addition to the personal "write-ups" in which all the members of the class participated, about seventy-five girls are represented in the literary and art work. Elinor Stevens is Editor-in-Chief; Evelyn Slavin, Assistant Editor; Bernadette Welch, Managing Editor; Ruth Walsh, Literary Editor and Leah McHugh, Art Editor. These officers of the board were ably assisted by an advertising and a literary staff.
