MISSIONS IN THIS AND FOREIGN LANDS LIKENED BY FR. CURTIN AT ST. ANDREW'S MISSION DAY MASS

Paying tribute to "the wonderful and astounding growth of the Holy Faith in Western New York under the first bishops of Rochester and Buffalo," the Rev. Joseph Curtin of St. Andrew's Seminary Mission Society, at the Society's Mission Day Mass, Monday, June 4, in St. Patrick's Cathedral, retold the story of missionary activities in this country. Father Curtin in his sermon declared that the missionary work done in the United States by early pioneer priests is the same work that must be done today in the countries of Asia and Africa. "Prayer and vocations to the missionary state, coupled with sufficient financial assistance, will help in bringing the gospel of Christ to those who yearn so ardently for it," said Father Curtin in conclusion.

Celebrate Mass
The Rev. Thomas Brennan, moderator of the Senior and Junior Mission Units of the Catholic Students

Mission Crusade affiliated with St. Andrew's Seminary sang a "Missa Cantata" at 7:30 to open Mission Day with the entire student body present. Retiring officers of the Mission Units served the Mass. Communion Breakfast followed in Cathedral Hall with Fathers Curtin, Brennan, Benedict C. Ehmann and Lawrence Ryan as guests of honor. Joseph Hogan, retiring president of the Senior Unit welcomed the guests and expressed appreciation to Father Curtin. Raymond Shoniker, editor of the "Mission Annual" was heartily thanked by Mr. Hogan and assembled students for untiring efforts in producing the publication.

An extensive athletic program was held following the breakfast in Genesee Valley Park. Officers for the 1934-1935 term were elected at that time as follows:

Officers Named
Senior Unit: President, Raymond Shoniker; Vice-President, Richard Torrey; Secretary, Joseph Egan; Treasurer, Richard Reed. The Junior Unit elected Edward McAniff to conduct their activities for the coming year.

Retiring officers were: President, Joseph Hogan; Vice-President, Raymond Shoniker; Secretary, Paul Wohlrab; Treasurer, James Francis Slattery.

Committees for Mission Day were: Chairman, Joseph Hogan and Raymond Simmons; Refreshments, William Nolan; Tickets, Bart O'Brien; Sports, John Hayes; Program, Raymond Shoniker; Treasurer, James Slattery.

The Rev. George Vogt of the Seminary faculty supervised the athletic program. Prizes were awarded. Priests entertained by the seminarians were: Fathers Curtin, Brennan, Vogt, Geck, Maloney, Fox, Neagle, Feeney, O'Brien and Randall.

Sacred Heart Academy To Award Merit Prizes

Graduation exercises will take place at the 79th annual distribution of Prizes at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Prince Street, Monday, June 11, at 10:30 a. m., with the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward Mooney, Bishop of Rochester, presiding. Program for the occasion will feature the Rochester Centennial Celebration.

Kindness is the overflowing of self upon others.—Father Faber.

Stanley's Pastor, Fr. Joseph Dissett, Mourned By Parish

Stanley — A mournful congregation gathered in St. Theresa's Church, Sunday, following the funeral services Saturday of their beloved pastor, the Rev. Joseph F. Dissett who died Tuesday of last week. At the Mass, Sunday, the Rev. William Muckle, a former Stanley boy and now stationed at St. Michael's Cathedral in Toronto, spoke touching-ly of the life of the beloved pastor, Father Dissett, and urged the members of his congregation to imitate him in their daily lives by practicing charity for which Father Dissett had long been known.

Solemn pontifical Mass of requiem was celebrated Saturday for Father Dissett at the funeral services by Archbishop Edward Mooney, Bishop of Rochester. Present in the sanctuary were: the Most Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, Archbishop of Wilmington; Most Rev. Alexander McDonald, bishop of Toronto, and scores of sorrowing monsignori and priests who had known Father Dissett well.

Archbishop Mooney, following the final blessing paid tribute to Father Dissett, touching on the uncertainty of life and noting that less than a week before he visited Father Dissett's Church and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation. The Rt. Rev. Magr. William M. Hart, vicar general, spoke feelingly of the departed priest whose life had been filled with charitable thoughts and deeds, he said.

Young Priest Will Sing Mass In Clifton Springs

TAKE STEPS TO GUARD AGAINST THE FIRE HAZARD

Fight Fire with Proper FIRE INSURANCE PROTECTION

THE FACTS:

FIRE THREATENS ---EVERYWHERE

THERE may appear to be something remote in precautions which have been taken against the danger of fire, by Governor Herbert H. Lehman in closing the Adirondacks to tourists because of the drought.

That danger also exists in Western New York.

Woodlands hereabouts in which the dead leaves of last Fall remain as tinder to feed destructive fires are a hazard which ought to be understood by anyone who visits them.

Fields that are burned brown from the roadside to far beyond are a menace which the scorching sun has brought to this region on few occasions in previous Junes.

It is a time for care-in-the use of fire.

A lighted match, cigar or cigaret butt thrown in the dry grass might furnish the embers for a fire which would bring greater losses to those now suffering much.

Be careful during the drought, at least.

—Rochester Journal, June 6, 1934.

THE MORAL:

CHECK your fire insurance coverage on your home . . . on the contents of your car . . . on your business property . . . And, to be secure from losses due to unforeseeable events, check your need for other forms of liability insurance.

PROTECT your home . . . your car . . . and your other properties . . . with the proper kinds and amounts of insurance. For service and security, buy standard insurance. One of these reputable firms will be glad to serve you.

CLYDE

By HAROLD NICHOLS
St. John's parish was particularly interested in the reception of first-year nuns by the Sisters of Mercy in impressive ceremonies in the church of St. John the Evangelist, Rochester, Saturday, June 2, as Miss Anna Marie Janto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Janto, was a member of the class of 13 young women.

To Miss Janto went the honor of being the first Clyde girl in several years to be received into the order. She entered the convent last year after graduating from Clyde High School. In the ceremonies Miss Janto took the name of Sister Mary Daniel in honor of her brother Daniel Janto, who is preparing for the priesthood.

Also of interest to several Clyde persons was the reception of Miss Jane Elizabeth Holleran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Holleran of 32 Hazelwood Terrace, Rochester. Miss Holleran has visited here several times before entering the convent. She took the name of Sister Mary Jane.

Among those from Clyde attending the ceremonies and the public reception at the convent in Blossom Road were Mr. and Mrs. Janto; their daughter, Mary; sons, Joseph and John; Antonio Fratangelo, Sisters Mary Anthony and Mary Helena, Mrs. P. H. Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Mahwinney, the Misses Margaret and Therese Holleran, Mary and Gertrude Johnson, Mrs. Cornelius Mangan, Miss Gertrude H. Nichols and Harold Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kelly of Hornell also were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holleran at the reception of their daughter.

THE POST OFFICE

A familiar scene to Rochesterers is the departure of the coaches of the Front of O. Adams & Company. The pilot coach office was opened at Buffalo and Carroll Street (where it is now stands). It was a lively journey was "quite an adventure" in Adams' advertisements of the period. chaise" daily for Avon, one for Lehigh, Albany via Canandaigua, and three to Palmyra and Syracuse, as well as four "through in one day" was the famous Buffalo coach.

During those days the Rochester Savings Bank already started its long career of service to its community. The depositors then, as now, were using this bank to attain financial security.
