Hallowe'en is here with its marionettes, witches, goblins, ghosts, bobbing for apples, and FUN.
No one desires to deprive children of legitimate recreation, but when a statement that $5,000.00 worth of electric light bulbs were broken at Hallowe'en time three years ago, then it is time to act.
Have your fun and amusement, but remember that wanton destruction of property is intolerable. Boys and girls do you realize that pranks, which endanger life and cause the loss or destruction of property, are sinful? Think before playing your Hallowe'en tricks!

In a letter on American Education Week sent to teachers, principals and pastors of the diocese, the Rev. John M. Duffy, Diocesan Superintendent of Catholic Schools, suggested: Masses, Holy Communion, prayers offered on Sunday, November 4, for Catholic Education.
"American Education Week," Father Duffy wrote "affords a splendid opportunity . . . to let the public appreciate that the Catholic schools are bearing fruit in equipping children with the necessary knowledge and character to fulfill a useful purpose in society."
All boys and girls in grammar and high schools, having a savings account in the Rochester Savings Bank, may compete in the sixth annual Prize Story Contest conducted by the Bank.

Stories must combine the spirit of Christmas and the lesson of thrift. Prize winning stories will be published in the December issue of the "Thrift Advocate." Prizes are as follows: $12.00 for the best story from a senior high school student; $8.00 for the best story from a junior high school student; and $5.00 for the best story from an elementary school pupil. With Christmas in the offing, these prizes sound enticing! Remember, send your story to the Rochester Savings Bank on or before November 24.

Suggestion for a gift for a school child—"Mass Prayers for God's Children" by the Rev. L. A. Galea, Catechetical Guild, St. Paul, Minnesota. This book will be helpful as a first step toward using a missal.
Although school has been in session more than a month, Sister Kathleen Marie, teacher in the first grade of St. Columbanus Parochial School, Chicago, has not yet devised a method of identifying the individual member of the five sets of twins in her class.
What makes the problem more difficult is that each set of twins is of the same sex. The names of the youngsters and their ages are: James and Garrett Doyle, 6; Tom and James Kelly, 5; Jerry and Jo Adelbach, 5; William and John Shefick, 5; Kathleen and Josephine Brennan, 5.

Catholic Courier CARRIERS
We warn those few boys who failed to appear at the meeting for Rochester carrier boys that they must report personally to the CATHOLIC COURIER office at once. Failure to do so may bring drastic treatment. There are no favorite few who may excuse themselves from meetings. We appreciate the cooperation of those boys who attended and know they found it well worth their trouble.
Due to the fact that we do not have the anticipated number of extra copies of the OFFICIAL DIOCESAN REVIEW AND ANNUAL CALENDAR, we will be unable to send each Rochester carrier boy five extra copies as we had announced at the meeting.
Under the terms of the agreement signed by each carrier boy, postage for returns are to be covered by the carrier. In the future we will bill those boys who are deficient for postage due on receipt of returns.
We remind our carrier boys that they must not make deductions in their returns for papers delivered to those subscribers who have made a 50 cent prepayment and who want it applied at the first instead of the last week, as they agreed. Credits for those papers will be assigned for the last ten weeks only. Make this known to your customers.
