Holy Name Campaign Nears 3000 As Parishes Continue To Report

That the Holy Name Societies of the Diocese have not ceased their efforts for subscriptions for the CATHOLIC COURIER with the closing of their formal campaign last Friday, is evident from the number of additional subscriptions that continued to pour into headquarters of the Diocesan Holy Name Union this week, making a total of 2909 new subscriptions to date. From all parts of the Diocese came reports of additional subscriptions obtained and parishes reporting for the first time. St. Monica's. Rochester, added 21 jannounced totals, but we wish to say

Archbishop Blesses Tekakwitha Statue In Holy Family Yard

In the presence of a large crowd 122 of parishioners, Archbishop Mooney Francis Hoffman. The major enter- Blessed Sacrament, Rochester 112 on Tuesday dedicated a statue of tainment feature was are impromptu St. Patrick, Elmira 109 Catherine Tekakwitha, "Lily of the 103 Mohawks," in Holy Family Church 99 yard. Assisting were the Rev. Peter 79 Auriesville Shrine of the North American Martyrs, the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell, pastor, and the Rev. Roy 64 B. Morphy, assistant paster of Holy 54 Family Church.

Priests attending included the Rev. Immaculate Conception, Ithaca 53 49 William Bernet, the Rev. Edward F. 47 Otto, Buffalo; the Rev. Joseph X. 45 Scherer, pastor of Our Lady Help 43 of Christians, Cheektowaga.

At the close of the ceremony in 36 the school hall. Archbishop Mooney speaking on the significance of the erection of the statue explained that Catholics venerate not the clay of the statue but those whom the statues represent. He pointed out that the statues represent individuals who by religious fervor and zeal during their lives have been declared blessed or Saints by the Church.

The shrine is the gift of Haubner and Stallknecht, Rochester funeral directors.
