STAMPS! DON'T THROW THEM AWAY
Cancelled stamps have built missions, supported missionaries and catechists, and supplied medicine, clothing, food and other necessities of body and soul for thousands of God's poor. All stamps are acceptable as long as they are whole; stamps printed in envelopes are not wanted by collectors.
Save all stamps that come your way and get others to help you in the office force, your friend, the stenographer, the business manager from across the street, the office boy and the janitor who empties the wastebaskets.
It is best to tear stamps off envelope, leaving a little margin to protect the edges. When you have a pound or more, mail them in a metal-clasp envelope, cardboard box or burp sack (for large quantities) to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith

The fourth advertisement in a series to promote public knowledge of the funeral director's service
You Can Know How to Make Your Choice in Advance
WHEN YOU realize the dangers of postponing the selection of a funeral director to serve you, you will want guidance as to how a wise and prudent choice may be made.
YOUR OWN previous experience, or the recommendations of friends, may help to solve the problem. Lacking these helps, it is safe to judge a funeral director by the same rules that measure any other professional or business man.
YOU WILL KNOW the reputable funeral director by his standing in his community; by the type of establishment which he maintains; by his methods in directing a funeral; by the personnel of his organization; by the appearance of his equipment; by the quality of funeral merchandise that he presents.
HIGH STANDARDS in these items are good indications of high standards of service.

HOLY NAME TO MAKE FIRST REPORT MONDAY

parish work are lending whole-hearted and interested support to the task assigned by Archbishop Mooney.
"The branch societies of the Holy Name are well organized and are determined to give the best that is in them for the success of the drive. With everyone in the diocese lending generous support the efforts of the Holy Name men will be crowned with success and the diocesan organ will be in a position to wield great influence in the cause of the Church in Rochester diocese and beyond."
Early unofficial reports received by the Diocesan Holy Name Union headquarters are a source of great encouragement and inspiration to the diocesan officers. President B. Edward Shlesinger said today that he is well pleased with the way the men are taking hold of the campaign, which being the first of its kind, had no precedent to furnish ideas and plans.
President Shlesinger reports that one parish has organized 150 to work in the parish for subscriptions. Another parish got off to a flying start by taking 25 subscriptions at the church door Sunday. As an evidence of individual effort, one Holy Name man brought in 10 subscriptions the first day of the campaign.
"While every parish has not effected a perfect organization as yet, there is evidence of effort being made in each parish, including those without Holy Name Societies, to make a creditable showing in the campaign," Mr. Shlesinger said. "All factors in the campaign and credit will be given accordingly to each parish based on conditions existing in that parish. It is believed that the first reports will be a source of real encouragement to the Holy Name men and that before

EDITOR LEAVES POST TO WORK FOR NEGROES

President and former chairman of the Circulation Vigilance Committee, has brought him into contact with virtually every Catholic editor and with numerous friends of the Catholic Press.
Born at Gerardsville, Pa., 53 years ago last January 3, Father Purcell attended school in Philadelphia before he entered the Passionist Preparatory School at Dunkirk, N. Y., in February, 1896. He entered the Passionist Order at Pittsburgh, March 14, 1898, studied in Cincinnati and Louisville, and took his philosophical and theological courses at St. Michael's Monastery, Union City, N. J., then known as West Hoboken. He was ordained to the priesthood by the Most Rev. John J. O'Connor, Bishop of Newark, on December 17, 1904.
Father Purcell's first 17 years in the priesthood were devoted to giving missions and retreats, and this work took him into all but six of the States of the United States and into Canada. Particularly outstanding was his work among non-Catholics in the far West and in the deep South. He was appointed to found The Sign, a national Catholic monthly magazine, in April, 1921, and made a four-month tour of Europe in interests of the magazine the following year. In 1920, Father Purcell made another such visit to Europe for the purpose of making literary contacts, and made arrangements for The Sign with such distinguished authors as Hilaire Belloc, G. K. Chesterton, Edid Dineau, Denis Gwynn, Ernest Oldensadow, Stanley B. James and Gabriel Francis Power.
From boyhood Father Purcell has been deeply interested in the social and spiritual welfare of the American Negro. He manifested this interest particularly in assisting the Negro Apostolate in Texas and North Carolina. In entering upon the work for colored people himself, he is realizing a long-cherished ambition to arouse widespread interest among white American Catholics in the social and moral welfare of the colored race.
The headquarters of Father Harold's future work will be Montgomery, Ala., in the diocese of Mo-

Holy Name Church Parishoners Honor Fr. Raymond Lynd

Cleveland — Parishoners of Holy Name Church, here, assembled in the church hall, Monday evening, July 30, to welcome back on a brief visit their former pastor, the Rev. Raymond M. Lynd, recently named pastor of St. Mary's Church, Ravenna, and St. Joachim's Church, Coalton.
Father Lynd was presented with a gift as an evidence of the esteem in which he is held by his former parishioners. Father Lynd was commended for his earnest and efficient management of the parish during his four years as pastor. It was brought out that the flourishing condition of the parish is due in no small measure to Father Lynd's efforts.
Present at the reception was the Rev. Eugene Golding, who is assistant at Mt. Morris, formerly attended Holy Name Church and the Rev. William E. Hayes, recently named pastor of the church. Brief addresses were made by the priests. Supper was served by the ladies of the parish.

Lose Fat This Summer—Keep Cool—Look and Feel Younger
Mrs. Jesse Martin of Saxs Francisco is happy because she has discovered the right, safe way to reduce—read her letter:
"I have been overweight for 6 months and had great trouble. I have lost 14 lbs. in that time and would lose more if I took to a diet as I should. I take them every morning before breakfast and hope others will profit by them as I have."
We have letters from men and women who have lost as much as 200 pounds of fat—from people who have reduced high blood pressure—from folks who have no more bloating or shortness of breath.
Kruschun helps stomach, liver, bowels to function properly—increases physical attractiveness all while losing unhealthy fat. Just take a half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—get it at drugstore every where.
