Arrange Special Musical Program For Christmas Feast in Elmira

Elmira—The Feast of Christmas will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Church this year with a Solemn High Mass at midnight on Christmas Eve, the pastor, Rev. William J. Brien, being celebrant of the Mass. The Rev. Francis Reilly will be deacon, and Rev. Earl M. Tobin will be sub-deacon. The Rev. Daniel C. Holland will be Master of Ceremonies.

St. Patrick Boys Choir Will Mark 2nd Anniversary

Elmira—The second anniversary of St. Patrick's Boys' Choir is approaching. The coming of the New Year brings to mind the first appearance of these twenty-eight boys. With few exceptions, the children now offering hymns of praise to God are the same ones as sang the "Missa Pro Defunctis" on January 2, 1932, at which Rev. William J. Brien, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, officiated.

The following March they rendered "Missa de Angelis." When the new organ was dedicated in St. Patrick's Church, a recital was given by Philip Krockel of Rochester, during which the boys sang "Ave Maria," by Arcadelt, in two parts.

Since that time the boys have sung on different occasions the following: Mass in honor of St. Aloysius; two parts, Singenberger.

Offertory—Victorium—Traditional Melody, two parts, Gregorian.

Adoro te devote, Gregorian.

Pants Angelicus, two parts, C. Franck.

Christus Vincit, Bragers.

All Holy Week music, consisting of Antiphons for Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, including the Litany of the Saints.

Processional Hymns, Vexilla Regis and Pange Lingua.

Magnificat, two parts, Gregorian.

Three Hour Agony Services, Pietro Yon.

Proper of Midnight Mass at Christmas, Tozer.

Proper for eleven o'clock Mass, Christmas, Tozer.

Ecce Natus Dominus Emmanuel. Proper for Easter Tozer.

Litany of Blessed Virgin Mary. Jesu Redemptor omnium, Ravanello.

Tantum Ergo Sacramentum, Fr. Petter.

Tantum Ergo Sacramentum, Sr. M. Cherubim.

Miscellaneous hymns for different occasions.

The boys will repeat the Christmas music this year.

Holy Name A. A. in Elmira Plans Unique Social Event, Jan. 10

Elmira—A novel departure from the usual method of conducting card parties will be presented by the Holy Name Athletic Association of Elmira in a social program at the Dunn Memorial Auditorium, Thursday evening, January 10.

Preceding the session of card playing, the Lyceum Players of Auburn will present two one-act comedies, "Town Hall Tonight" and "Oh, Yes, Doctor." The St. Cecilia's Junior Glee Club will also be heard in a repertoire of Irish airs.

The stage entertainment will be given at 8:15 and the card playing will be from 9:30 to 11:30. Refreshments will be served.

The committee consists of: S. Bernard Cole and Miss Elizabeth Conroy, general chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Regynkio, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bednarek, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daley, John J. O'Brien, Miss Catherine O'Connor, Frank McCarthy, Miss Margaret Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Farrell.

Mrs. Charles Lynch is organist, and Slater M. Cecella of the Sisters of Mercy, St. Patrick's School, is director of the Boys' Choir.

K. C. Council Initiates Members 105 Years Old

Lakewood, N. J. (NCWC) — The initiation of Thomas J. Early, 105 years old, in Lakewood Council, No. 136, of the Knights of Columbus, is announced here by Grand Knight Harry H. Ober. The age limits in the Council now are 18 to 105 years.

Mr. Early was born in New York City, September 3, 1829.

There is no better or more correct way of assisting a Mass than by use of the Missal.—Fr. Lord, S. J.

Remember the less fortunate at Christmas.

ELMIRA

By WILLIAM STOWELL JR. Plans have been made by the Holy Name Society of St. Peter and Paul's parish for semi-monthly card parties. Arrangements are under way to hold four parties in the school hall before the Lenten season.

Following Lent, the parties will be continued on the semi-monthly plan. Cards and other articles will be furnished.

The following committees were appointed at a meeting Monday: Ticket, Harry O'Neil, chairman; Howard Duffy, John Mallick, McMahon, James Connelly and Stanley O'Leary refreshments, Chairman; Frank McCarthy, Michael Brest and Charles O'Donnell, hall, Chairman; James Hays, Nicholas Tartino, William Supple Jr. and Leonard Sullivan, Prizes, Chairman, Fred McNulty, Charles Fohy and Vincent Glavin. Plans have been made for a Father and Son banquet on Feb. 12. James Powers is chairman.

At the monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Patrick's church at the Dunn Memorial of St. Joseph's hospital, Thursday evening December 13, Walter J. "Rabbit" Maravillo was the speaker. The Brava's great little shortstop, a native of Rochester, entertained a capacity crowd with stories of his brilliant major league career.

Baseball today is tame in comparison with the game of twenty years ago, when the Rabbit first broke into the majors. "There is less psychology in the game today than ever," declared Maravillo. "What made Ty Cobb the greatest exponent of the game? It was because he didn't care what happened so long as he gained his goal. There is too much good-fellowship between players today."

Joe Genewich and John J. Murray, both former Giant's stars, the former at one time also with the Braves, spoke briefly in praise of the "Rabbit."

Devotions at the meeting were conducted by the Rev. William J. Brien of St. Patrick's Church. The Erie Railroad double quartette sang.

Joseph E. Ryan Announces Openings of New Funeral Home At No. 4 West Ave.

Opening of a new funeral home at 4 West Avenue, modestly equipped to meet present day needs is announced by Joseph Edward Ryan, funeral director, who for the past two years has been located at 106 West Main Street.

Mr. Ryan, son of Mrs. Anthony J. Ryan, of 50 Hobart Street, opened his business at 106 West Main Street after returning two years ago from Chicago where he had been associated with E. J. Sullivan, one of the best known and most successful funeral directors of that city.

In the West Main Street location, Mr. Ryan was established in the same location where his father, the late A. J. Ryan had established a reputation as one of the best known funeral directors of this city. The son carried on there until pressing needs for more adequate quarters necessitated the change to the new and larger funeral home.

Mr. Ryan was graduated from St. Augustine's School, attended Aquinas Institute, later going to La Salle Military Academy at Oakdale, L. I. He took a Business course at Rochester Business Institute and then went to the Syracuse School of Embalming from which he was graduated with an excellent record.

In New Location

Thomas Taylor and Fred Jackson, proprietors of the Lyell Ave. Liquor Store announce the opening of their new establishment, 193 Lyell Avenue next door to the Lyell Products store. The new store is completely equipped to handle the requirements of their large patronage.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. (NCWC) — Two sticks of dynamite attached to a partly burned fuse were found a few nights ago under the porch of the residence of the Very Rev. Major John J. Curran, pastor of St. Mary's church here, who has recently been active in peace negotiations between rival mine factions, the police announced.

Ithaca Boy Scout Troop Sponsored by K. of C. Invests Ten Members

Ithaca—Troop No. 13, Boy Scouts of America, sponsored by Ithaca Council, Knights of Columbus, with ten new Scouts recently invested in the troop is looking forward to a successful New Year.

This troop during its fifteen years of existence has made an enviable record in Scouting. Last year the Troop took first place in a Council rally and the cup in camping and this year got second place in a field of 57 troops.

Every year the troop has a summer camp at Cayuga Lake where members of the troop have dug up a fine collection of Indian relics from the site of an old Indian village.

Last month, Troop No. 13 enjoyed an overnight camp at the Beech Show Shoe Club as guests of Mayor Louis P. Smith. Awards of Eagle and Life Scouts were made to members of the troop at a recent Court of Honor.

Troop No. 13 extends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all Boy Scouts in the Diocese of Rochester.
