BISHOPS PROPOSE COUNCIL FOR CLEAN FILM CAMPAIGN IN EVERY U. S. DIOCESE

Episcopal Committee's Decision, Favoring National and Local Groups To Assist Legion of Decency Drive, Announced By Archbishop MacNicholas

Washington-(N. C. W. C.)-A plan for the formation of a National Council of the Legion of Decency and the organization of Local Councils in the various dioceses to carry on the campaign to eliminate indecent film productions has been announced by the Most Rev. John T. McNicholas, O. P., Chairman of the Episcopal Committee on Motion Pictures. Each Local Council would depend entirely on the Ordinary of the diocese in which it is organized.

Decision to form the national and diocesan groups, Archbishop McNichcont conference of the Episcopal Comcent conference of the Episcopal Committee. It was at this meeting that a National Committee of priests was decided upon to assist the Bishops in their work.

The work of the National Council, Archbishop McNicholas said, will be studied and its functions made known at a later date. Recommendation is made to the Bishops that a small council of the Legion of De- Papal Delegate Will Poncency be organized in each diocese where the Bishop approves, the membership to be from six to twelve persons. These members would be appointed by the Bishop, who would determine whether to have only laymen and laywomen or a mixed body of priests and lay persons.

DEAR BRETHREN IN CHRIST:

MY DEAR BRETHREN IN CHRIST: In the message which light you on Catholic Press Sandar last February I told you in a general way of my hopes and plane for the development of our discass nurveypaper, the Catholic Courier. An assential condition of that development is a marked increase in its circulation. At the annual convention of the Holy Name Societies of the Discase held in Geneva last April I made an appeal to the men of the Holy Name to take upon themselves the task of bringing the Courier into a much larger number of homes of the discase. Their responde was heatant and generous. By formal resolution the assembled despises and aured methat the Holy Name Societies would undertake this work. work.
