merchants of immorality" have mistaken patience for impotence.

"The day of their awakening is at hand and it will be a rude awakening," Cardinal O'Connell declares. "They have shown their contempt for Catholic men and women. They have told us that they would give us filth whether we liked it or not and that we would continue to enrich them by paying for it at their box offices.

"I know our people better than that. I know how they resent contemptuous treatment . . ."

His Eminence makes it clear "that we do not seek to injure or destroy the legitimate business of any man." "This purveying of indecent pictures," he adds at once, "is not a legitimate business but rather an attack upon the souls and a peril to the eternal salvation of millions of our people. Against such an attack we have the right, nay, the obligation, to use the sharpest weapon at our command."

Bishop-Elect O'Gara Formerly Professor Of Jersey Monastery

Union City, N. J.—(NCWC)—The Rt. Rev. Cuthbert O'Gara, C.P., word of whose appointment as Vicar Apostolic of Shenchow, Hunan, China, was received here this week, was formerly Professor of Canon Law at St. Michael's Monastery in this city.

Bishop-elect O'Gara is a native of Ottawa, Canada. He joined the Passionist Fathers when his studies for the priesthood were almost completed at the Grand Seminary in Montreal. Following his ordination, on May 26, 1915, he came to St. Michael's Monastery here to teach Canon Law and other subjects.

The Bishop-elect, then Father O'Gara, sailed for China with twelve other Passionist Missionaries in June 1924. Arriving in China, he proceeded immediately to the western part of Hunan Province and began the study of the Chinese language. The years that followed found Father O'Gara occupying various offices in the Passionist Mission field. He was appointed Prefect Apostolic of Shenchow in 1929. While this office gave him jurisdiction over the entire personnel of the mission field, the elevation of the Prefecture to a Vicariate Apostolic and his selection to be Vicar Apostolic will bring him episcopal consecration.

Bishop-elect O'Gara's years in the mission field have been unbroken by any departure from China.

Catholic Action—means just that.

BISHOP TO EXTEND DRIVE FOR CLEAN FILMS THROUGHOUT NATION

motion pictures which offend decency and morality were launched only after years of vain hope that the producers of these pictures would realize the harm being done and take positive steps to correct the trend.

Fight Indecency

"The Committee is not hostile to the entertainment business. In fact, it recognizes entertainment as a virtual necessity in modern life. But such entertainment must be of a wholesome character, and to that objective the Committee has earnestly addressed its efforts.

"The Legion of Decency, whose members pledge themselves not to patronize theaters showing offensive films, has gathered to its banner many thousands of adherents wherever it has been introduced. Plans are being developed to extend its membership to every town and city in the United States and to invite all persons in sympathy with its purpose to lend their support.

"The Committee has been informed that, through the loyal cooperation of our Catholic people, together with a widespread response on the part of many others who believe that a purification of the cinema is an outstanding moral issue of the day, the motion picture theaters have suffered a severe curtailment of patronage. This curtailment has prompted the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., to send Mr. Martin Quigley, of New York City, and Mr. Joseph I. Breen, of Hollywood, to the meeting of the Episcopal Committee today.

Represent Producers

"The companies which are members of the above-named organizations are reputed to be responsible for approximately 90 per cent of the films produced in the United States. These companies are R.K.O. Picture Corporation, Fox Film Corporation, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Corporation, Paramount Pictures Corporation, Warner Brothers, First National Pictures Corporation, Columbia Pictures Corporation, Hal Roach, Educational Pictures, Inc., Universal Pictures Corporation, United Artists, Inc., Walter Disney Productions, Pathe, Inc., Principal Pictures, Inc.

"The representative of the Association submitted a proposal covering certain specific revisions of the industry's plan for self-regulation.

"The Committee has been pleased to receive these representatives and to learn from them of the renewed efforts toward enforcement of the industry's plan of self-regulation, effective as of July 1, 1934, which has been decided upon. The Committee is informed that the producers' jury in Hollywood, a part of the original machinery for enforcement of the production code, which was adopted in April, 1930, has been abandoned and that additional local authority has been assigned to the code administration, which administration is to be given an amplified personnel. In the past, the producers' jury has functioned ineffectively.

"The final responsibility for the character of the motion pictures to be issued by the organized industry has been accepted by the Board of Directors of the organized industry. The court of last resort in the settlement of any disputes which may arise between the studios and the code administration will be this Board of Directors.

Pleased, But Counsel Vigilance

"The Episcopal Committee views with favor the renewed efforts of the organized industry to discharge its responsibility of issuing only such motion pictures as may conform with reasonable moral standards. The Committee believes that the production code, if given enforcement, will materially and constructively influence the character of screen entertainment. Hence it is disposed to render encouragement and cooperation to these efforts, which it hopes wil lachieve the promised results.

"Our Catholic people, however, are counselled that in the long run the desired results of a wholesome screen can be assured only through unfailing opposition to evil motion pictures. The widespread interest in and loyal support of our campaign of protest must be maintained in order that the producers of motion pictures may constantly be aware of the demand for clean entertainment. The salacious and otherwise objectionable type of motion picture must be avoided.

"The Episcopal Committee hopes that the results of the organized industry's renewed efforts looking toward adequate self-regulation will be followed by an adequate moral improvement in the pictures shown. And thus it is hoped that the Catholic Bishops may be relieved of what otherwise will be the imperative necessity of continuing indefinitely and of extending the campaign of protest.

National Committee Members

"The Episcopal Committee approved of a National Committee of Priests, members of which are as follows: the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Hugh L. Lamb, D.D., Chancellor, Archdiocese of Philadelphia; the Rev. Edward Roberts Moore, Ph.D., head of the Division of Social Action, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York; the Rev. George Johnson, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Education, Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., and Executive Secretary, Department of Education, National Catholic Welfare Conference; the Rev. F. G. Dineen, S.J., Rector of St. Ignatius Church, Chicago, Ill.; the Rev. John J. Devlin, St. Victor's Church, West Hollywood, Calif."

Support from Rabbis

Dr. David Philipson, head of Rockdale Avenue Temple here, wrote Archbishop John T. McNicholas:

"You are performing an incalculable service in the cause of clean and decent recreation, and thus entering the lists against the unconscionable producers who for the sake of gain are converting an agency which has tremendous possibilities for good into one of the most corrupting influences of our day.

"It may interest you to know that at a recent meeting of the Synagogue Council of America, an organization composed of representatives of the Liberal, Conservative and Orthodox wings of udaism, I introduced a resolution for the appointment of a committee to register the Synagogue's disapproval of degrading screen and theatrical exhibitions.

"At the annual meeting of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, the largest rabbinical organization in the world, held at Wernersville, Pa., last week, a resolution was adopted deploring the harmful influences exerted by many motion pictures upon the public mind and morals, and recommending appointment of a special committee to consider the program by which the Central Conference of Rabbis can most effectively cooperate with other religious groups and civic bodies in bringing home to motion picture producers their responsibility for taking immediate steps to elevate the moral standards of pictures."

DELEGATE VISITS LEPERS

Canton, China, (NCWC-Fides)—The lepers of Shekiung, Canton, China, were touched by the kindly gesture of His Excellency the Most Rev. Mario Zanin, Apostolic Delegate to China, who received for them one of his first visits in this country.

TACOMA PARISH PROTESTANTS SIGN PLEDGE

Tacoma, Wash.—(NCWC) — The Rev. Carl H. Veazie, pastor of the First Congregational Church, here, enrolled 300 members of his congregation in the Legion of Decency this week, and returned the signed pledges to the Catholic office.

Dr. Veazie of his own initiative engaged in the campaign. He requested the Catholic Northwest Progress to secure membership blanks for him. When he returned the signed pledges he said with reference to the Legion of Decency campaign organized by the Catholic Bishops to combat the evil of salacious motion pictures: "I congratulate you on this fine piece of work in moral betterment."

Illinois Holy Name Men Will Aid Decency Drive

Belleville, Ill.—The discussion of the "Cleaner Films Movement" was a highlight of a meeting held in the city park of St. Libory, Ill. by the Holy Name Conference of the Belleville Deanery. The Conference voted full support to the Legion of Decency.

Sodalists Get Call To Lend Support Legion of Decency

Sodalists of the Rochester Parish Sodality Union are urged to give their whole-hearted support to the Legion of Decency Campaign as directed by Archbishop Mooney in this diocese, according to the Rev. Robert Fox, spiritual director and Miss Mary Leary, president of the Sodality Union.

The following plan and suggestion, issued by the Sodality national headquarters in St. Louis, is being brought to the attention of all the local Sodalities.

1. Stay away from indecent and perversive pictures. We are listing some in this issue.
2. Write your protests individually to the producing companies. And tell them what you think of them for violating their own code.
3. Write your protests to the stars of these pictures and indicate your decided displeasure.
4. Enlist others in this campaign.

And keep up the campaign during the summer. The summer is the slack time with pictures as with all other forms of entertainment. But we shall begin with full vigor and relentless persistence in the fall. The Sodality conventions and Summer Schools of Catholic Action will discuss next year's plans in detail. Out of these fuller projects will develop.

Hit the box office. But stress the code. They have, these producers, been false to their signed word and to us. We intend to tolerate this great betrayal no further Rome, (NCWC-Fides)—The Holy Father has honored Bishop Roelens, of the White Fathers, Vicar Apostolic of Upper Congo, and Bishop De Clercq, of the Scheut Missionaries, Vicar Apostolic of Upper Kasai, both pioneer missionaries of the Belgian Congo, naming them Assistants at the Papal Throne.

Theater prices have not gone down much, neither should the Sunday offering be cut, out of all proportion to the income.
