Sacred Heart Academy To Conduct Holy Hour

Holy Hour will be held October 4, the eve of the First Friday of the month at 7:30 o'clock in the Convent Chapel, Academy of the Sacred Heart, 8 Prince Street, with meditations being given by the Rev. Benedictus Eschmann. The members of the League of the Sacred Heart are invited to attend these devotions.

Dean of Students John R. Wilkinson reported that the registration has not only increased in the accounting course but also in the Business Administration, Bachelor of Science in Economics, and pre-Law School courses.

Because of the increased enrollment the school quarters in the Columbus Building have been enlarged to accommodate more classrooms, a student's lounge, a student-faculty conference room and a new larger library, which will be one of the most complete accountancy law libraries in Western New York when completed.

Newly matriculated students at the school will be entertained at a Student Mixer to be held shortly before the Thanksgiving recess.

"We have done all we could here to relieve the distress by distributing food and taking in some of the poorest children to keep them at the Mission. But now our funds are exhausted and unless friends at home come to our rescue, we shall find these poor people in their hour of dire need.

"The school is under the direction of the Vincentian Fathers.

They say she could not stand the sight of their misery. Yesterday a pagan woman brought her two children to the Mission, asking us for the sake of the Christian God to give them something to eat. All I could do was to give them a meal.
