'Circus Clown' Now Showing at Palace

With all its color, its action, its blaze and heraldry, the circus, both as seen in the ring and as lived behind the tent drops, is shown on the screen of the RKO Palace Theatre this week, where Joe Brown is appearing in the First National picture, "The Circus Clown". An added attraction is Shirley Temple in "Fadon My Eyes".

Comedian Joe Brown, a circus acrobat as a boy, has actually lived the life he depicts on the screen. Critics have said that in "Circus Clown" Brown has been given a vehicle that allows his marked talents full way. Supported by an exceptionally capable company, including the entire cast of the S. C. Burpee street, he has been to a audience a tremendously funny comedy that is complete with love interest, thrills and action, and which at times has a touch of pathos that has the audience with tears.
