AS ONE WOMAN TO ANOTHER

By SUZANNE

SUZANNE'S done it! Yep, I've fallen in line, in fact, I've fallen off a few times of the new Lauer bicycle I invested in. It's the new way you know to reduce the hips and make Mildred the perfect 36 she needs about. That Lauer Furniture Store, 50 State Street, has coaster brake bicycles at $19.95 up. You can pay as you ride, say $1 down and $1 weekly. By the time it's paid for, you should be an expert.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR is safely and harmlessly removed by Charlotte White, 222 Cutler Bldg., by the filtered ray method. Painless and lasting. Call St. 3082 to arrange for a personal interview or write either direct to Charlotte White or to Suzanne for the free booklet, "Unwanted Hair."

THE GOOD OL'Heatline is still hanging by a thread . . . despite that can't decide whether to go up or down will last for Fall wear. And until they do, the heatline approaches safe length for mid-summer occasions.

WE QUESTION the old adage "If a millionaire by hook or crook" in reference to the Edith Shop, 28 East Ave. The name you look behind the mere rendezvous and novelties of the most modest variations await at this shop on the Avenue.

SUMMER STOCK of navies, prints, washable pastels, eyelet batiste, linen and pique suits are on sale at Janet Fitzgerald Dress Shoppe, 177 Brooks Ave., at $2.95 to $4.95. It's a wise lass who has waited to buy those extra vacation clothes until now.

ALL authorities do not agree as to when rocking chairs were first made but they do agree that they are strictly of American origin. Some have attributed the invention to Benjamin Franklin and because he was a man who liked to live comfortably it is hard to believe.

GIVE MOTHER a rest. Get your pies this week from the Aunt Jennie Bake Shop. Special, very special are their fresh red raspberry pies for 35c. Plain necessities can be gotten here. Sandwich buns, salads, cold meats, etc. are better, you'll agree if they are purchased at 310 Monroe Avenue.

YOUR HOME, presumably the place where you spend most of your time, deserves your first consideration. You'll be surprised how few pennies it costs to completely renovate it. Call C. F. Williams for a free estimate on having the living room suite reupholstered. Latest samples. 11 years of experience with Sibley, Lindsay and Miller. The phone is Glen. 4127, the address, 1302 E. Main St.

TO ACCENTUATE your summer wardrobe, try one of the new fall berets the Griffin Hat Shop, 154 Sherman St., off Lyell Ave., is showing. The berets are velvet, the brims, satin. In black and brown, at the Griffin. Prices, $1.85 and $2.85. Summer hat sale. $1.00 and $1.85. For information about that certain hat, call Glenwood 4970-W.

Berets are the hit of the season. They come in all sizes and shapes . . . from wide ones with square fronts to irregular shaped models with points that stick out on the sides. Get them in velvet, felt, stiff woolen fabrics and in all the leading colors.

CORSETIERE ALL WELL DRESSED women know the importance of a proper foundation. Emily Bushay, 323 Burke Bldg., 5 St. Paul St., will custom make a corset for any figure at an unbelievably reasonable price. Consult her and find out for yourself how much more attractive you can become.

YOUR not in the navy unless you have your stripes. Gay linen costumes in the gayest of stripes serve for country weekends and informal wear for town. What could be sweeter or smarter than a dress of striped Irish linen?

HEAT DRYS. Summer plays havoc with your scalp. The remedy is a hot oil shampoo at the Lill-Marie Beauty Shop, 523 Case Bldg. (82 St. Paul St.) The price, including a finger wave is 85c. Main 2379 for your appointment.

EVEN in Summer time your fingernails should glisten like jewels. You can add a few extra highlights to them by rubbing them with a cream which claims to have Vitamins in it. This cream, after it is rubbed off, leaves the nails dazzling with splendor.

HEALTH, happiness and success are so much more easily attained if a woman is not hampered by the arch enemy of femininity—superfluous hair. Ida E. Tegart, a registered nurse, of 270 So. Goodman St., permanently removes superfluous hair by a method recommended by physicians. No rays used. Free Consultation. Reasonable prices. Monroe 4842.

Gloves are still holding the floor. And in Fall gloves are going to be just the final touch on every costume. They are said to be interesting and amusing. Every Color and every fabric . . . no matter what your dress may be you can get a pair of gloves to match . . . say American designers of gloves.

A SUMMER without a permanent! What woman could survive with swimming and everything. If you've slipped up, arrange for one immediately at Teresa's Beauty Shop, 314 Burke Bldg. Permanent waves from $5.00 to $10.00. Individual attention and special treatment. Stone 4531.

FOR REAL FINDS in the antique line visit the Little Brown Jug, 815 Driving Park Ave. It is now open from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Oddities in furniture and glassware are found there. It's truly a treasure hunter's delight.

For a simple Summer picnic: Marmalade, jelly or jam sandwiches, chicken sandwiches, hard-boiled or stuffed eggs, cookies, cake, fruit and whatever beverages you prefer.

REUPHOLSTERING is an art. Let experts do yours. The Schmitz Upholstering Co., 1476 Dewey Ave., has a modern equipped shop. Latest fabrics, guaranteed work and reasonable prices. Glen. 2109 is the number to call for a free estimate.
